It was excellent Republican weather all over the country yesterday. Skies were clear at almost all points. Western Pennsylvania, with her pall of clouds, being the exception to the general rule. A little rain and snow was reported from New York and isolated points along the Atlantic coast, but nothing severe enough to prevent getting out the vote. In Pittsburgh the thermometer remained close to the freezing point, though during the evening the cold moderated greatly, the mercury standing at 34 at 8 o'clock. Today the predictions are for slowly moderating weather, with generally fair skies. The really warm wave is still west of the Mississippi, and will not reach this section before to-morrow.

TIME CALLED ON TAMMANY

A Fusion Majority of About 32,000 Drives the Tiger Back to His Lair, and Deposes Croker from Power.

ALL BOROUGHS EXCEPT ONE ELECT REFORM PRESIDENTS

Republican County Ticket Wins, Too, Including Jerome for District Attorney—Jubilant Crowds of Well-Dressed Lovers of Decency Fill the Streets With Joy—But Little Disorder Mars the Day.

NEW YORK, November 5, 1901.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

I am very much gratified at the result, which bears out what my friends have told me they anticipated. I especially wish to thank the newspapers for the splendid support they have given the fusion ticket. They have been an extremely important factor in bringing about the result that has been attained.

I shall leave for Great Barrington tomorrow afternoon, to be gone until some time next week. No one except Mrs. Low will go with me. While I am there I shall try to get a little rest, and I shall be glad if the people of New York will allow me to be quite for a few days. When I come back I shall be the city's man and shall give my attention to the problems that will face me.

SETH LOW.

NEW YORK, November 5, 1901.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

Tell the people for me that if this election is the voice of the people I have no excuse to make nor reasons to offer for the result. The people evidently wanted a change, and if by getting a change they are going to better the city I approve of it. It is only through such movements as we have recently seen that a change in administration is brought.

If one administration or party continues in power all the time we should be living under a monarchy. It is sometimes a good thing to have changes. Democratic government rests upon change. If the people are satisfied with the situation, I sincerely hope they will be benefited by the change and that the city will be the better for it.

RICHARD CROKER.

NEW YORK, November 5, 1901.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

I sincerely wish Mr. Low a successful administration. The people have indicated their decided purpose. Not only is it the duty of every citizen to cheerfully acquiesce, but he should do his utmost to make the result beneficial to the entire city. All of us—Democrats and Republicans alike—should loyally hold up the hands of those whom the people have chosen.

EDWARD M. SHEPARD.

WALTER WELLMAN SIZES UP THE VICTORY.

(Special Dispatch to The Pittsburgh Gazette.)
(Chicago Record-Herald Special.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Tammany is overwhelmed. Seth Low has been elected mayor of Greater New York by a majority of about 32,000 over Edward M. Shepard, the Tammany candidate. The reform forces have made a clean sweep. Their victory is decisive and complete. Low has carried every one of the five great boroughs except Queens.

William Travers Jerome is elected district attorney of New York county, and the machinery of public prosecution is thus for two years placed in the hands of a fearless man. Between now and January 1 there will be a great exodus of thieves, bribe-takers and all sorts of vicious men from the city of New York.

By placing Seth Low in the mayor's chair, the people of New York have secured that which to them was the most important result, a reformation of the police force. In the election of Jerome they have secured the next most important result, an assurance that there shall be honesty in public prosecutions. Thus the chain is complete. There shall be no police protection of vice for pay. Thieves and bribe-takers shall not be able to escape justice.

Downfall of Croker.

The election of Low is, above all else, a repudiation of Richard Croker. He can no longer rule over New York city. He can no longer control a municipal government which spends every year a sum of money greater than the annual budget of all the national governments in the world, eight first-class powers excepted.

Not only is the triumph a great one, but the manner in which the people of New York are tonight celebrating it is full of significance and encouragement. This community is wild with joy. Its demonstrations are those of a people who feel that they have escaped a great evil, like plague or pestilence. Broadway was tonight a holiday thoroughfare. Scores of thousands of people marched up and down, blowing horns, shouting, crying out for joy. They filled the street from curb to curb. They blocked the cars. But there was no disorder. These were decent people. They were out celebrating the triumph of decency in their well-loved city.

The joyful crowds of this night were well-dressed, well-behaved. Among them were thousands of pretty girls and comely women—not the sort of women who are usually so much in evidence along Broadway, but girls and women out with their brothers, fathers and sweethearts, and all tooting horns like mad. Such jubilation among the women over a political event, I have never before seen.

Returns also indicate the complete triumph of the Greater New York fusion ticket, Charles Vincent Fornes, the nominee of the Citizens' union and the Republicans for president of the board of aldermen, defeating George M. Van Hoesen, the Democratic nominee. E. M. Grout, for the past four years Democratic president of the borough of Brooklyn, now the fusionist nominee for comptroller, has also defeated W. W. Ladd, Jr., Democrat.

Returns from the local, borough and county tickets are incomplete. Complete returns received from Staten Island, however, show that Congressman Nicholas Muller has been defeated in his canvass for president of the borough of Richmond by George Cromwell, fusionist. In the borough of Queens the election of Joseph Cassidy, Democrat, as president of the borough, over Henry Doht, Republican, and Robert B. Lawrence, Citizens' union, is conceded. In the boroughs of Brooklyn, Manhattan and the Bronx additional and possibly official returns will be required to determine the results for borough president and other local officers.

Republican Triumphs Up-State.

Reports received from the various section of New York state show that the Republicans will retain control of the lower house of the state legislature, the number of Republican and Democratic assemblymen not differing materially from the figures of preceding years. In the various municipal contests reported from up the state, the most interesting elections noted were those of Albany, Troy, Rochester, Syracuse and Buffalo. The city of Albany was carried by the Republicans, ex-Senator David B. Hill taking active part in the local canvass. The election in Troy was a lively one, a number of arrests for illegal voting being made.

Seth Low, at 9 o'clock tonight, said at his home, where he was receiving election returns:

"I suppose it is safe to assume the result of the election is now assured. It bears out what my friends have anticipated, and I am very much gratified by the result. This is a pleasant outcome of a hard struggle. I appreciate heartily the splendid support the newspapers have given this movement. I think they have been a splendid and important factor in bringing about the result."

Mr. Low said that tomorrow he and his wife are going to Great Barrington, Mass., where they would remain for the remainder of the week, if not for a longer time.

Croker Hears the News.

Richard Croker received the returns in the private room of Tammany hall. The leader was surrounded by a crowd of men long prominent in the organization, among them John F. Carroll, deputy leader; Mayor Van Wyck, Corporation Counsel Whalen, and City Chamberlain T. C. T. Crane. Mr. Croker sat at the press table and listened with his customary lack of expressed emotion as the bulletins were read. From the first they were unfavorable, and the crowd of leaders heard the figures called off without comment.

Mr. Croker from time to time directed that comparisons be made with the vote last year. He declined to make any statement, however, until 7:30, when he said he thought the Democrats had elected their candidates on the county ticket. This ticket, includes the borough presidency of Manhattan with great patronage under the revised charter, and the important office of district attorney, for which Justice William Travers Jerome, the fusionist nominee, made a notable campaign against Henry W. Unger, Democrat. At the time that he claimed the county ticket Mr. Croker said he did not care to say anything as to the race for the mayoralty.

Mayor Van Wyck, who was a candidate for the supreme court bench, and who was bitterly assailed during the campaign, was an interested listener as the returns came in.

Croker Gives It Up.

Richard Croker at 8:45 o'clock to-night conceded the election of Seth Low, fusion candidate for mayor, but Mr. Croker was not willing at that time to give up the county ticket. He said he was much disappointed at the Brooklyn vote, as he had expected Mr. Shepard to make a good showing there, it being his home borough. As to the causes for the defeat of the Democratic ticket Mr. Croker said he was inclined to ascribe it to the large silent vote and the fact that the people sometimes feel that they want a change.

At 10 o'clock tonight Richard Croker, again commenting on Mr. Shepard's defeat, said he could not ascribe it to any one issue.

"The people wanted a change," said he, "and the organization bows to the will of the people. Tammany hall has been in power for practically 17 years, and if any one party were to remain in control for too long a period the tendency would be toward a perpetuation of power until the result would resemble a monarchy. Tammany has always profited by defeat, and I hope will do so this time."

The great feature of the voting was the early casting of ballots. This applied to the brownstone as well as to the tenement house districts. There was a drizzling rain up to 9 a. m., but after that hour there was nothing to keep even the most fastidious voter from the polls.

Seth Low, fusion candidate for mayor, cast his ballot at 7:35 a. m.; Edward M. Shepard, Democratic candidate, at 11:25; Richard Croker and his two sons were Nos. 1, 2 and 3 at their polling place, a minute after 6 a. m.; Senator Chauncey M. Depew dropped his ballot into the box at 9:45 a. m., and Mayor Van Wyck waited until 3 p. m.

FRAUD CRY SHOWN TO BE UNFOUNDED

Election Conducted in an Orderly Manner—Philadelphia Republicans Celebrate Victory With Music and Fireworks.

BY CHESTER D. POTTER,
Staff Correspondent.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Nov. 5.—A magnificent victory has been won. At this hour, 11 o'clock, cannon are booming, the heavens are ablaze and cheering, enthusiastic thousands are demonstrating.

Gen. Frank Reeder, Republican state chairman, says Potter and Harris will come to Philadelphia with over 50,000, and the vote here will swell it above the century mark. Allegheny county and the city of Pittsburgh made a splendid showing. Gen. Reeder is advised that the total plurality will reach 25,000. Since 8 o'clock he has received an average of 60 telegrams an hour from Chairmen Robertson and Brown, and their estimates were in accord with those of the stalwart leaders there. Lancaster reports a plurality of 7,500; Lebanon was in line, and Indiana, the home of Gen. Elkin, comes down with a plurality of 2,700. Chester county, the home of Superintendent T. Larry Eyre and Senator Snyder, seems to have slumped, but the Republicans claim it by 1,000.

Fusion's Poor Showing.

But it was in Philadelphia, the home of Wanamaker, the hotbed of insurgency, that the mills ground exceedingly fine. Fourteen out of 41 wards, complete, give Weaver, Stalwart candidate for district attorney, 25,000 plurality. Full returns from the city are expected to increase this to 40,000 or more. Of the first 14 wards the Republicans carried 11, fusionists three. Commissioner Durham's ward, the Seventh, gave 3,200; Eighth ward, Penrose's, 1,500, and the Twentieth, that of Councilman McNichols, 2,500. Senator David Martin carried his home ward, the Nineteenth.

The fight was one for supremacy in the state as well as the city. Both sides took this view. Had fusion won in the state John Wanamaker would have been fusion candidate for United States senator and James Gay Gordon for governor. The result will not encourage the arrangement entered into by Wanamaker, Guffey and their fellow fusionists. On the contrary, it would seem to discourage a continuance of the five years' war against party regularity and majority rule.

An unprecedented off year vote was cast in Philadelphia. It will probably exceed 200,000. There was some confusion and a few arrests in down-town wards, the disturbers being Union party workers. The cry of fraud was kept up by the insurgents until the count began; then they subsided. The stalwart majority was too great to be explained upon grounds of illegal voting.

Indicative of the intense interest shown was the fact that in the Twenty-eighth ward, where smallpox has been epidemic, voters under quarantine were taken to the polls, voted and then again placed under guard. This was done by both stalwart and fusion managers.

Gen. Frank Reeder, Republican state chairman, when asked what effect the victory would have upon the future of the insurgent movement, said:

"It ought to be apparent to the boxers and insurgents that their method of campaigning will never lead to victory. The Democratic party is sacrificing its autonomy for nothing, and will have hard work to reform their lines, which have been much broken by their union with the insurgent Republicans, and surrendering the management of their campaign into the hands of the insurgent leaders.

"I do not believe they will ever again unite with the 'kicking element' of the Republican party. I do not believe that 'fusion' will ever again be seriously attempted. Should it be tried again it must inevitably prove a dismal and grotesque failure."

Old Fashioned Victory.

"The victory in the state is of the old-fashioned Keystone variety. Fusion, yellow journalism, abuse and vilification have met with a well-merited rebuke. In politics truth and decency always win; falsehood and slander invariably lose.

"It is most gratifying to all good and loyal Republicans that the organization has successfully resisted the assaults of the disappointed and treacherous foes who have so recently left our ranks, and that the result is so complete an indorsement of President Roosevelt's administration. A defeat in Pennsylvania would have been accepted as an expression of a want of confidence in the man whose nomination to the vice presidency was largely due to the enthusiastic insistence of Pennsylvania stalwarts.

"Fusion is dead in Pennsylvania. No attempt to galvanize it into life next year can succeed. Party treason is at a discount. Boodle and blackguardism will disappear as a political factor. Regularity is at a premium."

"We whipped them to a standstill, and I believe to a finish," said Commissioner Durham. "This ought to put an end to movements based upon the issue of character assassination. The people are tired of such methods."

Penrose Gratified.

Mr. Durham and Senator Penrose led the big parade which marched up Broad street. Hundreds of clubs were in line and the demonstration was one of the greatest ever witnessed in this city.

"I am very much gratified," said Senator Penrose. "The Republicans made an open, fair fight for good and the principle of majority-rule. They have been indorsed decisively. Good men were elected. The affairs of the state will continue to be administered by Repub-

Republicans Elect the Governor by at Least 7,000 Majority.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 5.—The early returns received from all points in the state indicate that Murphy, Republican, for governor, has been elected and that the election is now simply a matter of plurality.

The returns thus far indicate the election of Murphy by at least 7,000.

ALLEGHENY THE BANNER COUNTY

Unofficial Returns Show That the Republican State Ticket Received the Unprecedented Off Year Majority of 25,000.

CUT ON JUDGE POTTER DID NOT MATERIALIZE

In Some Places He Lost Votes, but Gains Were Made Elsewhere That Evened Up the Total—Nineteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-first Wards Roll Up Big Majorities for the Candidates—Republicans Did Themselves Proud.

The "State of Allegheny" bids fair to be the banner county of Pennsylvania. Unofficial returns place the majority for the Republican ticket at 25,000.

This is an unprecedented off-year majority. The Republicans were loyal, while the Democrats have refused to support the monger ticket. Thousands of the members of the minority party did not go to the polls.

The indications are that Pittsburgh will give a Republican majority of 15,000. If the state ticket is given this plurality, it will be 6,000 in excess of the Barnett surplus of two years ago.

Allegheny Republicans have done themselves proud. Two years ago Barnett was given about 4,000 votes on the North Side. The indications are that Potter and Harris will have a majority of between 5,000 and 6,000. The two candidates will run about even.

The returns of the country districts have been a trifle hard to get, but enough are in to show that the rural Republicans were keeping well abreast of their brethren in the two cities.

The predicted cut on Judge Potter has not materialized. In some places he has lost votes, but gains were made elsewhere that evened up the total. In the East End, his home, Judge Potter was shown that his neighbors have great confidence in him. The magnificent majority is a complete rebuke to the people who have attempted to slander him.

The Nineteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-first wards are the three big divisions of the East End. The former is the home of Thomas S. and Edward M. Bigelow and other stalwart leaders. The management of the ward was left to James M. McKee. The result proves his success as a manager. The Nineteenth leads the East End wards, giving a majority of 1,375 for the Republican ticket.

The Twentieth ward, with two districts to be heard from, gave the ticket a majority of 1,007. The Twenty-first follows with a plurality of 1,001.

When the votes are all in the Union party management will probably discover that it was in the "also ran" class. So far Oakmont is the only place that is known to have given a Union party majority.

Even some of the regular Democratic wards of the city went Republican. Among the noticeable ones was the First. In one district of this old Democratic stronghold, Coray was not given a vote.

STALWARTS GATHER IN OLD CITY HALL.

A portion of the stalwart Republican army in Pittsburgh last night packed Old City hall to the doors. These loyal party workers were there to celebrate the great victory they had made possible.

The thousands of chairs were filled with men that had not been in Old City hall on similar occasions in the past. Familiar faces were missing. Younger men, whose loyalty to the party has never been questioned, were there, as they will be after the February election and after the contest of a year hence, when stalwart state and county officers will be chosen.

Early in this campaign, so gloriously closed in Allegheny county, the stalwarts saw the need for activity. From ward to ward, night after night, the stalwart orators preached the gospel of Republicanism.

Their chief spokesman was Recorder Adam M. Brown. The speakers talked to hundreds each night. The result is shown in the probable majority of 15,000 in the city. The stalwarts had a right to celebrate, and also to point with pride to the fact that this great vote is an indorsement of the administration of Recorder Brown.

Senator Flinn and his followers try to claim the credit for the big vote. Had it gone the other way they would have been just as positive that the defeat was caused by the stalwarts.

Banners Were Parade Feature.

Before the meeting was a short parade of the members of the Nineteenth Ward Republican association. There were over 400 men in line, and they were led by Maj. James M. McKee. Among the numerous banners were these:

"All that is left of the Democratic-Fusion-Insurgent party is a Creasy spot."

"Go 'way back and sit down, Yerkes, but not on the supreme bench."

"Oh, Harris, don't you weep; we have buried Coray in the deep."

The winners of the state handicap—Potter, first, and Harris, second. Also ran, Yerkes and Coray. Time, 10 years."

"Who furnished the plunder for the Union party? The street car trust of Pennsylvania."

"Who distributed the yellow newspapers? The street car trust of Pennsylvania."

When the marchers reached the hall the place was well filled and the Nineteenth ward men packed the building. Among the prominent persons on the stage were the following:

Thomas S. Bigelow, Director Edward M. Bigelow, City Assessor R. P. Doyle, Alderman J. R. Connor, Director Andrew Fulton, Mahlon M. Garland, Magistrate David J. McGary, Samuel Andrews, superintendent of schools; Director William W. Nesbit, Select Councilman Peter Hermes and Maj. John W. Nesbit, prohibition agent.

W. B. Hays called the meeting to order and James P. Burke was made chairman. He said that the stalwarts invited them present to return next year and hear the returns. The Harris quartet sang a number of songs. This was followed by the reading of returns.

The house rang with cheers as the results in the various districts of the city were made known and it was shown that the stalwarts had won a great victory.

When it was announced that the Second district of the old Democratic Fifth ward had given Harris 110 and Coray 7 votes the applause was deafening. The cheering was another mighty shout when the bulletin announcing Croker's defeat was read.

Greeting for Judge Cohen.

Judge Josiah Cohen was loudly applauded when introduced. "The stalwarts," he said, "have put on a judge of the court speaking on political matters, and so I have nothing to say about the national, state or municipal governments," said Judge Cohen. "I simply want to say that it is one of the grandest spectacles of American life when all men of all religious views can meet on a common platform as American citizens in behalf of the perpetuation of American liberty."

Judge Cohen spoke highly of the judges of the Allegheny county courts who have been re-elected. He paid a tribute to the judges of the orphans courts, saying he could do so with modesty, as he had had yet done nothing. He said it was a splendid thing for a man who died leaving his substance to know that it would be cared for by men of integrity. "Mounting still higher, it is a great satisfaction to know that you have elected a man to the supreme court who will join with the other members of that great body in protecting your interests."

D. M. Miller, assistant district attorney, congratulated the stalwarts on the great victory they had won. He promised the audience that they would hear of stalwart victories next spring and fall. Mr. Miller said that the magnificent vote in Pittsburgh was a fitting compliment to the administration of Recorder Brown. He said that the people now had the best government they had been given in Pittsburgh for years.

There was loud and continued applause when Chairman Burke introduced Thomas S. Bigelow. When the stalwart leader reluctantly stepped to the front there was another great ovation and three hearty cheers were given him before he was allowed to speak. He thanked the audience and said:

"I want to congratulate you on the grand victory we have won today."

There were more returns read and sufficient data had been secured to show that there would be a majority of over 20,000 in the county. This announcement created the greatest enthusiasm.

The meeting closed after cheers speeches had been made by Joseph Vichstein, M. Garland, John F. Cox and Dr. Clin

GREAT VOTE IN ALLEGHEN

Plurality Seems Likely to Exc Total Vote Cast for Creasy and Barnett.

The vote polled in Allegheny was largest brought out in that city for off-year election in many years. only was the vote of James E. Barn his campaign for state treasurer increased, but the plurality given Harris was even greater than the entire vote cast for Creasy and Barnett.

State Treasurer James E. Barnett, Who Will be Succeeded by Treasurer-Elect Harris.

Justice Potter was out very little. He ran so far ahead of the ticket in other sections that the cutting, done mostly in the Second ward, was more than offset. But slight breaks occurred in the list of common pleas judges. Coroner Jesse R. McGeary fell behind the ticket in many districts.

The voting began early and at noon a fair vote had been polled. In the Fifth ward, the home of Governor William A. Stone, the vote was above the average. The governor was at the polls early, casting his vote at 7:15 a. m., after which he left for the east. In the fourth, Governor Stone's precinct, Justice Potter was given 128 votes and Judges Porter 92. Potter ran four votes ahead of Harris in this precinct.

A number of officials received the city returns in the office of Recorder John J. Murphy. At 11 o'clock Judge Rodgers said that the plurality given the head of the ticket would probably exceed the total vote cast for state treasurer a few years ago, when Barnett's plurality was 7,142.

A feature of the day was the vote polled in the Spring Garden avenue district. Here the support given Justice Potter more than equaled any discrepancies in other districts. In the third precinct of the Seventh ward the vote cast yesterday only lacked 23 of the number polled for McKinley last year, when 310 votes were cast. Of this number 303 were accredited to Coray. The Union ticket did not figure enough to be noticed.

RETURNS HEARD AT CLUBS.

Downfall of Tammany Divided Interest With Victory of State Ticket.

Election returns were received in many of the clubs of Allegheny, and aside from the state election interest centered in New York. In the office of City Recorder Murphy there was a large gathering of officials watching the returns closely. Those present included Director McAfee, Judge Elliott Rodgers, Treasurer John C. Ketzel, John H. Henderson and many other city officials.

The most interest was paid to the vote cast in Allegheny. It showed the effects of hard work at the polls, although there was apparently some apathy on the part of the officials before the election. Almost all the employes of the hall were about the polls yesterday and they way they brought out the vote was very favorable to the leaders.

The returns from the state were received and read in the Alexander Hamilton club in Church avenue. There were a number of members of the club present. In other clubs the returns were received by telegraph and telephone.

The Fifteenth ward, Pittsburgh, Tariff club members received the election returns in their comfortable rooms in Butler street. A wire was run into the front parlor and a telegraph operator took the news from the sounder as it came in. Samuel Wainwright announced to the members the bulletins from all over the country as fast as they were received. The news of Tammany's defeat caused great rejoicing.

FLINN IS BLIND TO WORK OF STALWARTS

Commenting on the Victory He Ridicules Their Part in Obtaining It.

Senator William Flinn last night declared that the credit for the victory in Allegheny county belongs to the county city committees. The result in the city, he said, was due to Chairman J. Brown and Secretary Robert Osterlaier and in the county to Chairman A. Robertson and Secretary Fred W. Edwards. Senator Flinn did not consider the court organization or the city administration as a factor in the result.

He grew sarcastic when the subject was mentioned and ridiculed the idea that the stalwarts had any part in accomplishing the splendid victory for the state ticket.

"I look for a majority of 25,000 in the county and 15,000 in Pittsburgh," said Senator Flinn at 10 o'clock last night. "The increased Republican vote," he said, "is due to the efficient Republican organization in Pittsburgh, to the active, intelligent work of Chairman Brown and Secretary Ostermaier in the city, and in the county to Chairman Robertson and Secretary Edwards. The Republican organization in Pittsburgh as now constituted has never lost a fight, and in my judgment is not likely to lose any in the near future. Like any business enterprise its success is due to close, active attention to practical details."

County Chairman A. C. Robertson said: "I estimate the Republican majority in the county at not less than 22,000 and in the city at not less than 14,000. Justice Potter was cut in some districts and in others he ran ahead of his ticket. The increase of the Republican majority is due to the large falling off of the Democratic vote. The Democrats did not come out. I think Harris will lead Potter in the county. Allegheny city will give Potter a majority of about 4,000.

"You can say," he continued, "that the vote of Allegheny still clings to her native. She is Republican to the backbone and the results show there is no defection in the Republican party here. The Democratic vote, including the Union Labor vote, has been cut down fully 25 per cent since the election of State Treasurer two years ago. The Democrats have played at home."

HEARD NEWS THIRD HAND.

Organization Men Gathered at Sixth Avenue Headquarters to Get Returns.

The old organization leaders and some of their followers congregated at the Sixth avenue headquarters last night to receive the returns. They heard their news third hand. Prominent among those gathered there were Senator Flinn and a number of deposed officeholders. In a group were ex-chief of police A. P. Lesser, former city assessor George W. Gosser, ex-director of public works George A. Wilson, Councilman Max G. Leslie, Councilman John A. Murphy, Samuel Sanners and John Pradley. Chairman Brown and Chairman Robertson were busily engaged in tabulating the returns as they came in. Representative Guy McCandless assisted in this work.

Director Andrew Fulton of the department of public safety had a force of clerks and operators receiving the returns at the fire alarm office on the fourth floor of the public safety building.

The news from the local districts was first sent to Old City hall, from there transmitted to the fire alarm office and then over to the Sixth avenue headquarters. Director Fulton, Director E. M. Bigelow and Thomas S. Bigelow were at the fire alarm office for a while during the evening.

On past election nights the fire alarm office was a favorite place for the old organization leaders to receive the returns. Senator Flinn and the late Senator C. L. Magee were familiar faces on those occasions. Senator Flinn and other leaders from the Sixth avenue headquarters did not visit the safety station last night, but kept close to the building across the street.

NORMAL VOTE IN TWO CITIES

Figures from Wards Show an Unexpected Republican Majority.

SUPPORT FOR POTTER WAS EXCELLENT

Surprise Came in the First Ward Where in One District Coray, the Fusionist, Did Not Receive a Single Vote.

The vote in the two cities was normal for an off year. The Democratic vote fell off strongly, as did what is known as the independent vote. The result was an unexpected majority for the Republican ticket. In the second precinct of the First ward Coray did not receive a vote.

The vote by wards and districts is as follows:

NEBRASKA IS REPUBLICAN

Fusion Candidate for Supreme Court Justice Defeated in Bryan's State.

LINCOLN, NEB., Nov. 5.—Indications based on meager and scattering precinct returns were that Nebraska had reaffirmed her verdict of last year in favor of the Republicans. Figures, mainly from the smaller towns and a few country districts, show a Republican gain of four to the precinct over a year ago, when the average Republican majority was 3,800. If these gains are sustained, Sedgwick, Republican, for supreme court justice, will carry the state by from 8,000 to 10,000.

The city of Lincoln (complete except two precincts) give Judge Sedgwick over 1,500 plurality. The Republican county committee claims the election of the entire county ticket with the exception of register of deeds.

OMAHA, NEB., Nov. 5.—Forty-one precincts out of 402 in Douglas county give Sedgwick 8,725; Holtenbeck, fusion, 2,866. In 1898 the same precincts gave Reese, Republican, 3,883; Holcomb, 4,050, a net Republican gain of 1,895. The fusionists concede a Republican majority on Douglas county on the state ticket of 1,000, but claim the election of the fusionist county ticket.

VOTE WAS LIGHT.

Rhode Island Gives a Good Republican Plurality in Spite of the Stay-at-Homes.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 5.—With scarcely half the districts in the state heard from the Republican plurality for the state ticket promises to run well over 8,000. This is a net loss of 2,500 from last year, due to the light vote.

Seventy districts in the state out of 139 give Gregory (Rep.), 10,183; Garvin (Dem.), 6,172. The general assembly will be Republican strongly. Pawtucket and Woonsocket have elected Democratic mayors, as has also Providence. In Newport and Central Falls the contest is close.

Obtained Coffee by False Pretense.

Detectives Elmore and McQuade arrested John Boyle, 17 years of age, of No. 46 Linton street, and Frank Harney, 14 years of age, of No. 900 Maria street yesterday morning on complaint of a Liberty street grocer that they had obtained 200 pounds of coffee from them on a false order.

A Pugilistic Husband.

Scott Lee, of Rock's Castle, was locked in jail last night for assault and battery preferred by his wife. It is said that Lee threw his wife down a flight of stairs, breaking her collar bone and blackening his wife's eyes.

A Supposed Suicide.

The body of a man found yesterday floating in the Allegheny river at the foot of Chestnut street was identified as that of Sam Bailey. His brother, Samuel, of No. 30 Diamond street, identified the dead man. It was 64 years old. It is considered he committed suicide.

Black Hair

For 50 years Ayer's Hair Vigor has been restoring color to gray hair. It never fails to do this work, either. Besides this, it keeps the scalp clean and healthy, stops falling of the hair, and makes the hair grow thick and long. It's a regular hair-food.

"Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps my scalp clean and healthy. It stopped the falling of my hair, also, and made it grow nicely. I receive many compliments for my beautiful head of hair."

JUDGE POTTER PLEASED.

The Hon. William P. Potter heard the news of victory at his home last night.

"The news is most satisfactory," he said. "I appreciate particularly the result in Allegheny county. I look upon the voters here as my neighbors. Now they have rolled up a majority greater than usual. How could I feel otherwise than pleased with the outcome?"

SENATOR QUAY HAPPY OVER THE RETURNS

Conservative Prophecy of Republican Majority More Than Made Good.

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, 503 Fifteenth St., N.W., WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 5.

Senator Quay received the election returns from Pittsburgh tonight at his home in company with Private Secretary Wright and a few personal friends. He was supremely confident of the result and was but little surprised as the returns came in. At 11:30 o'clock he said:

"My advices indicate the election of the state ticket by a majority in the neighborhood of 75,000. The local Republicans of the state have again show their contempt for fusionism. They can always be relied upon to down the opposition, no matter whether it comes as Democrats or fusionists. Pennsylvania Republicans believe in a continuation of prosperity and are not to be led to follow alleged reformers."

On Sunday night the senator told the writer that the Republican state ticket would have a majority of at least 60,000. The returns so far received show that, as usual, the silent man from Beaver was in close touch with his constituents.

The lateness of the receipt of returns was annoying, but the splendid majority rolled up by Allegheny county for Judge Potter more than compensates for the delay. At 11 o'clock the advices received by the senator were that the "state of Allegheny" had given 25,000 majority for Judge Potter and the state ticket.

At about the same time City Chairman Miles of Philadelphia telegraphed that Weaver, the Republican candidate for district attorney, would have a majority of from 35,000 to 50,000 over Rothermel. This indicated an overwhelming defeat for Wanamakerism in that city. Delaware county came in early with 4,000 majority for the Republican state ticket, and the other loyal Republican counties were not far behind.

REPUBLICANS MAKE A NEW RECORD

Iowa Rolls Up the Largest Majority in the State's History.

DES MOINES, IA., Nov. 5.—The result in Iowa is remarkable. With a marked falling off in the vote throughout the state, the loss in some precincts being 40 and 50 per cent, in the total vote and the average loss for the state being one-fifth the total of two years ago, A. B. Cummins, the Republican candidate for governor, has been elected by a plurality of something like 90,000, the largest ever given a governor in this state.

The entire Republican state ticket is elected by similar pluralities, and extraordinary gains have been made. Spence of the Republican state central committee said at midnight:

"We will carry the state by 90,000 and will make good gains in the legislature."

The Republicans claim that in the legislative contests they have gained three or four members to add to their majority in the senate, while in the house their present large majority will be increased by seven or eight.

The Democratic headquarters were closed early in the evening and no statements were given out.

The Prohibitionists claim a large gain in their former votes and are very much gratified, but have not sufficient returns to give out any figures tonight.

MRS. OAKEY HALL ON THE STAGE.

Appears as a Grand Dame in a Christening Scene.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Mrs. Oakey Hall, widow of a former mayor of New York, the late A. Oakey Hall, has adopted the stage as a profession, and has made her debut in the role of "Mrs. Young," in "The Way of the World," which Miss Elsie De Wolfe is playing at the Victoria theater.

"Mrs. Young" is not an important part. In fact, Mrs. Hall is not called upon to speak any lines, but merely to appear among the guests as a grand dame during the christening scene in the fourth act of the comedy; but it served as a beginning to introduce her to the stage.

Seek Entrance to Munhall.

Munhall borough council met last night and during the meeting a petition was presented by residents of the section lying between the North Braddock bridge and the steel works, asking to be taken into the borough. The land comprises four square miles and contains about 500 inhabitants. The petition was laid on the table until the next meeting.

Blair Elects Republicans.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, PA., Nov. 5. The full Republican county ticket is elected by 2,000 plurality as follows: District attorney, William L. Hicks of Tyrone; county treasurer, Harry C. Burger of East Freedom; register and recorder, John W. Calber of Hollidaysburg; director of the poor, H. H. Pensyl of Altoona.

LOW PRICES ON PIANOS IS AMBUHL BROS.' SUCCESS

Not the Largest, Oldest or Richest House in Town, But the Place You Can Always Get a Good Bargain.

This week is not an exception at Ambuhl Bros. For the array of beautiful pianos of the very best makes, both new and second-hand, and the prices that are asked for them demonstrate very clearly why this house has gotten such a hold in this vicinity.

No time is spent here telling you how large, old or reliable the firm is, for it is not the firm you are buying, but pianos, and the makes handled here are too well known to need praise by the dealer.

We offer this week a large fine upright piano, of a well known New York make, with a full iron frame, duet music desk, and ivory keys, for $169. It has been used some, but not enough to hurt it, and shows but little trace of wear.

We offer a Kranich & Bach upright that has been used, but is in good order, for $200. This make is a very familiar one in this locality.

We offer one of our beautiful noble toned Kimballs, medium size, fine mahogany case, that was sold about one year ago for $425. There is scarcely a mark on it, but the number shows it is second-hand. $320 is the price now.

Another that was used for a time by one of our leading teachers we offer for $240. The tone of this is grand, but the case is scratched a little.

Among our organ bargains is a fine Estey, with two full sets of reeds and sub bass, all in good condition. The price is $30.

We offer a good second piano for $40.

Spick and Span Flannel Waists.

The old way was to buy the flannel and make your waists; but there isn't one woman out of a hundred that thinks of that way now. No, indeed. You look into the stores where there are assortments and you buy ready-to-put-on waists.

And this leads us to say we never fitted so many women with Flannel Waists as this season, and to further say that our variety must be the largest and the price range the lowest, else why should we have such an increase of trade in this particular department?

Flannel Waists for every woman's taste and pocketbook.

$1.00 each—Waists of red, navy and cadet flannel, also plaid effects; the gathered fullness in front is there; plain back; dress sleeve.

$1.50 each—Waists of French flannel; plain colors and polka dot effects, in red, cadet, navy, lavender and black. Same style as the dollar waists.

$2.25 each—Flannel waists with accordion pleated fronts. This waist buttons down back. Red, cadet and black. Small bishop sleeve; collar of self.

$2.50 each—French flannel waists with tucks back and front; plain stripes and polka dots; small cuff sleeves; this waist has collar.

$2.75 each—Flannel waists with yoke in front formed of tucks; buttons down back—two groups of tucks on each side of buttons; blue, green, red and black; bishop sleeves and collar.

$3.50 each—Flannel waists in light pink, green and cream, embroidered rings of black finishing the front—back, plain; cuffs and collar.

$3.50 each—Waists of Persian flannel—black, red, cadet; full front in gathered effect.

$5 each—A very late idea in a French flannel waist—fronts finished with groups of small tucks and narrow bands of taffeta to match; buttons down the back, relieved on each side by groups of tucks; dainty cuff and stock trimmed with taffeta; white, red, black and green.

$5 each—Another new line. Blue and red flannel waists, with yoke of tucked taffeta to match; this waist is strapped with narrow bands of flannel; below the taffeta yoke groups of tucks are effectively employed; buttons down the back; silk stock to match and small cuff sleeve.

Underprices for Table Cloths and Napkins for Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving day is the very best day in the year to treat the table to a new dress of fine lin en, and it is none too early to look this Linen Store of ours (street floor of the new annex) up.

There is no place where you can buy as fine table linen for the same little prices as here; there is no place where you can find the same variety as here; there is no store in either city that imports one-fourth of the linen we do; there is no store in either city that sells near the amount of fine linen that this store does.

And the reasons are in such prices as these.

$1.50 each—$2 goods—for bleached Damask Table Cloths—68 by 72 inches.

$2 each—$2.50 goods—for Bleached Damask Table Cloths—72 by 72 inches and 68 by 90 inches.

$3.75 each—$5 goods—for Bleached Damask Table Cloths 2½ by 2½ yards and 2 by 4 yards.

$5 each—$6.50 and $7.50 goods—for bleached Damask Table Cloths—2½ by 2½ and 2½ by 3½ yards.

$1 a dozen—$1.25 goods—for bleached Damask Napkins—19 by 19 inches.

$1.75 a dozen—$2.50 goods—for bleached Damask Napkins—23 by 23 inches.

$3 a dozen—$3.75 and $4 goods—for bleached Damask Napkins, 24 by 24 inches. These are odd lots.

$6 a dozen—$7.50 goods—for bleached Damask Napkins—27 by 27 inches.

In the way of handsome Decorative Linens for small sums, the following are submitted as specimens:

BUCKEYE STATE IS AGAIN TRUE

Kilbourne Admits Defeat and Republicans Claim 60,000 Plurality.

THE FIGURES MAY RISE 10,000 HIGHER

Republican Gains in Large Cities General Except in Columbus, Where Liquor League and Local Matters Affect the Result.

(Special Telegram to The Pittsburgh Gazette.)

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 5.—Scattered returns from all parts of the state indicate at this hour, 11 o'clock, that the Republicans plurality will be at least 50,000 and may reach 60,000. The Republican campaign committee, after a thorough analysis of the returns, claim the latter figure. The Republicans are much rejoiced over the showing made in Lucas county, which is assured to Governor Nash by a plurality of several thousand. The Republicans have made unexpected gains in each of the several counties of the state in which there are large cities, notably in Dayton, Toledo, Cleveland, Canton, Springfield and along the river. The one exception is in Columbus, the home of both of the gubernatorial candidates. Colonel Kilbourne is making a phenomenal run here and will carry the county by 1,700. Governor Nash carried it two years ago by about the same figure.

Returns from the smaller counties indicate that the Republicans will have a safe working majority in the general assembly and that it may be even larger than that of two years ago. This, of course, insures the re-election of Senator Foraker and will prevent the redistricting of the state by the Democrats which would have permitted them to make a gain of not less than seven congressmen.

Weather conditions in nearly all parts of the state were ideal for Republican gains, a clear sky and crisp, frosty air. The total vote will be smaller than that of the preceding gubernatorial election, but the Democrats seem to have displayed an unlooked for degree of apathy. Col. Kilbourne has conceded his defeat.

Chairman Dick at 10 o'clock gave out a statement that the Republicans had carried the state by over 50,000 majority, with a decisive majority in each branch of the legislature. One hour later he increased his estimate of the majority to 60,000.

The greatest Republican demonstration here tonight was over the returns from Toledo, showing that Nash had carried Lucas county and that the legislative ticket there is elected. As Gov. Nash had opposed the state appropriation for the proposed Ohio Centennial exposition in that city, it was expected that he would lose that county. When this dispatch was received after Chairman Dick had made his statement, the Republicans raised their estimates several thousand.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 5.—With 178 precincts out of 227 in Cincinnati heard from, the majority of Nash over Kilbourne for governor is 3,064. This shows a Republican gain of approximately 5,000 in Hamilton county and insures the election of the entire Republican ticket, including ten representatives and three senators in the general assembly. Their plurralities will range from 4,000 to 6,000. The highest vote for members of the legislature was received by Freiberg and the lowest a member by Hays, colored. The Cincinnati Southern railroad lease and the proposition to issue over $2,000,000 in bonds for the construction of terminals for the road, were both carried by a majority of over 25,000.

Senator Foraker claims the re-election of Gov. Nash by 60,000 plurality, with both houses of the legislature safely Republican.

TORONTO, O., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—At this hour all the precincts are counted but one, and Nash will carry the city by 240, which is about the same ratio as the vote for McKinley last fall.

WARREN, O., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Complete returns from Warren city give Nash 1,117, Kilbourne 253, a Republican plurality of 824. Nash's plurality in 1899 was 695.

NORWALK, O., Nov. 5.—Twenty-one precincts out of 31 in Huron county show a Democratic gain of 193. This indicates a Republican majority of 1,100 in county.

MANSFIELD, O., Nov. 5.—Returns thus far received indicates a Democratic loss in Richmond county of at least 200. Kilbourne carries the county by between 200 and 300.

ASHTABULA, O., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Returns at a late hour indicate that Nash, for governor, will have a majority in Ashtabula county of more than 5,000. The Republican county and legislative tickets are elected by similar majorities, and show Republican gains even over a year ago.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 5.—Clark county, with a vote 20 per cent less than two years ago, gives Nash, for governor, a plurality of about 1,200.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Nov. 5.—Nash's majority in Ross county is estimated at 450.

WOOSTER, O., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The old residents say they do not remember the time when there was so little interest. Returns are coming in very slowly, but the indications are that the Democrats will carry the county by about 700, electing their entire county ticket, with the possible exception of Wells, for representative.

AKRON, O., Nov. 5.—Five wards and 12 precincts give Nash 1,004, Kilbourne 968.

LANCASTER, O., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Fairfield county is Democratic on state ticket by a plurality of 1,400. For senator, Dr. Lambert, Dem., has carried the county by about those figures. The entire Democratic county ticket is elected.

NEWARK, O., Nov. 5.—The indications are that Kilbourne will carry Licking county by about 600, a Democratic loss of 300.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Nov. 5.—Nash carried the city by 866 majority, a Republican gain of 450.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 5.—Forty-five precincts out of 200 in Cleveland, Nash, for governor, 4,141; Kilbourne, 5,684, a Democratic gain of 743 compared with last fall.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 5.—Reports from 90 out of 110 precincts in the city and 10 of the 26 precincts in Lucas county, indicate that Nash carries the county by 700. The entire Republican county ticket, including one senator and four representatives, are elected by 3,000 majority.

DAYTON, O., Nov. 5.—One-third of Montgomery county, including one-half of Soldiers' Home, gives Nash about 1,700 plurality. This state should be maintained in the rest of this county.

ZANESVILLE, O., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Muskingum county has given Gov. Nash approximately 900 majority, a gain of 750 over two years ago. Republicans elect their entire county ticket, including representative, by majorities ranging from 350 to 700.

LORAIN, O., Nov. 5.—The total vote polled today was 2,049, Nash receiving 1,312 and Kilbourne 737.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Nov. 5.—This city complete gives Nash 1,509, Kilbourne 580.

FINDLAY, O., Nov. 5.—Hancock county went Republican by 400 majority. Gov. Nash will carry the city. Seventeen precincts of the city give Nash 2,772, Kilbourne 2,139. The rest of the ticket runs close to these figures.

MARIETTA, O., Nov. 5.—The city complete gives Nash 1,749, Kilbourne 1,-270. Mount Vernon city complete, Nash 1,094, Kilbourne 823. City of Hamilton, Kilbourne 3,143, Nash 2,034.

licans. This is as it should be. It is what the people want."

Senator Flinn wired Insurance Commissioner Durham that Allegheny would give Potter and Harris a plurality of 28,000. Thomas S. Bigelow reported early. At 10 o'clock he placed the Republican plurality at above 18,000.

Late reports indicate a fusion victory in Montgomery county. The contest was considered close, but the stalwarts expected to win.

At midnight Secretary Clements of the Union party conceded the defeat of the state and county ticket for the Union party in Philadelphia. He declined to give figures on the ground that the returns so far received are not sufficient for basing an estimate.

REPUBLICAN GAIN.

Mercer County Makes an Excellent Showing for County and State Tickets.

GREENVILLE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—County Chairman D. M. Campbell, estimates that the Republican state ticket will have over 1,000 majority in Mercer county. This is a big gain, as for several years the insurgents have been successful in electing about half the ticket in this town. Harris and Potter have over 125 majority and Garts, for poor director, 84. A proposition to bond the town $20,000 for a city hall was carried about two to one.

SHARON, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Sharon gave Harris, for state treasurer, a majority of 312 over Coray, Democrat. The contest for poor director is very close, but returns received point to the election of Eriser, Democrat, by a small margin. The constitutional amendment proposition carried in Sharon by about 150 votes and the proposed issue of $40,000 worth of bonds to complete the sewerage system in Sharon also carried by a large majority. Democratic County Chairman McCormick concedes county to the Republicans by 500.

CLOSE IN FAYETTE.

Republican State Ticket Expected to Have Majority of About 400 Votes.

UNIONTOWN, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Returns from half of Fayette county indicate that the Republican ticket will have a plurality of about 400. The county ticket is still in doubt. For sheriff the Republican headquarters, with 33 districts heard from, claim a plurality of 501 for M. A. Keifer, and that he will pull through with a couple hundred to spare.

At Democratic headquarters, with 36 precincts heard from, their figures show Samuel E. Frook, Democrat, leading by about 100. For district attorney, Alfred E. Jones, Republican, leads by about 300, and has probably defeated W. C. McKean, Democrat, by about 500. Dr. Arthur S. Hagan, Republican, for coroner, and William Kreppe Allen, Republican, for county surveyor, are considered elected by 500 plurality.

HARRIS WORKED HARD.

Returns Slow Coming In at the Home of State Treasurer-Elect.

CLEARFIELD, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Little can be told tonight in the shape of figures about the result of today's elections. The secret ballot is more in evidence than ever. Fusion made greater inroads than was expected.

F. G. Harris, candidate for state treasurer, was a prominent figure on the streets today, working for his own cause, while the local battle waged still warmer. Thompson will likely succeed himself as prothonotary, but Jamison, for register and recorder, is chased so hard by Koozer that his election is thought to be certain. His election would be extraordinary, as it is always called a two-time office. Koozer held it two terms, and Jamison only one, but it is a stiff fight.

ONLY HALF A VOTE.

Republicans, However, Secure Majority for State and County Tickets at Scottdale.

SCOTTDALE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—But a light vote was polled here today, 612 votes being cast out of a registration of nearly 1,200. The much talked of fight against John H. Brown, Republican candidate for controller, failed to materialize, while Steel, for orphans' court judge, was badly cut, having a margin of only seven votes over Williams.

The vote was as follows: State treasurer, Harris, Republican, 371; Coray, Democrat, 206. Supreme court, Potter, Republican, 348; Yerkes, Democrat, 225. Orphans' court, Steel, Republican, 293; Williams, Democrat, 286. Controller, Brown, Republican, 353; Guffey, Democrat, 218. Sheriff, Trescher, Republican, 316; Shupe, Democrat, 246. Director of the poor, Kettering, Republican, 348; Thompson, Republican, 321; Harrington, Republican, 319; Truxal, Democrat, 197; McCann, Democrat, 288; Hamel, Democrat, 217. Surveyor, Matthews, Republican, 356; Delar, Democrat, 184.

The constitutional amendments were all carried.

Mercer Borough Gives 1,000 Majority

MERCER, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Mercer borough today gave the Republicans as follows: Harris 37, Potter 39, Gartz, for poor director, 48; 24 out of 65 precincts indicate a Republican majority for the state ticket of 1,000. Potter is running up with Harris. The vote through the county is little better than a half vote.

CLOSE IN WESTMORELAND.

Returns Indicate Election of Republican Candidates Despite Much Cutting.

GREENSBURG, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The terrible cutting and slashing of ballots in Westmoreland county today rendered the count slow and tedious. Up till 12 o'clock tonight only about 50 districts out of a total of 160 had been heard from. The count at hand indicates that the vote in the county will be extremely close and both parties are claiming it. The districts heard from indicate a decided falling off in the Republican vote of last year.

County Chairman Rankin of the Republican committee, claims the election of the entire state and county tickets, but is giving out no figures. The Democrats are confident that D. W. Shupe, Democrat, for sheriff, and W. C. Guffey, Democrat, for controller, are elected, but as in the case of Chairman Rankin, are not backing their claims with figures. The returns would indicate that John B. Steel will have a small margin over V. E. Williams, Democrat, for judge.

A number of strong Republican districts as yet to be heard from. A conservative estimate is that whichever party wins there will scarcely be 200 votes difference.

Democratic County Chairman Ackerman, who has been keeping a close tally on the state candidates, insists that Yerkes and Coray have carried the county by at least 200 votes.

LAWRENCE VOTE LIGHT.

State and County Republican Candidates Elected by Comfortable Majorities.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The vote in Lawrence county was light today, not over one half the usual number being polled. The Republican state and county tickets won by the usual off year majorities, the former running a little behind. Harris and Porter will have about 1,500, Coray and Yerkes 400 and Porter and Monderean 600. Porter probably running ahead of usual Prohibition vote.

The Socialist vote was a surprise in local politics, their candidate for register and recorder, John White, carrying the fifth ward, the industrial center of the city, by 50. The closest county fight was for register and recorder, Hyde, Republican, winning by about 1,200 over McLure, Democrat. Porter and Hezlep, Republican candidates for coroner and surveyor, will win by about the same figures over Nye and Miller. This estimate is based on figures received from 22 out of 56 precincts, it being impossible to secure return from outlying districts before to-morrow.

QUIET AT IRWIN.

Guffey Couldn't Carry His Own Precinct for Controller of Westmoreland.

IRWIN, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—This was the quietest election ever held in Irwin and only about two-thirds of the votes were out. One of the features of the election was William C. Guffey's failure to carry his own precinct against John H. Brown for county controller. The result in Irwin, North Irwin and Jacksonville follows:

Irwin—Judge of orphans' court, John B. Steele, Republican, 289; Vincent Williams, Democrat, 120. County controller, John H. Brown, Republican, 239; William C. Guffey, Democrat, 187. Sheriff, John H. Trescher, Republican, 242; David Shoup, Democrat, 180.

North Irwin—Judge of orphans' court, Steele, Republican, 45; Williams, Democrat, 19. Controller, Brown, Republican, 45; Guffey, Democrat, 19. Sheriff, Trescher, Republican, 33; Shoup, Democrat, 30.

Jacksonville — Orphans' court judge, Steele, Republican, 57; Williams, Democrat, 24. Controller, Brown, Republican, 61; Guffey, Democrat, 20. Sheriff, Trescher, Republican, 42; Shoup, Democrat, 37.

For the state ticket the vote was as follows: Harris, Republican, 294; Coray, Democrat, 131. Potter, Republican, 256; Yerkes, Democrat, 149.

GREENE STILL DEMOCRATIC.

Coray and Yerkes Will Have About 700 Majority.

WAYNESBURG, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Greene county vote light. Official returns from all but seven precincts gives Harris and Potter 843 and Coray and Yerkes 1,115 votes. Estimated vote on remaining precincts gives Republican state ticket 1,143 and Democratic 1,831. Democratic majority will not exceed 700. No vote on Union ticket and few for Prohibition.

Only about half the vote out was cast on the amendments but thus far it gives a majority of 3 to 1 for all the amendments. The official result will probably be 1,100 for to 400 against.

HUNTINGDON IS SAFE.

Republican State Ticket Received About 1,000 Majority.

HUNTINGDON, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Meager reports are giving Huntingdon county vote on the state ticket, but Potter and Harris will likely carry the county by 1,000. The Republican majority in an off year is about 1,800 to 2,000.

All three amendments to state constitution will carry in Huntingdon borough, where the normal Republican majority is about 300. Yerkes and Coray lead by 150. The principal local fight was on sheriff. From 25 districts heard from David Wilson, Democrat, will finally win over John A. Steel, Quay Republican, by 200 majority.

DAUPHIN IS IN LINE.

Harris and Potter Carry the County by 3,000—County Ticket a Winner.

HARRISBURG, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Harris and Potter have carried Dauphin county by 3,000. Judge Potter is running slightly ahead of Harris. The majority for the Republican county ticket will be 4,000. Returns from country districts show a slight falling off in Republican vote compared with Barnett vote. Twenty of the 37 districts in Harrisburg show a Republican gain of 107, compared with the vote in 1899.

Judge Yerkes was heavily cut by the railroad men and the steel workers at Steelton. Neiffer, the Union party candidate for district attorney, is running ahead of Zimmerman, Democrat, in Harrisburg. Judge Simonton leads the ticket, he having been the Republican and Democratic nominee. The county officers elected are district attorney and poor director.

FUSION CARRIES CAMBRIA.

Heavy Vote Polled and Contests for President Judge Are Very Close.

EBENSBURG, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The vote polled in Cambria county to-day was very heavy. On the state ticket it is conceded that Yerkes and Coray will carry the county by at least 1,000 plurality. Out of the 52 districts so far heard from Yerkes and Coray are in the lead.

For president judge of Cambria county the returns show the contest to be extremely close. The 52 districts so far heard from gives A. V. Barker a lead over Francis J. O'Connor of 250 votes, but as the remaining districts are mostly Democratic, O'Connor's election is probable. Both sides claim victory. The constutional amendments will be carried in Cambria by good majorities.

Bedford Goes Republican.

BEDFORD, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Quite a heavy vote was polled here today, both parties working hard to get all the votes out. Returns are coming in slowly. It is evident that the Republican state ticket will be carried. It is likely that the proposed amendments to the constitution will be carried by a small majority.

VENANGO FOR HARRIS AND POTTER

Slow Returns Keep County Ticket Results in Doubt.

FRANKLIN, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Returns on state ticket are coming in slowly, but at 11 o'clock the indications are that the Republicans have carried Venango county for Potter and Harris by about 800 majority. For sheriff, McCollum, Prohibitionist, is ahead of Shaner, Republican, and at this hour the indications are that he is elected. The Democrats deserted their candidate for sheriff.

The balance of the county ticket, coroner and surveyer, will likely be Prohibitionist.

FUSION CARRIES LUZERNE.

Republican State and County Tickets Both Beaten.

WILKESBARRE, PA., Nov. 5.—Luzerne county, estimated: Coray's plurality 12,500, Yerkes 6,500. Lynch (Dem.) and Wheaton (Rep.) were elected common pleas judges. They ran as non-partisan candidates and had no opposition. Freas (Dem.) is elected common pleas judge.

The independent Republicans who supported Coray also cut the Republican county ticket, which was made up of Quay men. The Democratic county ticket is elected by pluralities ranging from 2,500 to 4,800.

Light Vote at Claysville.

CLAYSVILLE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The election here today passed off quietly. There was a light vote out, being about 100 short of the usual number cast. The vote was 163, with the Republicans slightly in the lead. But little attention was paid to voting for the amendments. The vote: Harris 85, Coray 78; Potter 85, Yerkes 78. For sheriff, Carothers, Republican, 87; Johnson, Democrat, 76. District attorney, Underwood 87, and Rehn, Democrat, 76. Poor director, Emery, Republican, 85; Hendrickson, 78.

FUSION GETS LACKAWANNA.

Their State Ticket Gets About Three Thousand Majority.

SCRANTON, PA., Nov. 5.—Estimated: Coray 3,500 plurality, Yerkes 3,000 plurality.

The vote on the constitutional amendments was practically unanimous in their favor. Ninety districts out of 141 give Newcomb, Democrat, for judge, a plurality of 2,000 over Carpenter, Republican, and Hitchcock, Municipal league. The latter polled about 2,000 votes.

CLOSE IN JEFFERSON.

Republican Chairman Claims 400 Majority for State Ticket.

BROOKVILLE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Lightest vote polled in a decade. Interest so slight that no figures are obtainable on the county. Chairman Kurtz of Republican county committee claims county by 400 on state ticket, but meager returns indicate that it is anybody's fight.

Republican county ticket is elected by usual off-year majority.

CASSEL SUCCEEDS BROSIUS.

Lancaster County Gives Republican Majority of Over 7,000.

LANCASTER, Nov. 5.—Returns from two-thirds of the districts of Lancaster county assure the election of H. Burd Cassel, Republican, over D. R. McCormick, Democrat, to fill the unexpired congressional term of the late Marriott Brosius, and the entire Republican ticket by over 7,000 majority.

FIRST IN 25 YEARS.

Clarion County Elects Harry R. Wilson Judge.

CLARION, Nov. 5.—Harry R. Wilson, Republican, elected president judge of this county by a majority of 500; the first time a Republican has been elected in 25 years.

ARMSTRONG VOTERS VOTED.

State Ticket Given a Good Majority for an Off Year.

KITTANNING, PA., Nov. 5.—Armstrong county estimated gives Harris, for state treasurer, 1,400 plurality; Potter, for supreme court, 1,400 plurality. The county in 1899 gave Barnett a plurality of 1,552.

Schuylkill for Fusion.

POTTSVILLE, PA., Nov. 5.—Schuylkill county, estimated Coray and Yerkes 3,500 plurality. The county in 1899 gave Creasy 2,262 plurality. The Republicans claim the election of their entire county ticket. The vote on the amendments was light and is almost impossible to form an estimate.

FREIGHT WRECK COST TWO LIVES

Another Man Seriously Injured in Accident in Panhandle Yards.

MISTAKE IN SIGNALS THE CAUSE

Engine Crashed Into Caboose Containing Sleeping Trainmen With Fatal Results—Robert Whitman, and Robert Allison Killed.

Two men were killed and one seriously injured, shortly after midnight, in a wreck in the Panhandle yards near Second avenue and Try street.

The dead are:

ROBERT ALLISON, 21 years old.

ROBERT WHITMAN, 45 years old.

The Injured:

HOWARD ANDERSON of Steubenville, O.; left leg crushed and injured internally. Taken to Homeopathic hospital.

The accident was due to wrong signaling. Freight train No. 21 pulled into the yards from Sheraden about 12:30 a. m. The engineer declares he obeyed every signal.

During the shifting at least three signals were given. The first was by a red light, and immediately the engineer pulled back his train. He had no sooner done so than he was signalled twice more in rapid succession, and started to run his train on to the main track.

Quick as a flashlight locomotive No. 136 cut into the rear end of the train splitting the caboose in two. It is not known positively how many brakemen were in the caboose.

Allison, Whitman and Anderson were lying down, and were caught before they could make an effort to escape their fate.

The engineer of No. 136 pulled on his brakes, but too late to avert the death of the men inside. The caboose caught fire and an alarm was at once sent in. The fire was soon extinguished and did but little damage.

The caboose was hurled off the tracks on to the hillside, where the dead and injured were found. Allison and Whitman were pinioned under the debris, and had expired a few moments previous to being pulled out. Their bodies were taken to the morgue. Anderson was removed to the Homeopathic hospital. At an early hour it was said he might recover.

The morgue officials stated that there was nothing on the dead men by which they could be identified. The names given were furnished by the conductor of train No. 21.

Potter County for the Ticket.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Nov. 5.—Potter county, estimated, gives Harris and Potter 450 plurality, a Republican gain of 108. No canvass has been made on the constitutional amendments. The Republican county candidate will probably be elected, although the contest for sheriff and district attorney is close. A light vote was polled.

Democrats Carry Lycoming.

WILLIAMSPORT, Nov. 5.—The Democratic state ticket will carry Lycoming county by about 1,000 plurality. Hart, Democrat, is elected judge by about 1,200. The Democrats have probably elected their entire county ticket except district attorney and county surveyor, which are in doubt.

Democrats Lose in Erie.

ERIE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The vote today has been light, the Democrats running nearly 50 per cent behind that of two years ago, and the Republicans 20 per cent. The Republican plurality will be 2,000 for the state ticket, and the county ticket will run nearly as much. Republican County Chairman Hays claims a plurality of 2,000.

Union Goes Republican.

LEWISBURG, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Union county has given the Republican state ticket a majority of 800. McClure, Republican, for judge in the Seventeenth district, consisting of Union and Snyder counties, has defeated his fusion opponent, Leiser, by 1,500.

Elk County for Fusion.

RIDGEWAY, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Elk county claimed by Congressman J. K. P. Hall for the fusion by from 800 to 1,000 majority, which estimate is conceded by Republican County Chairman J. C. Millin to be nearly right. The local fight on sheriff looks like about 300 majority for the Democratic ticket.

DO NOT NEGLECT YOUR KIDNEY

Because If Kidney Trouble Is Permitted to Continue Fatal Results Are Sure to Follow.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

To Prove What Swamp-Root the Great Kidney Remedy Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of "The Pittsburg Gazette" May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Free By Mail.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes kidney trouble is permitted to continue, fatal results are sure to follow.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

Your other organs may need attention—but your kidneys most because they do most and need attention first.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

The mild and immediate effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root will set your whole system right, and the best proof of this is a trial.

141 West 117th St., New York City.

Dear Sir: Oct. 15th, 1900.

"I had been suffering severely from kidney trouble. All symptoms were on hand; my former strength and power had left me; I could not sleep more than a few hours; my mental capacity was giving out, and often I wished to die. It was then I saw an advertisement of yours in a New York paper, but would have paid no attention to it had it not promised a sworn guarantee with every bottle of your medicine, asserting that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable, and does not contain any harmful drugs. I am seventy years and four months old, and with a good conscience I can recommend Swamp-Root to all sufferers from kidney troubles. Four months ago my family have been using Swamp-Root for four different kidney diseases, with the same good results."

With many thanks to you, I remain,

Very truly yours, ROBERT BERNER.

You may have a sample bottle of this famous kidney remedy, Swamp-Root, sent free by mail, postpaid, by which you may test its virtues for such disorders as kidney, bladder and uric acid disease, poor digestion, when obliged to pass your water frequently night and day, smarting or irritation in passing, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, headache, backache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, heart disturbance due to bad kidney trouble, skin eruptions from bad blood, neuralgia, rheumatism, diabetes, bloating, irritability, worn-out feeling, lack of ambition, loss of flesh, sallow complexion or frights at dreams.

If your water when allowed to remain undisturbed in a glass or tumbler twenty-four hours, forms a sediment or settling, or has a cloudy appearance, it is evident that your kidneys and bladder need immediate attention.

If you have the slightest symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble, or if there is a trace of it in your family history, send at once to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., who will gladly send you by mail immediately, without cost to you, a sample bottle of Swamp-Root and a book telling more about it, thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured. Be sure to say that you read this generous offer in the Pittsburgh Gazette.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and for sale by world over at druggists in bottles of two sizes and two prices—fifty cents and one dollar. Remember the name, Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—Adolphus Busch, chairman of the committee of foreign relations of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, who has just returned from a six months' tour of Europe, in an interview in the Post Dispatch, said today that "it would be impossible to hold a great world's fair in St. Louis in 1903," and that, further, "if the exposition is to be on a scale of international greatness, the time for representation should be postponed at least one year."

"I am firmly convinced," added Mr. Busch, "of the correctness of my judgment. At the first opportunity I shall make this statement to the directors of the exposition."

President D. R. Francis of the Louisiana Purchase exposition, when informed of Mr. Busch's statement, said:

FOOD FOR GIRLS.

Should Be Fed Just Right When Growing.

When parents are at a loss to know what kind of food to supply their boys and girls it will interest them to know of the experience of some mothers in the selection of food that actually does rebuild and nourish the young folks in their school duties.

A school girl in Springfield, Mass., writes: "I wonder if you care to hear from school girls, and I wonder, too, if you have any idea how many girls there are who are troubled as I was before I used Grape-Nuts Food.

"About a year ago I began to have severe headaches and could not sleep well. Was so nervous that I would cry at the least little thing, and finally began to have attacks of faintness. My parents were much alarmed and thought I would be obliged to give up studying. Our physician said my trouble was extreme nervousness and a disordered stomach.

"I was tired all the time and rode home from school because I did not feel able to walk. Mother tried to tempt my appetite in every way. Breakfast I did not care for. Meat I could not endure, and the different cereals I did not like as a rule.

"I attended the high school and we have an excellent lunch room in the building. As I kept getting worse Mamma said, 'I am going to try this Grape-Nuts Food that I see advertised, but I am afraid you will not like it.' Well she got a package of it, and it was so delicious in taste, with a little cream poured over it that I liked it at once, and since then Grape-Nuts has formed the principal part of my breakfast. I have also a banana or orange with now and then an egg.

"I wish you could see the difference in me. I cannot tell how much I have gained in weight for I did not know my weight when I was ill, but the difference is great. As for strength, I walk both ways to school and do not feel at all weary from it.

"I can study much better and am entirely free from headaches; I am so well, in fact, that I am very happy. I fall asleep almost as soon as my head touches the pillow and rest thoroughly.

"I am afraid my letter is lengthy, but my subject is Grape-Nuts, of which I cannot say too much." Clara L. Condon.

The mother adds to this letter, "I would like to add just a line expressing my gratitude also for the benefits which my daughter has derived from Grape-Nuts." Respectfully, Mrs. T. C. Condon.

HITCH IN DEAL IS REPORTED

THE AMERICAN CAN COMPANY MAY NOT BE ABSORBED.

Negotiations With the United States Steel Corporation Said to Be Declared Off—Difference is Over Price, the American Can Company Asking Par Value for Its $88,000,000 of Capital Stock.

There is a hitch in the deal for the absorption of the American Can Company by the United States Steel Corporation. The Can Company has an authorized capitalization of $88,000,000, equally divided between common and preferred stock, and of this amount $80,000,000 has been issued. Although the Can Company is said to control 85 per cent of the can industry of the country, the capitalization is said to be high, and, on this account, ex-Judge W. H. Moore and his brother, James H. Moore, and their associates who are in control, are blocked on a proposition to turn the company over on a basis of par value for its securities. This was the basis for the absorption of the American Steel Hoop Company, another Moore concern.

The American Can Company is expected to use in the first year of its operations about 4,000,000 boxes of coke plates or nearly 60 per cent of the output of the American Tin Plate Company. On account of the logical alliance between the two companies, it was planned to combine their operations, but in the financial end of the deal there has arisen a serious hitch over the value of the securities.

The directorate of the American Can Company, composed almost entirely of the three other Moore companies, the Tin Plate, Sheet and Hoop Companies, which have been taken over by the Steel Corporation, is as follows: J. H. Moore, W. H. Moore, D. G. Reid, W. D. Leeds, W. T. Graham, Warner Arms, F. S. Wheeler, T. P. Cranwell, Edwin Norton, H. F. Aiken, C. S. Guthrie, E. P. Breckenridge, F. A. Assmann, F. Rudolph, S. A. Ginna, W. M. Leeds, H. W. Phelps, Irwin Ayres, Henry Wick and George G. McMurtry.

At the time of the organization of the American Tin Can Company, it was asserted that, from the close alliance with the steel corporation, the new consolidation would undoubtedly be absorbed by the corporation, but the deal is now blocked.

Congressman D. F. Wilber, of Oneonta, N. Y., writes:

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:

"Gentlemen—Persuaded by a friend, I have tried your remedy and I have almost fully recovered after the use of a few bottles. I am fully convinced that Peruna is all you claim for it, and I cheerfully recommend your medicine to all who are afflicted with catarrhal trouble."—DAVID F. WILBER.

Peruna a Preventive and Cure for Colds.

Mr. C. F. Given, Sussex, N. B., Vice President of the Pastime Boating Club, writes:

"Whenever the cold weather sets in I have for years past been very sure to catch a severe cold which was hard to throw off, and which would leave after-effects on my constitution the most of the winter.

"Last winter I was advised to try Peruna, and within five days the cold was broken up and in five days more I was a well man. I recommended it to several of my friends and all speak the highest praise for it. There is nothing like Peruna for catarrhal afflictions. It is well-nigh infallible as a cure, and I gladly endorse it."—C. F. Given.

Gave New Life and Strength.

Mr. Edward Laws, Crown Point, Ind., writes the following:

"I must tell you what a grand help Peruna has been to me. For over two years I suffered with catarrh of the lungs and throat, and although I doctored for it, nothing brought me relief until I tried Peruna. One bottle helped me greatly, and three more effected a complete cure, while at the same time it gave such new life and strength to my whole body that I feel like a new man and ten years younger.

"I hope that my testimonial may induce others who are similarly afflicted to try Peruna."—Edward Laws.

A Prominent Singer Saved from Loss of Voice.

Mr. Julian Weissitz, 174 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., is corresponding secretary of The Sangerlust of New York; is the leading second bass of the Sangerlust, the largest German singing society of New York, and also the oldest.

In 1890 the Sangerlust celebrated its fiftieth anniversary with a large celebration in New York City. The following is his testimony:

"About two years ago I caught a severe cold while traveling and which settled into catarrh of the bronchial tubes, and so affected my voice that I was obliged to cancel my engagements. In distress, I was advised to try Peruna, and although I had never used a patent medicine before, I sent for a bottle.

"Words but ill describe my surprise to find that within a few days I was greatly relieved, and within three weeks I was entirely recovered. I am never without it now, and take an occasional dose when I feel run down."—Julian Weissitz.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

RECORD MADE IN PITTSBURGH

Picture by Joe Jefferson Sold for $400, Highest Price Known.

IT WAS A GIFT FROM ACTOR TO DR. W. H. DALY

At Executor's Sale of His Effects Mrs. J. W. Pontefract of Shadyside Became Its Possessor—Mr. Jefferson Talks to Academy Boys.

The presence of Joseph Jefferson in the city this week has developed the fact that the highest price ever paid for a "Jefferson canvas"—the souvenir autograph paintings that the famous old actor presents to his friends on rare occasions—was paid in Pittsburgh on September 26, when a canvas presented by Mr. Jefferson to the late Dr. William H. Daly brought $400 at the executors' sale of the surgeon's effects.

The purchaser was Mrs. J. W. Pontefract of Fifth avenue, near Negley. The canvas hangs in the vestibule of her home and has been viewed by many East End people this week. A week or two since Mrs. Pontefract received from Mr. Jefferson a kindly, modest note in response to a letter notifying him of the change in ownership.

Mr. Jefferson paints for art's sake. A few close friends over the country possess pictures bearing his autograph. Dr. Daly was the only Pittsburgher possessing one.

Many East End people were bidders for the interesting souvenir at the sale. Mrs. Pontefract, in her anxiety to secure it, actually raised her own bid at one time.

Jefferson Was Modest.

Mr. Jefferson wrote the new owner a charming letter. He contradicted the impression among Pittsburgh art lovers that the canvas represented a scene on his Louisiana plantation. "It is simply the product of my own poor imagination," he wrote.

On only one or two occasions has a Jefferson picture been placed on sale in this country—and always on similar occasions to the recent one in the East End. Mr. Jefferson does not paint anything to be placed on sale.

According to admirers of his works in all the highest price ever paid for one before was something over $200, at a sale of an eastern collection. The price paid for the Daly picture will therefore probably govern if another ever goes to sale.

The work itself is an odd conception, delicately treated. It shows a simple scene at the edge of a Louisiana bayou. The white mist that arises from the water partly obscures the verdure, while in the perspective is the battered remains of an old building, almost at the water's edge. The whole in the somber gray that is the favorite tone of almost all of Jefferson's oils. In the lower right hand corner is the simple inscription, "J. Jefferson," so small as to be almost invisible unless one peers at the painting at close range.

At the time of the Daly sale a story went the rounds to the effect that the Jefferson canvas had been overlooked by art lovers and had brought the paltry sum of $2 50. The story gained some credence, and was never denied in print.

Picture By His Son.

The truth is that a small canvas painted by Mr. Jefferson's son, Joseph Jefferson, Jr., also a gift to Dr. Daly, was put up the last day of the sale, and when it went to an East End woman on the second bid, some prospective bidders were seized with panic, thinking for a moment that the smaller picture was the work of the senior Jefferson.

The veteran actor is accepting no invitations to be entertained by Pittsburgh friends during his present visit. Yesterday afternoon, however, he allowed himself to be carried off by the friends of Shadyside academy, in Ellsworth avenue, and made a brief address to the classes and their friends on "The Drama." He was given an enthusiastic reception, several hundred East End people being present, despite the short notice given of the event.

Mr. Jefferson paralleled the actor, the orator and the elocutionist, and told a few of his bright, pithy stories of the stage. At the close of his address the actor met those present, informally. The boys of the sixth form, who were received separately, greeted him with an improvised yell:

"Rip Van Winkle, rah, rah, rah," they shouted.

Here's a Pointer.

Take a postal card, address it to the Cranitonic Hair Food Co., 520 West Broadway, New York City, and write on the reverse side something like this: "Please send me a copy of the 48 page illustrated book entitled Hair Care and a sample of the Cranitonic Hair Food Products, which the Commercial Gazette says you are sending free and postpaid to people who ask for them." Sign your name, give your address, street and number and mail the card. Then wait a few days and you will receive by mail a sample of the most exquisite French toilet preparation ever offered to the public.

If you will write a letter, enclosing a small lock of hair or a sample of the daily combings, and state if you have falling hair, dandruff or itching scalp, the physicians of the Cranitonic Institute will make a microscopical examination of the hair, send you a report upon its condition and prescribe curative treatment free of charge. 111h

TO MAKE A BIG CITY.

Citizens of the Beaver Valley Hold a Meeting and Make Arrangements for Consolidation.

BEAVER FALLS, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—There has been a good deal of talk lately among the citizens of this and neighboring towns about consolidating several adjoining places into one large city. The reports made at a meeting last night indicate that a large majority of the citizens are in favor of consolidation.

If the proposed plan is carried into effect a city with an area of five miles will be incorporated. It will also mean free bridges, and this alone will cost about $400,000. In talking over the name of the new city last night it was agreed that it should be Beaver City.

The places which will be consolidated if the plan does not miscarry, are Beaver Falls, New Brighton, Rochester, Beaver, Monaca, Freedom, Rochester township, Bridgewater, College Hill, Pulaski borough and township, Patterson Heights borough, Patterson township, Fallston, White township and East Vale.

FOUGHT AT CHRIST'S TOMB.

Franciscans and Greeks Come to Blows Over a Trivial Question in Regard to Sweeping.

JERUSALEM, Nov. 5.—The Church of the Holy Sepulchre, surmounting Christ's tomb, was the scene of a sanguinary affray Monday last between Franciscans and Greeks, during which there were a number of casualties on both sides. The dispute arose on the question as to which community had the right to sweep the church.

Troops had been posted in the vicinity for several days previous to the outbreak in order to prevent the anticipated collision, but they were suddenly outnumbered and overpowered by the contending parties.

BURGLARS AT KITTANNING.

Daring Thieves Break Into a Store, Blow Open the Safe, and Escape With the Money.

KITTANNING, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—A daring burglary occurred here last night at Wick borough, a suburb of this place. The robbers entered a store owned by a company known as the Wick City Supply Company, which does a large business. Last night after closing the store money, amounting to about $190, was put in the safe.

Some one who evidently knew of the way the store was run, entered and blew the safe open and took all the money. No clue has been found, but it is reported that a very careful investigation will be made.

FOG CAUSES A WRECK.

Obscured the Signals and Four Men Are Injured in the Smashup.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—A head-on collision between a freight train and the Burlington fast mail occurred at Riverside early today. William Kelly, conductor, and Frank Rees and James Watson, of the mail train, and engineer Thomas Gregory and Fireman John Douglass of the freight, were severely but not fatally injured.

The collision was due to a fog which obscured the signals.

NEW PLANT IS ALMOST READY

Pittsburgh Valve, Foundry and Construction Co. Will Centralize.

NEW WORKS ARE IN LAWRENCEVILLE

Foundry Capacity Alone Will Be Eight Times Greater Than Formerly—Men Are Now at Work on an Important Contract in Mexico.

The Pittsburgh Valve, Foundry and Construction Company will soon centralize operations in its new plant in Railroad street, between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth streets. The new machinery plant is now being completed by the Riter-Conley Manufacturing Company. These works, with the pipe-fitting department at Twenty-eighth and Smallman streets, will employ 600 men. The change will be effected within six weeks.

The company has sent out a force of men to Monterey, Mex., to do the pipe fitting for the blast furnaces and the steam and water works of the new $10,000,000 steel company there. William White, Jr., of this city is the contracting engineer for the plant. This contract will amount to over $40,000.

The Pittsburgh Valve, Foundry and Construction Company, with the completion of its Lawrenceville plant, will abandon all its downtown works. These include the works of Atwood & McCaffrey, the Shook-Anderson Manufacturing Company, the pipe fitting department of the Wilson-Snyder Manufacturing Company and the foundry of Alexander Speer & Sons. The latter has already been moved. The new foundry has a maximum capacity of 50 tons of castings daily, about eight times that of the old foundry in Duquesne way.

The new machine works will be among the very best of the country. The company has its own water works there. The machine works of the Pittsburgh Valve and Machine Company, limited, have been moved to the new works, the old plant being utilized entirely as the pipe-fitting department of the new company.

A deal for the Speer property, with a frontage of 240 feet in Duquesne way and 220 feet in Fifth street, is understood to about $275,000.

be practically completed. The price is

Maj. Joseph T. Speer, vice president of the company, said yesterday that he could say nothing of the deal beyond the fact that negotiations were under way.

The Globe plow works have suspended operations. Those in interest that did not merge with the pipe fitting company have a part of their new plant at West Carnegie in readiness.

A contract for another building is said to have been let to George Gow of Carnegie. When the new plow works are in full operation they will represent an investment of upward of $150,000 and will employ about 150 men.

The sale of the Duquesne way property will mean the abandonment of the new office building of the Pittsburgh Valve, Foundry and Construction Company. Downtown offices will probably be maintained, however.

The Pittsburgh Valve, Foundry and Construction Company was organized a year ago and issued capital stock of $1,150,000. G. E. Klingelhofer has retired as general manager, being succeeded by C. R. Rhodes, formerly in the Shook-Anderson Manufacturing Company. Mr. Klingelhofer has taken up a new enterprise in Stanton, Ala.

PURSUED BY DEATH.

Seven Members of a Connellsville Family Have Met Violent Ends.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Fate seems to pursue the family of John Bell, who was killed by a car of the Pittsburgh, McKeesport & Connellsville line a week ago. His little grandchild, John Kind, was in the buggy with him when it was struck. Now it developes that the child is so injured internally that he will die. Two other grandchildren of Bell were killed along the same street car line that claimed the life of their grandfather. Three of Bell's sons were killed violently, two in the mines and one on the railroad.

RECORD BROKEN ON BESSEMER

Train Bearing Officials on Inspection Trip Travels at High Speed.

ACTUAL RUNNING TIME 55 MILES AN HOUR

General Manager and Party Return from an Inspection Trip of the Road—Tracks in Good Condition All Along the Line.

General Manager E. H. Utley and party completed the annual inspection of the Bessemer & Lake Erie yesterday. In the party, in addition to the general manager, were Supt. J. S. Matson, General Freight Agent O. J. Hammon, General Passenger Agent E. D. Comstock, Chief Engineer H. T. Porter and all the section foremen.

The trip was made in a special train of three coaches, hauled by a light engine, with which, however, the speed record of the road was broken. The run from North Bessemer to Conneaut was made in three hours and 18 minutes, an average of about 45 miles an hour. On the fine stretch of track on the Conneaut branch four miles were run in four minutes and 15 seconds, including two slowdowns to run into sidings. Taking out stops, an average running speed of close upon 55 miles an hour was made, and a speed of 60 miles was surpassed at several points.

The line was found to be in excellent condition. The work on the great improvements now being made between Osgood and Kremis received considerable attention. The Bessemer & Lake Erie, which is owned by the United States Steel Corporation, possesses the distinction of having the attorney general of the United States for its general counsel.

First Inspection Trip This Week.

This week General Superintendent Walter R. Woodford, of the Pittsburgh division of the Baltimore & Ohio, will make his first inspection trip over his new territory. In company with General Manager G. L. Potter of the Baltimore & Ohio, he went over the line some distance beyond Connellsville last week, but no attempt was made in that trip to study the details of the line. This week's trip will take into account all the parts of the territory and will allow the new general superintendent to become acquainted with the officials along the route.

New Official Appointments.

F. D. Casanave, mechanical superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio, has appointed T. H. Russman, supervisor of the car department of the Mt. Clare shops. The position is a new one.

A. M. Mozier, late general superintendent of the Erie lines west of Calamanca, has been appointed general agent of the same company at Chicago. Mr. Mozier is an old Panhandle man and has many friends in this city.

GEN. WOOD IN EARNEST.

HAVANA, Nov. 5.—Governor General Wood sent a communication to the municipal council of Havana to the effect that one of the bids recently submitted for the sewering and paving contracts must be accepted.

This afternoon a committee consisting of the mayor of Havana and several councilmen had a long conference with Gen. Wood and discussed the question of raising the necessary funds. The municipal council will take the question under consideration and report November 20.

Gen. Wood sailed for Santiago tonight.

THE BOARDER'S MISTAKE.

Took His Landlady for a Chicken Thief and Shoots Her in the Arm.

DONORA, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Mrs. John Patterson, whose husband is engineer at a pumping station just above here, was shot by a boarder at their home last night being mistaken for a chicken thief.

Mr. Patterson had been missing his fowls for some time. Last night his wife concluded to have a chicken dinner for election day and without saying a word to any one went out to capture the bird. The chicken squawked and the boarder opened fire with a revolver. Mrs. Patterson got one bullet in the arm, but her injuries are not serious.

Mrs. Lee tried to kill another child three years ago with a hammer. She was in the Mendota asylum for some time and was taken there again today.

OWN A HOME

Don't pay rent forever. What's the use? Are you working in the interests of property owners, or to make yourself and family comfortable? What has the average man to leave his children when he dies? Why, a barrel of rent receipts. It is sad, but true. And it is as foolish as it is true. There is no excuse for such a state of affairs. We want every man to feel that we are trying to help him to a comfortable home.

We assure you there is only one way for a workingman to get a real start in the world. That is by beginning at the home—beginning where the basis of all wealth is to be found. This basis is real estate. You know it—everybody admits it. So why not come with our big free excursion party today and "get in on the ground floor."

WEST CARNEGIE

ITS PRESENT AND ITS FUTURE

West Carnegie is not a "boom" town. It is a solid, well-established, money-making community. It is always busy—always prosperous. The numerous industries there are among the most important in this part of the world. And they are rapidly increasing. The plants now in operation can't begin to supply the demand for their respective products. More mills are needed, and they are going up. One of the largest of these is the immense plant of the Carnegie Tube Co., which is being erected on property adjoining the Torrence Land Co.'s plan. 1,000 MEN WILL BE EMPLOYED IN THIS PLANT ALONE. A man does not need to be a financier to know that this will make all the adjoining property worth four or five times present prices. You can easily double your money in six months if you buy today. Prices will positively be advanced 10 per cent. in 60 days.

The Voice of the People.

The decisive defeat of the fusion ticket at yesterday's election shows how dead is fusion sentiment in Pennsylvania. In Philadelphia, where the strongest effort of the fusion management was put forth, the success of the Republican ticket by a large majority is a well-merited rebuke to promoters of campaigns of slander. The fusion movement was not based on principle, but was the outcome of disappointed ambition. It was the expiring effort of politicians who had been repudiated by the people to wreck the Republican party, that they might construct from the ruin a machine devoted to their personal interests. To this end they enlisted the aid of the Democratic organization, which now finds itself emerging from the alliance with neither honor nor profit, but perhaps wiser. There will be no fusion next year. There would have been no insurgent movement worthy of the name this year without the support of the Democratic organization. In the next campaign even this support will be withdrawn, for Democrats have learned what Republicans well know, that alliances having for their only object the gaining of place and power fail of their purpose. Political contests in Pennsylvania will hereafter be on party lines. Republicans who in years past have been inveigled into side movements will not again permit themselves to be deceived.

The Gazette congratulates the state treasurer-elect and Judge Potter, but particularly the judge, against whom the shafts of malice were especially directed. The people of the state have answered for him, and the manner in which those of his own city and county have rallied about him will be a fragrant memory during his judicial career.

The points of greatest interest outside Pennsylvania for people of this state were New York city and Ohio. In New York the Tammany candidate for mayor was overwhelmed, a fact that will afford general satisfaction. The result in Ohio will give the greatest pleasure. The state of McKinley stands firmly by Republican principles and Foraker will be returned to the United States senate.

The message of the election to President Roosevelt is a cheerful one.

The Turkish War Cloud.

The Franco-Turkish situation by no means indicates immediate hostilities between the two countries, though the position of the sultan is an exceedingly precarious one should he follow the usual bent of his mind and stubbornly refuse to accede to the demands made by the French government. The questions at issue are no longer monetary, if confidence may be placed in the promises of the sultan, who has consented to pay all the claims in connection with losses to individual Frenchmen and those in connection with the quays company at Constantinople. There remain three points at issue and it is with a view to enforcing these that the French squadron has seized three of the principal ports in the island of Mitylene, which is a Turkish possession. The points of difference include:

First—That the religious protectorate of France in the orient be respected.

Second—That the porte assures the free working of French schools and allows unhindered education.

Third—A respect for the rights of the French medical faculty at Beyrouth and that the porte ceases interfering with the licenses of French practitioners in Turkey.

That war is imminent does not seem to be taken in account by the French government. The act of seizing Turkish ports as a means of bringing the sultan to terms could hardly be construed so lightly if any other monarch in the world was being dealt with, but evidently the porte's reputation gives a broader license than would be the case with any other power. There is, of course, the possibility that the wily Turk may fool us all, France included, and that the latter nation will find itself with an actual war on its hands. But the possibility is a remote one for several reasons, not the least being that the sultan cannot afford to engage in a struggle of any kind just now, least of all with a power so formidably allied in Europe as the French government.

King Edward's Health.

Some London correspondents insist that King Edward is suffering from cancer. Other correspondents maintain that the king is a victim to various ailments that make it extremely doubtful whether he will ever be crowned. These reports are so numerous and so persistent as to carry weight on account of their very persistency and by reason of their repetition; but at the same time it must be noticed that Edward is going about England, attending to his duties and taking pleasure. With Queen Alexandra the king took a special train to Portsmouth a day or two ago to meet the duke of Cornwall and York on his return to England after his tour through the British possessions all around the globe.

It must be evident that King Edward could not be so active as he is if he had one foot in the grave. But the most convincing proof that he is in fair physical condition is the Lancet's statement that it has official authority for announcing that the rumors regarding the king's health are entirely without truth or foundation. This medical journal adds that his majesty is in good health and has undergone no operation whatever. That ought to settle the rumors.

A Beaver Valley City.

The proposed consolidation of a number of small towns in the Beaver valley into a large municipality, to be known as Beaver City, is a commendable project. Although such a plan has long been considered, it was not until this week that substantial progress was made, representatives of the communities interested meeting in New Brighton and expressing themselves in favor of consolidation.

The consolidation scheme includes the towns of Beaver Falls, New Brighton, Rochester, Beaver, Monaca and Freedom, and these, with adjoining boroughs and townships, would make a city with a population aggregating 35,000. There are no geographical obstacles to the project, the various communities being so closely joined that a stranger traveling through them is led to believe that they form one municipality. Financial, industrial and social interests would be undoubtedly benefited by an alliance such as proposed, and there does not appear to be any substantial cause for objection. The question of consolidation is to be submitted to the citizens, and it will be surprising to outsiders if there is not an overwhelming majority in the affirmative.

Good News From Spain.

It is pleasant to learn from a business man of Spain, who has been in Pittsburgh a day or two, that the Spanish-American war was good for that country. That was just what we told Spain when we found it necessary to eject her from the West Indies and from the Pacific ocean. We told her that the amputation of her colonies was beneficent surgery, and that the healing of the wounds would be followed by more healthful life in the subject. This has been really the fact. Spain's occupation of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippine islands was beneficial neither to the mother country nor to the islands. The nation did not possess the colonizing genius, and her resources were wasted in misdirected efforts to make vassals of the native people. The ready money which Spain received from the United States gave that country a good start after the war, and the present attention to the development of the nation's own resources has brought about activity in industrial affairs. Spain has forgiven us, and is even willing to buy goods of us.

Surveillance of Anarchists.

A notable contribution to the discussion of the treatment of anarchy and anarchists is made in the current number of the North American Review by Robert Pinkerton. The title of his article gives an idea of its tenor—"Detective Surveillance of Anarchists." Mr. Pinkerton gives expression to the conviction that did not fail to force itself upon the public mind at the time of the tragedy, namely, that proper precautionary methods could have saved the life of President McKinley at Buffalo. If the men who were guarding the president had watched the line of persons coming up to greet him, and had noticed a man with his hand bandaged, and had made sure that the bandage did not conceal a deadly weapon, the tragedy would have been averted.

This is perfectly obvious to all, as it is to Mr. Pinkerton.

The suggestion of the well-known detective that this might have been done is followed by another that the government should establish a system by which it can keep informed of the sayings and doings of anarchists. This suggestion is supported by the instinct of self-preservation, which should apply to governments as well as to individuals. The government should make an effort to discover what its enemies are trying to do. It should legislate against anarchists and afford them no asylum. They are at war with government and government must treat them as enemies.

Danger in Door Knobs.

The recent discovery that the straps in street cars are loaded with disease germs has been followed by another equally surprising, namely, that door knobs, or at least some of them, are disease propagators. This startling addition to medical knowledge was brought about by complaints from employes of the postoffice department at Washington, investigation disclosing that hands were being poisoned by coming in contact with door knobs on which verdigris had formed, and that the poison on the knobs was communicated to faces, causing disfigurement as well as pain.

As the knobs that caused all the trouble are attached to office doors in the postoffice department it is apparent that some of the janitors or cleaners employed by Uncle Sam have been shirking the duty of polishing the aforesaid knobs. Such slovenliness would not be tolerated for a moment by a tidy housewife, and it is surprising that it should be permitted in any of the premises of the government. Now that the source of the trouble has been discovered it is hoped, especially for the sake of the many pretty women employed in the department, that more time will be spent in polishing those door knobs and less in applying soothing lotions to irritated hands and faces.

An Enlightened Afghan.

The new ameer of Afghanistan is manifesting the traits of an enlightened and merciful ruler, instead of acting like the despot that the monarch of that Asiatic country is expected to be. His amnesty proclamation goes far beyond the usual terms. Exiled Afghans are urged to return to their native land, and the ameer not only promises immunity from arrest on false charges, but announces that the lands that had been taken from them will be restored. He will also lend them money to improve their ground and will remit a year's taxes. These alluring terms, with the promise of just treatment in the future, should not only induce a general return of Afghans now in exile, but should consolidate the national spirit, and cause his people to rally around the ruler and support him enthusiastically.

Habib Ullah Khan was known as a progressive man, and he was expected to introduce railways and other civilizing influences which his father would have nothing to do with; but the enlightened treatment of his people which this proclamation prefigures was something the most optimistic observers of Afghan affairs had not dared to hope for.

Evidently Richard Harding Davis has thought better of it, and the country will be saved the humiliating spectacle of seeing General Alger crushed out of all shape and semblance to a man.

From the eagerness of the French navy it would seem that only a swiftly executed side step will save the sultan this time.

Mr. Ernest Thompson-Seton is in danger of getting mixed up over that rehyphenation of his name.

Now that the election is over Pittsburgh should straightway dehump herself.

The Samar rebels seem to have fared pretty badly yesterday also.

The mosquito has been effectually put out of business.

ISABELLA AND SPAIN.

Few Who Accomplished Her Downfall Survive—The Lower Orders Love Her.

(Correspondence to The Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MADRID, Oct. 20.—The young king of Spain has expressed the desire to have his two grandmothers with him when he comes of age. The Austrian archduchess, Elizabeth, is in feeble health, but hopes to be able to accept her favorite grandson's invitation. Queen Isabella pleads age and does not like to leave her home in France, even to return once more to this Madrid where she is still much loved by the lower classes, who remember her kind heart and great generosity.

It would be curious, indeed, to see the old queen once more surrounded by many who formed her gay court in days gone by. Stately, portly dames, with snow-white hair, who used to be her fair ladies-in-waiting, and aged courtiers who were the dashing wild youths of her time. There are still several duchesses, marchionesses and countesses survivors of the gallant court of Isabel II., and among them, though far away from the land of her birth, is Eugenie, ex-empress of the French, who was then the lovely lady-in-waiting styled "Countess of Teba."

The sons and daughters of these aged courtiers are now occupying high positions under the regency and their children in turn will stand near the throne of Alfonso XIIII.

Of those politicians who caused the downfall of Isabel II. few survive. Among them are the Duke of Tetuan, Romero Robledo, Gen. Lopez Dominguez and, strange to say, Prime Minister Sagasta.

But it is not among all these grandees and nobles that the king's Spanish grandmother is sure to receive an affectionate welcome. It is among the people that her memory is kept green. The present generation of workers has heard what a popular queen Isabel II. was; how her court was the gayest of the gay; how there was always plenty of work for everyone; how the queen used to come among them herself and take an interest in all their small doings; how she opened every petition with her own royal hands and freely gave to the needy, heedless of the ruined state of her treasury. They adore the former queen. They understand nothing of the real state of affairs under the old regime and do not see that the country was ruled in the most deplorable manner; that the court was noted for its levity and immorality; that the church was as bad as the palace, until the day came when their beloved queen was banished and they missed her bright, jolly face at the bull fights and they could no longer see her driving in her gorgeous carriage through the capital.

Queen Isabel II. is now 72 years of age and but yesterday the flags were flying over every public building in honor of her birthday. She lives very comfortably, but with little state, in her fine Paris house in the Avenue Kleber, and of late has become reconciled to her husband, Don Francisco. Her daughters visit her by turns, but her favorite child is the Infanta Eulalia, who resembles her most. she is very kind to the queen regent and devoted to all her grandchildren, but, of course, prefers the young king, the posthumous child of her only son.

NEW YORK NOTE BOOK

Election Day in Gotham Was Comparatively Orderly—Expected Battles at the Polls Were Generally Omitted—A Few Minor Fights.

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Herald Building, NEW YORK, Nov. 5.

Take it all and all, it has been an orderly election in Greater New York. There have not been any killings, and only a few shootings at the polls, while the heelers who have "soaked" each other in the jaw will not affect the general result. The returns must be counted, no matter who is knocked out, pugilistically or politically. It is true that John McCullagh, state superintendent of elections, has been busy arresting illegal voters, either actual or intended, and that there have been the usual squabbles at the various polling booths between the watchers on either side. But these are only pleasantries not worth serious mention. The weather has been favorable for it has not rained since the early morning, and there were no rivulets of dirt water or muddy roads to be crossed which might keep finicky people away from the polls. The vote was early as well as full. So many vital interests were at stake that every citizen with any claim to being public spirited made it a point to deposit his ballot as soon as possible. He wanted to be sure that he would have the opportunity to utter his opinion of the various candidates on the two tickets. The returns show that the election was close, just as had been predicted for the last few weeks, and if there was no actual "landslide" it can truly be said that the great mass of the people did not expect it. Not until evening was well advanced did the average man venture to give an opinion with any suggestion of certainty. All were content to wait for the official figures, although nothing could prevent the utterance of convictions by the reckless element that speak only its wishes, without much regard to facts. For the rest, New York may congratulate itself on having passed through a somewhat dangerous ordeal gracefully and creditably. The strong feelings that have prevailed over the issues of this campaign might well make one fear desperate outbreaks at the polls, leading perhaps to general disturbances. But there has been nothing of the kind, and except that the city has worn a semi-holiday aspect, consequent on so many artisans being abroad in their Sunday garments, the stranger would not have supposed that this was anything but an ordinary business day.

Business Generally Suspended.

With the exchanges, banks and other business institutions closed, lower New York today has been as dull as on any Sunday in the year. There was very little traffic in Broadway below the postoffice, while in Broad street and other thoroughfares in the financial district the stillness was almost painful. Wall street, in the business sense, was uncompromisingly absent.

Gloom in Tammany Hall.

Tammany Hall was a dingy, dreary place today. The activity that has distinguished the building for weeks, had given way to a sad, lonesome atmosphere which was dispiriting enough, even if the reports coming in from the polls every few minutes had not indicated that Tammany was being beaten out of its boots. There was an odor of stale cigars and yesterday's beer which was anything but pleasing to the fastidious individual, and the scraps of campaign literature strewn about the rooms and stairways seemed to whisper of the shattered hopes of Richard Croker and his followers. Mr. Croker did not appear until late in the day. He was learning all he wanted to know, and more, too, by telephone, at the Democratic club. The few Tammany men on watch at the hall were there to send lawyers to the assistance of such faithful workers as might be arrested for violations of the election laws, and the attorneys were kept busy in this direction. Aside from this there was little doing at Tammany Hall, and the only signs of busy life in that particular portion of East Fourteenth street were around the Academy of Music, next door.

Prominent Men at the Polls.

Most of the prominent men in New York voted early. Justice Jerome voted in Harlem immediately after his breakfast, and was photographed by half a dozen newspaper men as he entered and left the booth. He was cheered by the by-standers, who semed all to favor him—for no one took notice of the little knot of scowling Tammany heelers in the background. Chauncey Depew, with his son "Buster," appeared at the booth at 9:45 a. m. There were 14 men in line ahead of him, but the senator seemed to look upon this as a joke. He would not consent to be placed at the head of the line, although offers were made to him of this nature, and when he saw a gentleman immediately in front of him step behind, to give the senator his place, he insisted on the gentleman going back. It took more than an hour for Chauncey Depew and "Buster" to deposit their ballots, but it was worth the time spent, as Senator Depew beamingly declared.

Cold Day for Van Wyck.

About the first authoritative information in connection with the vote upon the streets today was that Van Wyck was being scratched on all sides. The mayor is not popular, and it seemed as if the citizens, regardless of party, enjoyed cutting his name out before they deposited their ballot slips. It was a cold day for Van Wyck.

Richard Croker Voted Early.

Richard Croker cast ballot No. 1 in his district, at Park avenue, between Seventy-fourth and Seventy-fifth streets. His sons cast 2 and 3. Then two more Tammany men came up and voted, and Mr. Croker remarked: "There are five straight Tammany votes, just to start the day with." Having thus spoken, he went to breakfast at the Democratic club, with an appetite.

Feared a Calamity.

For the first time in its history on election night, Printing House square has no crowds this evening. The engineers of the rapid transit tunnel declared that the street is unsafe. They said that there might be a cave-in, or a breaking down of the fences which protect the deep excavations if the usual election night mob were allowed to gather in Park row, and they gave the authorities full warning. So the police determined to keep the sidewalk and roadway entirely clear of all persons except those whose business took them to the newspapers. Stereopticons have been put in front of the newspaper offices, and it was expected that there would be the usual 10,000 or 15,000 people to look at the returns. The bulletins are shown, but they must be gazed at from the other side of City Hall park, where it is impossible to make them out, except by the possessors of abnormally keen vision. But it cannot be helped. The engineers called attention to the fact that all the space in Park row along City Hall park has been undermined, and that a frightful disaster would be possible if the enormous weight of a multitude of people were allowed upon it. It was a great disappointment to the thousands of men and boys who make it a point to be in Park row whenever any public demonstration is afoot; but everyone recognizes the wisdom of the regulation. Some close observers declare that there is a political reason for the order—the punishment of one of the papers that has bitterly opposed Van Wyck. This is a bit of gossip on the street tonight, and I give it for what it is worth.

Election Night Noise.

Tin horn peddlers are doing their usual heavy business. Election night always brings plenty of trade for them, whichever way the fight goes. While the closing of Printing House square to vehicular crowds killed the business in that particular neighborhood, there was a continuous demand for the instruments of torture elsewhere. Men in the industry making and selling tin horns say that there never have been more disposed of in New York on any election night—except on the occasion of a national election—in the history of the city. The most striking decoration of Broadway tonight is a long string of peddlers' wagons, full of tin horns.

Revolt in the Ghetto.

A picturesque feature of the election was the activity of the Hebrew population in the Ghetto. The "Red Light" district has become notorious the country over, and it was down there that the heads of families, bearded men and sad-eyed women, beset the polls and worked hard against the Tammany ticket. "De Aate" assembly district is the section of the East Side where the "Cadet" and "Red Light" infamies have been rampant, and they brought out an element today that is seldom prominent at election times. In the past, the Yiddish voters have been content to vote as their district leaders have bid them; but it was different today. The people felt that they had a personal interest in the political battle, and many a citizen of the Hebrew race left his sweat shop long enough to cast a vote for the fusion ticket. It was at once one of the most startling, and, to decent people, encouraging, signs of the times, that Tammany does not own the souls and bodies of all the tenement dwellers of this great city.

Voting Machine Works Well.

A voting machine was used in one of the election districts in Brooklyn, and the opinion is that it saves much time and is absolutely to be depended on. Any man who is intelligent enough to cast a ballot should have gumption enough to push an electric button. The button in this particular district was pushed a great many times today, and the larger portion of the registration of 410 went through the machine with neatness and dispatch. It is a question whether the machine will come into general use, there being the prejudice against new devices, especially in connection with the franchise, which is a stumbling block in the road of every inventor.

Victors Not of the Shouting Class.

As is usual when Tammany gets the worst of it, there was no uproarious shouting when the buletins began to appear early in the evening, telling that Seth Low had been carrying everything before him in Brooklyn, and that it looked as if he were to be the next mayor of Greater New York. Quiet satisfaction could be seen on the majority of faces around the bulletin boards, while those belonging to Tammany adherents expressed disgust, if not surprise. There was nothing for Tammany to shout for, and the supporters of the fusion ticket were of the acting, rather than the shouting class.

Holiday Spirit in White Light District.

Upper Broadway is gay tonight. This is not a new thing to be said of the great White Light district, but tonight there are more light, more jollity, more people, more cabs, more diners at the smart restaurants, more well-dressed men and women going into the theaters, more boys and young men out for a harmless good time, more everything that makes for a holiday. Crowds surrounded the bulletin boards of the newspaper offices, the Herald square was so congested that the good-natured policemen were kept busy clearing a path for the passersby, and the motormen had to ring their gongs desperately to get their cars through. No doubt, the turning away of the crowds from Park row increased the numbers uptown. The people who had come out to see how the election had gone, must find what they wanted somewhere, and, naturally, when they were shut out of Printing House square, they went to Herald square. This applies to the element that lives downtown, or had come over the Brooklyn bridge. The rest of the community, which is domiciled in the Harlem, the Bronx, or in the center of Manhattan island, within easy reach of Madison square, never thinks of going downtown in search of entertainment. There is too much of it in their own neighborhood.

Jerome Hurries Away from Turmoil.

Justice Jerome did not stay in the city to learn anything about the result of the election. He voted, and then, feeling that he could not do anything more, departed for his country home in Lakeville, Conn., taking his wife and children with him. He said, as he went away, that he believed the entire fusion ticket would be elected. The justice has worked harder than anyone else on the stump in the city, and it is easily to be understood why he got out of the hubbub of election time in this metropolis as soon as he had cast his vote.

Appropriate Play for Low to See.

Seth Low and Mrs. Low attended the performance of E. H. Sothern in "If I Were King" last night. New Yorkers tonight are asking each other whether there was a prophetic reason for Mr. Low's choosing this play. At all events, it is conceded that it was entirely appropriate to the situation.

Jesse Kerns has sent us two stocks of celery, which were exceptionally tall. The celery indicates that Mr. Kerns is a successful grower of that plant.—Lock Haven Democrat.

One evening recently some contemptible cur entered the chicken coop of Mrs. M. H. Judd, in the East ward, and stole nine of her choice chickens. Mrs. Judd is satisfied in her own mind as to who was the thief, as the bicycle was a dead give away.—East Emporium Independent.

Frank Coffey of Buffalo township, who advertised in the Reporter some days ago for a stray pig, but failed to find it through that method of inquiry, made an investigation about his premises and discovered the lost porker under his barn, where it had been securely held a prisoner for 12 days without food or water. By careful nursing and attention the pig is doing well and at last accounts it will recover, notwithstanding its long fast.—Washington Reporter.

A Mercer county farmer, who evidently doesn't farm entirely with his mouth, this year had six acres in wheat, from which he realized 180 bushels. He then sowed the ground to buckwheat and harvested 144 bushels. Another farmer in that county raised 1,050 bushels of potatoes on four and three-quarter acres of ground and sold them at an average of 55 cents a bushel.—Connellsville Courier.

The harvest is over, the summer ended, the frost has been on the pumpkin vine for some time and the corn is in the shock. A beautiful fall has been given us, which season is drawing to a close. And yet the sidewalks and crossings we were to have before the muddy season set in, we have "nit." And from the present outlook gum boots will be in fashion for another winter at least.—New Waterford Magnet.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Richards, Wednesday, October 23, 1901, a ten-pound baby girl. That's the reason the Gazette was not published last week and we think it is a good excuse. We felt too jubilant after we found out that we were dad to think much about work. We think our readers will forgive the omission and we are certain that you would have done the same as we did. We are happy to report that both the child and its mother are getting along the nicest kind. We are not used to being called dad yet, but we feel proud of the fact that we are.—Alger Gazette.

Mr. J. Piegpont Morgan made the journey from Detroit to Niagara Falls over the Michigan Central railway, 227 miles, in 230 minutes the other day. Between St. Thomas and Falls View station a speed of 80 miles an hour was occasionally reached. When a railway director shows such perfect confidence in his roadbeds the traveling public, which does not go at such headlong speed, may feel reasonably safe.

EUROPEAN GOSSIP.

The Quirinal, Whose Walls Are Cracking, Full of Sad Memories for Margherita, But the Loved Abode of the Young Queen Helena.

BY THE DUCHESSE DE RELIMERE.

The much-discussed tunnel beneath the Quirinal, regarded as a vantage ground for bomb-throwing anarchists, has justified alarm in a way quite unexpected. A tramway running conveniently below the foundations of King Victor Emmanuel's palace promptly suggested danger to the royal family, but nothing occurring as time went on, the subject dropped, as all such conjectures and forebodings must. Now alarm is once more spreading through Italy, for the walls of the Quirinal have sunk and cracked. The apartment known as the emperor's chamber is badly damaged. There are wide splits in the walls of several rooms and, to a builder, still more serious indications that the subterranean tunnel has weakened the palace foundations materially. Naturally, there is a growing fear that the unfortunate tunnel instead of merely pointing the way, may itself cause trouble in the ruling house of Italy. Perhaps the Dowager Queen Margherita would take it least to heart if this royal palace were abandoned for one on safer ground. Since the late king's assassination she has seen as little of her former home as possible. Sad memories fill every corner of it for the widowed queen, so that with her court she has taken up her abode in a beautiful palace bought for her by King Victor Emmanuel III. More than once, however, during the past year she has gone alone to a certain part of the Quirinal, much as one might visit a tomb. These apartments are kept closed for they belonged to the late king. According to an unalterable custom in the house of Savoy the death of one of its kings means the closing of his special chambers just as he left them. They are kept closed, too, against all but the immediate family during the life of his successor. Therefore, during the reign of his son, King Humbert's private rooms, his books, his furniture and the few objects of art for which he cared most, will be preserved behind locked doors.

Helena Loves the Quirinal.

Queen Helena is, on the contrary, much attached to the stately pile known in former years as the palace of the popes. More than a little thought and personal supervision was given by the young queen to the fitting of that portion of the Quirinal in which she was to live. Her bedroom is entirely white enamel with modern furnishings and communicates with a spacious bathroom in the English style. The reception room or grand salon is hung with pale green silk, a color which the dark-eyed queen knows so well is most to be trusted as a background for her ivory complexion. The dining-room is rich and warm in color; upon it the young sovereigns have lavished the money which buys the best tapestries and the best taste in Italy. Old oak forms the ceiling and the woodwork throughout. Antique tapestries covering the walls set off the elaborate carving on chairs and mantel piece. Altogether, Queen Helena is fond of her palatial home, and its walls will doubtless be made safe once more, not only for the sake of the present royal family, but for the historical interest attaching to the Quirinal.

The summer palace of Monza, near Milan, has for all the royal family too painful an association to be thought of as a residence. Here, it will be remembered, King Humbert was staying at the time of his assassination. Monza, with its beautiful grounds and vast surrounding park, has seen its days as a home of royalty. It is soon to be converted into a hospital and asylum for children, to bear the name of the martyred king. The bracing air of Monza is to bring health into wan little faces, the gardens and limitless shady park through which the good-natured king hunted and fished, will mean a world of temporary freedom to many a toil-ridden child of the city poor. For such is the plan of Italy's progressive young ruler. Monza, King Humbert's summer palace, is to be remodelled into a children's hospital.

The Princess Yolande.

As the death of King Humbert has become the indirect cause of benefit to all the children throughout Italy, so the birth of little Princess Yolande has brought about the foundation of another hospital for children. King Victor Emmanuel III., at the birth of his little daughter, not only liberated thousands of prisoners and fed all the poor children of Rome in her honor, but took a more permanent way of celebrating the occasion. Thus the Yolande hospital for consumptive children in Rome is being constructed jointly by the king and the municipality. Then, too, the example of Rome and the king has been followed in nearly every town and province of Italy, so that the fortunate little princess has unconsciously bettered the condition of many thousands of little children in her father's kingdom. The name Yolande is not a name chosen for its sound, nor for any sentimental reason on the part of Queen Helena. It is a name of great historic interest to Italians. The Duchess Yolande was a daughter of King Charles VII. of France, who became the wife of Duke Amadeus of Savoy. To her credit there is a record of successful reign in the stirring times of 1465. She it was who endowed the people of Savoy and Piedmont with a new code of laws; built the castle of Moncalieri, which Princess Clothilde, sister of the late King Humbert, makes her home. For Duke Amadeus, realizing the superior qualities of his lady, and at the same time his own inability to cope with the difficulties which beset him, invested his consort with the regency of his dominions. To the credit of Duchess Yolande, too, are many hospitals still in existence at Chambrey, Confians and Geneva. The idea of founding hospitals in honor of baby princesses was suggested no doubt by the good deeds of the ancestor whose name is borne by King Victor Emmanuel's daughter.

Queen Margherita Traveling.

Urged by the family and physicians Queen Dowager Margherita is for the first time seeing the countries about which she has read with interest. Holland, Belgium, Austria, Germany and later, it is said, England and the United States are to prolong her itinerary. A long tour of changing sights will divert her mind they hope from the melancholy to which it is a prey. Ever since the cruel murder of her husband Queen Margherita has given increasing anxiety to those about her, for she has found no way of throwing off haunting thoughts of the tragedy that darkened her life. Travel seems the fittest means of diversion for the royal widow. With the exception of two trips to Berlin and one to Vienna, she has never passed the boundaries of Italy since early childhood. "Countess Stupinizzi," the name under which the dowager queen travels, therefore, has found much pleasure in going from city to city in company with her lady-in-waiting, the Marquise Villamarina and her chamberlain, the Marquis Capranica del Grillo. Her son and her physicians have good reason to hope that her return to Rome will be a sign of complete restoration to health.

Peru's Shortest History.

From the London News.

What is probably the shortest history on record has recently been written by Senor Carlos Escribans, a Peruvian gentleman. It is only 100 words in length, and was awarded a gold medal offered by the Society of the Founders of Independence, Lima, for the best history of Peru, comprised within that number of words. Here is the English translation:

"The Asiatic origin of the primitive Peruvians admitted their rudimentary civilization ended with the appearance of Manco Capac, founder of the Inca empire. His 13 successors, continuing his policy, constituted that vast theocratic and communistic monarchy which astonished the world. Conquered by Pizarro (1838), it became a Spanish colony, whose 14 viceroys kept it in mediæval darkness, and whose heavy yoke provoked the independence proclaimed by San Martin (1821), cemented by Bolivar and Sucre at Junin and Ayacucho. The republic established, anarchy supervened, presidents rapidly succeeded, until the disastrous war with Chile, which chastening minds, has prepared the future."

From a High Viewpoint.

Voter Theodore Roosevelt set a good example.

Good morning, King Edward! Is your new title on straight?

There are light frosts these dark mornings.

The United States government was at Oyster Bay for a brief space yesterday.

Men who wagered money on the election and lost now realize how wrong it is to bet.

State governors will soon begin to corroborate President Roosevelt's views concerning Thanksgiving day.

Then, again, the pestiferous house fly seems to be adding to his longevity.

France intends to have a thorough settlement with Turkey while in the settling business.

Ernest Thompson Seton, late Ernest Seton-Thompson, might tell us about the hyphens he has met and annihilated.

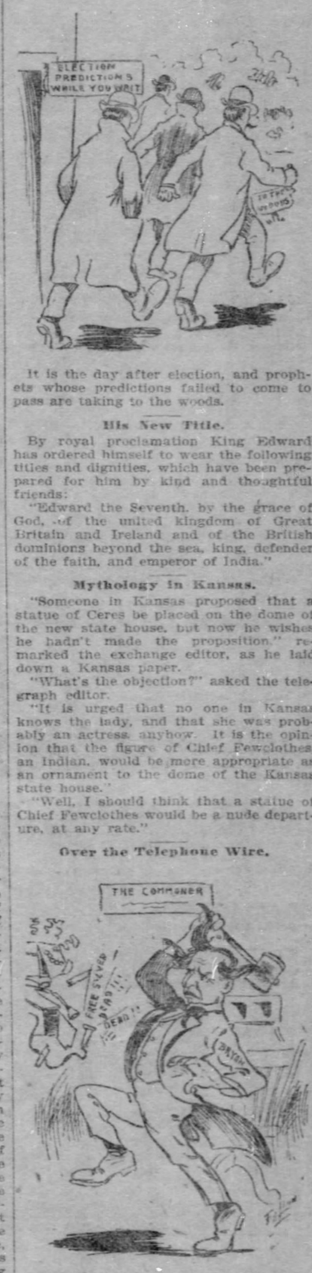
The sultan of Turkey neglected to take in his islands of nights, while the French fleet was nosing around in the Aegean sea.

Edward the Seventh is understood to put it this way: "What is imperial and regal dignity without a cigar?"

The arid belt spreads over a large area of country on election day.

Quite a number of persons who are told to go away back and sit down insist upon stepping forward and assuming an erect posture.

Making Their Escape.



It is the day after election, and prophets whose predictions failed to come to pass are taking to the woods.

His New Title.

By royal proclamation King Edward has ordered himself to wear the following titles and dignities, which have been prepared for him by kind and thoughtful friends:

"Edward the Seventh, by the grace of God, of the united kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British dominions beyond the seas, king, defender of the faith, and emperor of India."

Mythology in Kansas.

"Someone in Kansas proposed that a statue of Ceres be placed on the dome of the new state house, but now he wishes he hadn't made the proposition," remarked the exchange editor, as he laid down a Kansas paper.

"What's the objection?" asked the telegraph editor.

"It is urged that no one in Kansas knows the lady, and that she was probably an actress anyhow. It is the opinion that the figure of Chief Fewclothes, an Indian, would be more appropriate as an ornament to the dome of the Kansas state house."

"Well, I should think that a statue of Chief Fewclothes would be a nude departure, at any rate."

Over the Telephone Wire.

"Hello, central!"

"What number, please?"

"I want to speak to Editor William Jennings Bryan, Lincoln, Nebraska. Don't know the number."

"All right. I'll get him for you."

Ting-a-ling-a-ling.

"Is that Mr. Bryan?"

"Yes."

"What do you think of Senator Jones announcement?"

"What has he said?

"He says that the silver issue is dead."

"Which Senator Jones do you refer to?"

"Jones of Nevada."

"He says the silver issue is dead, does he?"

"Yes; what I wish to know is if you intend to write its obituary and attend the funeral?"

"Sir, you are insolent, and ——"

"And have you heard the news from Spain?"

"What news?"

"The chamber of deputies in Madrid has passed a bill prohibiting the free carriage of silver. I thought you might wish to go across to Spain and point out the error of their ways, and see if you can't have those fellows arrested for thus lending aid and comfort to the Americans who committed the crime of '73, and ——"

At this point communication was interrupted. Sounds as of an angry man smashing the telephone came over the wire, then all was still.

PITCAIRN CASE WAS ARGUED

Supreme Court Is Asked to Declare a Marriage Legal.

FRAUD ALLEGED IN SUIT ON NOTES

Consolidated Traction Company and Mrs. Ada McCracken Both Appeal from a $5,000 Verdict for Charles McCracken's Death.

Several important Allegheny county cases came up for argument in the supreme court yesterday. Among them was the appeal of Mary Pitcairn from the judgment of common pleas court No. 2, in dismissing her bill of complaint against Robert Pitcairn and Dr. R. V. Pitcairn, individually and as committee of Albert Pitcairn, a lunatic. The action was to have the marriage of the plaintiff to the lunatic be declared lawful and valid, the committee having contended Albert Pitcairn was a lunatic at the time of their marriage.

Another important case was that of William T. Dunn against the Columbia National bank, an appeal by the plaintiff from a decree of common pleas court No. 1. The action was to have two notes for $10,000 each declared null and void upon the ground they were obtained by misrepresentations and fraud by W. J. Dunn, who, it is said, forged assignments for contracts upon the bank, the notes having been given to make a deficit of William J. Dunn good.

The case of Ada McCracken against the Consolidated Traction Company. The plaintiff was awarded $5,000 damages for the death of her husband, Charles McCracken, who was killed at Center and Morewood avenues, May 9, 1898. McCracken was riding a bicycle at the time of his death. Both sides appealed the case.

Other cases heard were Union Trust Company, administrator of the estate of Johanna Montgomery, against Pittsburgh lodge, No. 336, I. O. O. F., an appeal by the latter from common pleas court No. 2, an action on a mortgage. Andrew Dinan and wife against the supreme council, C. M. B. A., an appeal by the plaintiffs from common pleas court No. 1, an action on a policy.

The case of Dewitt Dilworth against Arthur Kennedy and others, an action for an accounting, was not reached.

PROSECUTOR REBUKED.

Judge McClung Takes Anti-Cruelty Society Agent to Task.

Judge S. A. McClung rebuked Joseph Duckert, an agent of the Anti-Cruelty society in criminal court for having bought a suit against C. Beall, a candy merchant, charging him with cruelty to animals. Beall was fined by Alderman John M. Von Moss of Allegheny for driving a lame horse from a point on Penn avenue to his stable. A veterinary surgeon testified that the horse's ailment had been only temporary and caused the horse no suffering. Judge McClung told Duckert that he had exercised bad judgment in bringing the suit and ordered the alderman to return Beall's fine and costs.

Alderman John Downey was reversed in a case brought against Mrs. Elizabeth Dillar of Millvale by a Mrs. Ward, charging disorderly conduct. The trouble arose over the children of the two women.

LEGAL BRIEFS.

Criminal court was the only county court in session yesterday.

August Sodeshagen of Pittsburgh was discharged from bankruptcy.

All the county offices but those of the clerk of courts and the sheriff were closed.

Abraham Gansior of New York filed a bill in equity in the United States circuit court against Samuel Rochman & Son of Pittsburgh, alleging an infringement of a trade mark for cigarettes.

Petitions in bankruptcy were filed by John Westover, an hotel keeper of Hastings, Cambria county, with liabilities of $6,226.80, and assets of $70, and by Calvin T. Beers, a broker of Wessington, with liabilities of $3,850, and no assets.

In the bankruptcy case of Joseph Hantman, Judge Buffington held that the referee was justified in refusing to allow a claim for exemption because it was not specified. The same decision was made in a similar question in the case of William Feldman.

LONG SKIRTS WIN.

One New Jersey Election In Which Women Carry the Day.

BAYONNE, N. J., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Women did not vote here today, but the "home influence" was exerted at the polling places, and as husbands, brothers and sweethearts cast their ballots they could almost hear the rustle of skirts. Skirts were the sole issue in the five wards of the city that the women of Bayonne cared a rap about. All other issues were lost sight of in their desire to elect a mayor who would frustrate the attempt of Henry Megis, president of the health board, to limit the length of the feminine skirt.

"We have won," a member of the women's committee at the polls exclaimed. "Mayor Egbert Seymour, Democrat, has been re-elected, and he will fight the Megis ordinance. I know it; because he promised the girls!"

Mr. Seymour merely laughed when told he was regarded as the champion of the long skirt.

The Seton-Thompson Lectures.

Ernest Seton-Thompson captivated two large audiences yesterday afternoon and evening in the Carnegie Music hall. The lecture was for the benefit of the East End Free Dispensary, and the patronesses included many of the most prominent women in social and philanthropic circles in Pittsburgh and Allegheny. Children predominated among his hearers in the afternoon, when a lecture on "Cats, Sparrows and Common Things" was given. In his entertaining manner Mr. Thompson told of the lives of the birds and their common enemy, the cat. His stereopticon pictures, enlarged reproductions of his own drawings, showed his deep insight into the lives and habits of the common creatures.

In the evening Mr. Thompson told of "Animal Minds and Heroes," telling of their education and faculties, the changes in the habits of the deer, elk and antelope under new conditions, and the clever exploits of the wolves, coyotes and of many birds.

SHATTERED NERVES

"I wish to state for the benefit of suffering humanity that I have found in Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer a veritable boon to those needing a nerve builder."

J. HARVEY HUTCHINGS
Bancroft, Mich.
SPINAL WEAKNESS
—BY—
WHEELER'S NERVE VITALIZER.

The above is the opening paragraph in a letter from J. Harvey Hutchings in which he states facts that must be of interest to any one suffering from any form of nervous trouble. The letter continues as follows:

"In 1883 I received an injury which resulted in lateral curvature of the spine. After three operations the curvature was straightened, but the weakness was still there and my nervous system was quite badly shattered. For days at a time I was unable to lie down, would go without sleep as long as nature would allow and then by the use of chloral obtain some rest and go on again year in and year out. I used every known remedy in materia medica and tried every proprietary medicine I put in stock, but all with the same effect. I at last tried Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer and the results have been happy beyond all expectation. I can sleep as well as any one and have gained in flesh from 142 lbs. two years ago to 190 lbs. now. I know what I am talking about when I say Wheeler's is the best, as I have been selling drugs for the past 20 years and handling medicines for nearly 25 years. J. Harvey Hutchings, Bancroft, Mich."

A postal card will bring to anyone even stronger evidence of the merits of Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer.

Rock-a-Bye Baby

These are sweet words, but how much pain and suffering they used to mean. It's different now. Since Mother's Friend has become known expectant mothers have been spared much of the anguish of childbirth. Mother's Friend is a liniment to be applied externally. It is rubbed thoroughly into the muscles of the abdomen. It gives elasticity and strength, and when the final great strain comes they respond quickly and easily without pain. Mother's Friend is never taken internally. Internal remedies at this time do more harm than good. If a woman is supplied with this splendid liniment she need never fear rising or swelling breasts, morning sickness, or any of the discomforts which usually accompany pregnancy.

The proprietor of a large hotel in Tampa, Fla., writes: "My wife had an awful time with her first child. During her second pregnancy, Mother's Friend was used and the baby was born easily before the doctor arrived. It's certainly great."

R·I·P·A·N·S

I suffered from constipation. About three years ago I noticed Ripans Tabules advertised and gave them a trial. I used them according to directions and got what I had failed to get from other remedies: that is, a permanent benefit. Since then I use them occasionally and find they will do all that is claimed they will do. In the course of my business I am thrown in contact with other men of my class, and I recommend R.I.P.A.N.S to my fellow workman whenever I hear him complaining of what I had suffered from myself. I always get the same verdict (they are fine).

O'Sullivan's

Heels of Happiness

"HOW I ENJOY THEM!"

These are common, household words and store talk at the purchase. Matrons, mothers and maids, nurses, waitresses, seamstresses, canvassers and business women in all paths of life are enthusiastic in their praise, while the family physician, from a hygienic standpoint, commends their judgment.

If you have not tested them, you have cheated yours yourself. All shoe stores, 35c pair.

Do not be victimized by the heels made of scrap rubber. They cost the same as O'Sullivan's—give dealers more profit—and do not fulfill the mission of the rubber heel.

TURKISH PORTS ARE SEIZED

Admiral Caillard's Squadron Occupies the Island of Mytelene.

GREAT ACTIVITY REPORTED AT TOULON

French Populace Appears to Take Little Interest in the Warlike Preparations Now Being Made by the Government.

(Special Cable to The Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PARIS, Nov. 5.—News reached here today that the French squadron under Admiral Caillard, sent to Turkish waters to make a demonstration on behalf of the government, has seized the three principal ports of the island of Hityiene in the Grecian archipelago.

The following dispatch was received from Admiral Caillard:

"Mityiene, Nov. 5, 11:40 a. m.—Armored division arrived at Mityiene."

The dispatch does not mention any incident attending the landing, but it seems certain that the French commander carried out his instructions, which were to occupy three ports of the island and to seize the customs.

One cruiser and three torpedo destroyers were separated from the squadron, owing to the speed of the latter. The dispatch boat Mouette, which had joined the squadron, was sent to meet them and to accompany them to Mityiene.

Parisians Not Enthusiastic.

The occupation of the island by the French blue jackets is accepted with the same comparative indifference in France that has marked the whole conflict. Little enthusiasm is shown and the jingo party is opposed to the measure because it is opposed to the government. Most of the newspapers take the same view; that no technical state of war exists. Even if fleets should come to blows, the revenues of the island are not sufficient to pay the debt and the island is only chosen because of good anchorage and is the center of operations. The general impression here is that France has arranged with continental powers as to future action and nothing resembling definite annexation of Turkish territory may be expected.

When the French government decided to send a squadron to Turkish waters it debated whether to seize the customs at Salonica, Beirut or Smyrna, as it was realized that the receipts of one of these three big ports would be required to produce a sufficient sum to pay off the French claims without a long occupation, which was considered inadvisable. The occupation of Salonica was at once dismissed, because it might create the false impression that France was aiming to reopen the Macedonian question. The occupation of Beirut was also set aside, owing to the French position and interests in Syria where the population looks upon France as its protector. The occupation of Beirut, therefore, was certain to create effervescence and perhaps even rebellion.

Smyrna First Decided Upon.

The choice of M. Delcasse, consequently, fell on Smyrna, which offers equal advantage to the other ports without having their political drawbacks. Saturday, however, came the dispatch from M. Bapst announcing the acceding of the sultan's grade accepting the Lorando claim in its entirety, as France demanded. The dispatch slightly modified the aspect of the situation, inasmuch as M. Delcasse came to the conclusion that the sultan would now settle the money claims and would, within a few days, produce the guarantees which France demanded for their payment.

The necessity for seizing big customs therefore because less pressing, although the necessity for occupying Turkish territory, in order to exercise pressure and compel the sultan to concede the demands respecting Turkey's disregard of French treaty rights, still remained urgent. The government, therefore, decided that Admiral Caillard should occupy a couple of ports on the island of Mytelene, which is conveniently close to Smyrna. So should the government's impression that the sultan will satisfactorily settle the monetary questions without delay prove unjustified, and the customs receipts at Mytelene not suffice to meet the French claims, Smyrna can yet be occupied.

Activity in Toulon.

Telegrams from Toulon report the utmost activity in the preparations to place a squadron in readiness for any eventuality. The ships are taking on ammunition and supplies, including live stock and everything necessary to revictual Admiral Caillard's squadron. The battleship Charles Martel, the third-class cruiser Galileo, and three large transports are ready to sail. It is asserted that one of Admiral Caillard's ships has a submarine on board.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The foreign office denies that it has been called upon by the Turkish government to fulfill the terms of the convention of 1878 by which, in exchange for the island of Cyprus it guaranteed the integrity of the sultan's Asiatic possessions.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Seizure of the Turkish island of Mityiene by France may result in the collection of customs from American imports in part satisfaction of the French claims.

To what extent American commerce figures in the trade of Mityiene the state department is not advised, but some American goods are imported into the island.

While American interests are not immediately affected by the action of the French government, the dangerous complications which may arise have undoubtedly caused the authorities to look into the future and consider what this government shall do in certain eventualities. Secretary Hay and Ambassador Choate, during their conferences today undoubtedly referred to the Franco-Turkish question. The time is not yet ripe for the United States to even formulate a policy of action. France, it is believed, was moved to adopt her present belligerent attitude because of the fact that England's hands are tied in South Africa. Even should the sultan appeal to Great Britain to lend her assistance in the preservation of her Asiatic territory, the London government would prefer to rely upon diplomatic protests rather than force. Germany's interests in Northern Syria are such that she would object to Turkish partition unless she received proper recognition.

The possibility of an European war is never lost sight of by the authorities and such an event would naturally deeply affect American interest. For this reason it is proposed to keep a sharp watch on developments, now that the French have gone so far as to seize territory. This government has no desire to force itself into European affairs, and for this reason the state department has not asked the navy department to send a ship to the Eastern Mediterranean.

SOUR ON AMERICA.

German Professor's Spiteful Reply to Capture of Trade.

FRANKFORT, Nov. 5.—(Special Cable.)—A Frankfort professor, Paasche, speaking to the Merchant's society, asserted that German goods are far superior to American.

He added that the increasing power of Americans had given them almost a crazy big-headedness. Imperialists are growing in numbers, while the local American elections are full of defamation and ruffianism. Germans should visit the country more frequently in order to understand its peculiarities.

RUSSIAN WATER WAYS IGNORED

Merchants Who Control the Trans-Siberian Railroad Stand in the Way of Development of the Rivers—The Consequence Is Exorbitant Freight Rates.

(Special Cable to The Pittsburgh Gazette.)

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Captain Joseph Wiggins, the Arctic explorer who discovered the Karasea route, this afternoon reported to the Anglo-Russian society the result of his investigations of the commercial routes of Siberia. He declared the trans-Siberian railroad is utterly inadequate to the volume of freight and demanded that Russia be urged to develop her waterways. He said:

"No country in the world, not even the United States, possesses such magnificent river routes as Siberia, but their development is totally neglected, owing to the opposition of merchants controlling the overland route, who have persuaded the government to impose heavy duties upon goods brought by water. The merchants desire to maintain exorbitant prices at the cost of hindering the progress of the country. Salt, worth in London 10 shillings a ton, is sold in towns of northern Siberia at £12. The inhabitants willingly trade a ton of wheat for a ton of salt.

"The capacity of the trans-Siberian railroad is already taxed to the utmost to carry the most expensive freight, such as silks and teas, and it is impossible to handle grain and cheap merchandise. I am convinced that new settlers in Siberia will no longer submit to the restrictions imposed. For instance, the merchants force the government to repeal the duties on the trade of open rivers benefiting foreign importers and inhabitants alike."

CHEERED BY THE PEOPLE

Porto Rico's Governor Warmly Received by the Inhabitants of the Island.

SAN JUAN, PORTO RICO, Nov. 5.—Gov. Hunt started yesterday on a four days' tour of the island. He received enthusiastic ovations from crowds of people at all the towns he visited, members of both parties turning out, particularly the Federals, who were formerly bitter opponents of the government. The governor was met with processions, consisting of scores of coaches, midway between towns. This is the best indication that Gov. Hunt has the good will of the people.

Education Commissioner Brumbaugh, who is with the governor, is opening new schools en route.

Mr. Dix, the acting treasurer, is in the Military hospital. He has been operated upon for appendicitis and his condition is serious.

SUMMER WAS SEVERE.

Whaling Captains Report That Unusually Cold Weather Has Prevailed in the Arctic Regions.

DUNDEE, SCOTLAND, Nov. 5.—A whaling fleet which returned today from Davis' strait, reports the continuance of severe weather in that region throughout the entire summer, making the work of the various exploring expeditions extremely difficult and hazardous.

In the opinion of the whaling captains gales blew almost unceasingly from May 15 to October 1 over the whole bay and Davis' strait, the west side of the strait being choked with ice all summer.

GERMAN TROOPS PRAISED.

Germany Army in China Is Lauded by Emperor William.

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—Emperor William has issued an army order expressing the warmest appreciation of the work of the troops in China, who have "added fresh laurels to the ancient glory of the German arms."

GERMAN HARD TIMES MAKE TEETOTALERS

Temperance Folk Congratulate Themselves on One Effect of Poverty.

(Special Cable to The Pittsburgh Gazette.)

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—Hard times are accomplishing in Germany what temperance crusades long ago abandoned as hopeless, the distinct diminution of the consumption of wine and spiritous liquors. It is estimated that never in the history of the nation were all classes so temperate. Thousands who were in the habit of drinking wine exclusively, have responded to the demands of depicted bank accounts and are becoming tetotalers. Wholesale and retail liquor dealers share in the complaint of hotel and cafe proprietors, that many persons regard wine as a luxury who have heretofore thought it a staple necessity.

Maurice Matthai, director of the Kaiserhof royal wine cellars, says people who formerly spent 20 marks a bottle for wine are now paying three or four, while those who paid three or four, are drinking beer, coffee or tea.

Germans economize in food, but are sparing in drink only as a last extremity. There is no surer barometer of pocketbooks than the decrese in wine-drinking.

Another circumstance that temperance people put in the list of providential helps, is the report circulated in rival wine districts, that Rhine wine is conductive to heart disease.

CONAN DOYLE IS HIS OWN CRITIC

Pronounces Gillette's Dramatization of Sherlock Holmes Superior to His Own Version, and Great English Actors Agree With Him. The Man of the Hour.

(Special Cable to The Pittsburgh Gazette.)
(Copyright, 1901, New York Herald.)

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Dr. Conan Doyle, whose "Sherlock Holmes" play at the Lyceum, with Mr. Gillette in the title role, is attracting more attention than any other play here, while the new Holmes novel is bringing more readers to the Strand magazine than any other periodical, is in drama and literature the "man of the hour."

I am favored with an advance copy of an article to appear in tomorrow's Candid Friend about Dr. Doyle, of whom the writer says Dr. Doyle will speak of the problems that are submitted to him as the creator of "Sherlock Holmes" by absolute strangers, some simple and amusing, others complex and serious, and a few of still deeper significance. Such a one is now engaging his attention, but the development is more likely to be traced in Scotland Yard than in the pages of the Strand magazine.

Regarding the genesis of the play of "Sherlock Holmes" it seems there are no fewer than three. The author of the one, who was foiled in his attempt to enjoin the Lyceum version, is now suing for damage to his property. Of the second Dr. Doyle speaks in refreshing, bewildering candor. It is his own work and ran to five acts. It was, in his opinion, not a good play. This view was subsequently indorsed both by Sir Henry Irving and Beerbohm Tree. Irving held that Sherlock Holmes was too much the detective.

Both the actors, I happen to know, would have been delighted to play the Gillette version in London after its triumph in America had been assured. Of the merits of this play as contrasted with his own, Dr. Doyle permits himself to speak with equal frankness in the warmest terms, although much of his own work has gone to making it, the first and last stories of the series being ingeniously dovetailed and the dialogue in parts being a literal transcript.

He looks at it quite impersonally. The new Holmes, he recognizes, is weaker than the original, for the latter was never thawed by love; but "on reading the play I recognized at once," he said, "it is the work of a highly skilled workman." The manuscript literally bristled with points, and I realized what an art it is to write for the stage."

ANGRY AT CHAMBERLAIN.

German Veterans of the Franco-Prussian War Indignant Over His Remarks.

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—Popular resentment continues to spread regarding the recent reflections of Joseph Chamberlain, the British colonial secretary, upon the conduct of the German troops in the Franco-Prussian war. The Darmstadt veterans of 1870 have formally repudiated with the deepest indignation, "the aspersions cast upon the Germany army."

A mass meeting held at Hamm adopted a similar resolution. Former members of the society of German students residing in Berlin have called an indignation meeting for tomorrow night at which several university professors will speak.

MASQUERADED IN MALE ATTIRE

Mary Bennie of Allegheny, Ran Away from Home in Company With Two Boys.

ARRESTED FOR TRAIN JUMPING

Whole Party Was Gathered in by Constable at Conemaugh, Pa. Companions Were Edward Miller and Charles Haughey.

Mary Bennie, the 15-year-old daughter of John Bennie of Frederick street, Allegheny, is locked up in Johnstown, having been arrested Monday in company with Edward Miller of 1320 Locust street, and Charles Haughey of 1928 Beaver avenue, both of Allegheny. When arrested the girl was attired in male apparel belonging to Miller. The boys are aged 15 and 16 years, respectively.

The parents of the girl are English and have resided in Allegheny about a year. The girl told her mother several weeks ago that she had secured a position in Pittsburgh, and her mother believed that she was working. Sunday afternoon she left her home and failed to return. A search was instituted, but it failed to reveal her whereabouts.

Sunday night, in company with the boys she went to Pitcairn, where Miller, she alleges, cut her hair, in order that her sex might not be discovered. Clad in a suit belonging to Miller, she traveled with the boys to Conemaugh, where they were arrested for jumping on trains. Miller played the part of a hero in giving up his suit to the girl, the one he wore being old and ragged. Underneath this attire she wore her own underclothing. Her shirt waist was concealed by a sweater. The dark brown tresses cut by Miller from her head were found in one of her pockets by Constable S. M. Snyder, who made the arrest.

The girl is indignant over her arrest, and declares she will not return to her home, preferring to be sent to Morganza. She alleges ill treatment by her parents. Superintendent of Police Henry Muth was notified of the arrest and communicated with the mother. She was horrified when she learned of her daughter's escapade, and could give no reason for her actions.

Miss Bennie is an attractive lass about 5 feet 6 inches tall, and weighing 110 pounds. She is red-cheeked, with a clear complexion, dark brown hair and dark eyes. While in jail she entertained the prisoners with recitations. The boys are small in stature. Mrs. Bennie immediately took steps to have her daughter returned to her home, and the authorities of the Pennsylvania railroad have been asked to assist in this.

THE PRESIDENT VOTES.

Dodged His Bodyguard at Oyster Bay and Led Them a Chase. Took Time in the Booth.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(Special.)—President Theodore Roosevelt returned to his home town of Oyster Bay, L. I., this morning to cast his ballot for the Republican county candidates of Nassau. He spent only a few minutes more than an hour in the village and then journeyed back to his sister's home in this city, leaving for Washington soon after 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Detective Sergeants Funston and Wooldridge of the central office and three secret service men were his guards, and when crossing the ferry a special guard of four other policemen were in the party.

The special train in which the party rode reached Oyster Bay a few minutes before 10 o'clock. About 100 persons were at the station to greet the president. He shook hands with all within range, exclaiming as each newcomer greeted him, "I'm very glad to see you. I'm mighty glad. Delighted." A carriage took the president to the polls. He walked quickly up the stairs to the polling room, on a second floor. The president took the two pink Australian ballots and entered one of the booths. It was expected that he would reappear almost immediately, and when the watches of the spectators showed that the president had taken a minute and a half to mark his ballots, some speculation was indulged in as to whether the chief executive had indulged in the luxury of quiet scratching.

After a short conversation with various local dignitaries, Mr. Roosevelt was driven off at a rapid pace to his home, Sagamore hill. The detectives and secret service men were unprepared for this sudden departure and made ineffectual efforts to close up the gap of a quarter of a mile between them and the president's carriage. After a short survey of the interior of the house, the president was driven back in one of his own carriages to the railroad station, where he held another animated handshaking bee before the special train pulled out at 11 o'clock.

VOTING MACHINES WORK.

Result Found Accurately Recorded as Soon as Affair Was Opened.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The voting machine which was placed in the 18 election districts of the First assembly district of Brooklyn, made a record, the total vote in the district having been counted and announced two minutes after the polls closed at 5 o'clock. The vote for mayor, which was the first announced, showed 277 for the fusion ticket and 115 for the Democratic ticket, with a few scattering votes. The same district last year gave Stanchfield 131 and Odell 226, and gave McKinley 249 and Bryan 156. There were 410 voters registered in the district of which 402 voted.

It was decided some time ago to test the new voting machine, which is supposed to receive and tabulate the votes as they are deposited. The Eighteenth election district of the First assembly district of Brooklyn was selected as the place in which to test the machine. At 5 o'clock the polls were officially declared closed and the machine was opened. It was found that the vote was recorded as announced.

ROOSEVELT HAPPY.

Wires His Congratulations to Seth Low and Justice Jerome.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—President Roosevelt was kept informed of the results of the election during the evening while aboard the train returning to Washington, and later at the White House by Associated Press bulletins and by private dispatches. While anxious for news from every quarter, his greatest interest centered in the result in New York city, and he expressed keen satisfaction over the election of the fusion ticket there.

Soon after reaching the White House he telegraphed his congratulations to Mayor-Elect Low, and later, when the election of Mr. Jerome appeared to be beyond any question, he sent a telegram of congratulation to the new attorney general.

BARREL HELD A MURDER VICTIM

ITALIAN'S BODY BADLY MUTILATED WAS CONCEALED IN IT.

Dumping Ground at Chicago Furnishes a Second Murder Mystery Which Is in a Fair Way to Be Solved by Police—Fruit Dealer Arrested on Suspicion of Knowing Something About It.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The body of a man 30 years of age, whose head had been almost cut off, was discovered in a flour barrel on a strip of prairie near Rice street and Western avenue early today. The victim's feet were securely bound together and the body doubled in a sack, from which it was apparent that his slayer or slayers had experienced difficulty in forcing the body into the barrel. Besides the wound in the neck, the face had been gashed and disfigured.

Two laborers discovered the body. They immediately notified the police, who, after an investigation, advanced the theory that the man had been murdered last night. The victim is believed to be Antonio Napali, who with 25 other Italian laborers, reached Chicago last night from Iowa Center, Ia. Napali cannot be found. The address "Salvador and Luigi M. Nigro, 402½ Clark street," was found on a letter in the dead man's coat. On this firm's books was found the name "Antonio Napali," and his address was given as "Box 453 Livermore, Ia."

In one of the pockets of the clothing was found a silver dollar. Chief of Police O'Neill says he believes robbery was not the motive for the crime, but that the man had been the victim of some vendetta.

The sack into which the body had been thrust bore the name "Dattoli." An Italian fruit peddler, Vincenz Dattoli, was arrested this afternoon. The police discovered in his shop several barrels and sacks similar to the barrel and sack in which the body was found.

Later, Rocco Cantre, a saloonkeeper, identified the body as that of Antonio Napali, whom he had not seen since Napali left Chicago a year ago. He said that probably after his arrival last night Napali had gone to make the round of his old haunts and had met some enemy.

The place where the barrel was found has been used for years as a dumping ground. Twelve years ago it furnished another murder mystery, which has never been cleared up. The victim of this former crime was Amelia Olson, a domestic.

After an investigation, detectives declared that the murder had not been committed where the body was found, but that the grewsome burden had been brought to the spot in a wagon. The barrel had been secured at both ends, but in dumping it from the vehicle one of the heads had been knocked out. Had it not been for this accident the attempt to conceal the murder would probably have been successful.

MISS STONE IS ALIVE AND WELL TREATED

Consul General Dickinson Authorizes an Official Statement.

SOFIA, BULGARIA, Nov. 5.—United States Consul General Dickinson of Constantinople, returned here from Samakov today. He authorizes the statement that he is satisfied that both Miss Ellen M. Stone and her companion, Madame Tsilka, are alive and well treated.

Mr. Dickinson's return is not due to any interruption in the exchange of communications with the brigands, which are still going on.

It has been ascertained that the band intended to kidnap Mr. House, a missionary at Salonika, at the same time as Miss Stone, but the design failed.

Two days before Miss Stone was abducted brigands fired five shots at a gendarme near Raslog, and the local authorities knowing there were bandits in the neighborhood should have supplied an escort.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Official doubt as to the safety of Miss Stone, the American missionary held captive by Bulgarian brigands, was swept aside today when authoritative information reached Secretary Hay showing that she is alive and well. Her companion, Mrs. Tsilka, is also in good health.

No definite plan has been agreed upon for the payment of the ransom or the delivery of the women. In fact the brigands has not yet decided to accept $66,000, the sum now available, insisting that they must receive $110,000. As it is unlikely that any greater sum than that on hand will be raised, Mr. Eddy and Mr. Dickinson have informed Miss Stone's abductors that the original ransom demanded cannot be paid out.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—"It is stated here," says the Sofia correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, "that the briggands will not abate the ransom originally demanded for Miss Stone's release. In Macedonian circles it is maintained that Miss Stone will be murdered out of that territory in order to remove all traces of the original Macedonian instigators of the capture."

BRYAN GOES TO BED.

Receives Returns Up to Midnight and Then Gets Weary.

LINCOLN, NEB., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—W. J. Bryan declined to comment on election returns, so far as they had been received up to midnight. Mr. Bryan remained at his home throughout the evening, and when asked for an expression, replied by asking how New York had gone. He expressed some surprise when told it was from 30,000 to 40,000 for Low. Figures from Ohio, Kentucky and other states were given him in turn, ending with estimates on Nebraska, and then Mr. Bryan remarked that he did not think it was his night to talk.

"I believe I will go to bed," he said.

Polls in Nebraska closed at 6 p. m., and the count began at that hour. Six hundred votes were sworn in at Lincoln, which will bring the total nearly up to that of two years ago. W. J. Bryan, having failed to register, swore in his vote early in the afternoon, declaring himself a Democrat.

BALTIMORE IS REPUBLICAN.

Democrats Lose the City by 5,000. Result of the Legislative Ticket Undecided.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—Late returns show large Republican gains in the city, and it is now asserted that the Republicans have carried it by 5,000. They also claim all three legislative districts in Baltimore.

It is impossible to give any figures on the state result because of the meager returns. It seems highly probable that no more than 75,000 votes have been polled in Baltimore, against 110,000 cast two years ago at the municipal elections. Chairman Goldsborough of the Republican state central committee still claims to have elected his ticket, and asserts that the Republicans will have a majority on joint ballot in the general assembly, while Chairman Vandiver of the Democratic committee makes a like claim for his party.

Will Ask for Autonomy.

MANILA, Nov. 5.—The Federalists are holding a convention to arrange for a petition to congress asking that body to grant autonomy to the Philippines, with a governor appointed by the president of the United States, with veto power over the two houses, the senate to consist of 30 members, 14 of them to be named by the governor and 16 to be elected.

No More Botany.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The Connellsville school board has decided to strike botany from the curriculum of the high school and add higher algebra and geometry. The high school term may be lengthened from three to four years in order to arrange for a more extensive course.

ACCOUNT BOOKS STRANGELY LOST

Another Strange Development Appears in New Castle's Records.

BLEVINS MAY HAVE BEEN ACCOUNTABLE

The Audit of the School Accounts Can Not Be Made Because of the Mysterious Disappearance of the Tax and Cash Books.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—At the regular monthly meeting of the school board last night it developed that the tax and cash books of the school district are mysteriously missing and no trace of their whereabouts can be found.

Auditor Allen Marthens of Pittsburgh, the expert accountant employed by the school board to audit the accounts, has been blocked in his work by the absence of the books. They were inquired for by David Jameson, cashier of the Citizens National bank, who is chairman of the finance committee, and then it was developed that they could not be found. The books are absolutely necessary to the completion of the audit of the school district accounts and their loss created a sensation. Without them it is not possible for Auditor Marthens to tell what disposition has been made of thousands of dollars which should have been paid into the school treasury, and the audit will be practically useless unless the books can be found.

Some members stated that the books had been in the city superintendent's office and had been taken away by Auditor Marthens himself, but this was a mistake, as Prof. Canon explained that Marthens never had the missing books, but others had been given him while making the audit last year.

City Controller John S. Westlake, who is a member of the school board, stated that he thought the books were in the city vault, but he had searched that receptacle without finding any trace of them. This adds another chapter to setting aright the finances of the city and school funds, since they were discovered to be in such tangled condition immediately after the murder of City and School Treasurer John Blevins, who was short some $87,000.

CONFESSED TO MURDER.

Drunken Sailor Says That He Killed a Man in Baltimore Five Years Ago.

ERIE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—James Dempsey, a sailor from the steamer Fulton, was picked up here on the verge of delirium tremens. He confessed to the police that he was haunted with remorse for having killed a man outside an Italian saloon at Marsh market and Pratt street, Baltimore, in the fall of 1896.

He says that the man was struck down and fractured his skull on the curb. "Cockney Tom" was pursued by the police for the murder. Dempsey is held pending a confirmation of his story by the Baltimore police.

DIED WHILE AT WORK.

Petrolia Citizen Stricken With Apoplexy While Selling Cooking Utensils.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—A. M. Rice of Petrolia, Butler county, died at Punxsutawney hospital last night of apoplexy. Mr. Rice was canvassing the town with a patent cooking utensil and was stricken down while demonstrating the appliance.

A physician was quickly summoned, who had him removed to the hospital where the unfortunate man died in 20 minutes.

DR. YATES ELECTED.

Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor Union Chooses a New President.

HARRISBURG, PA., Nov. 5.—The Rev. Dr. W. N. Yates of Philadelphia, was elected president of the Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor union to succeed the Rev. Marion J. Kline of Baltimore, formerly of Harrisburg, resigned, at a meeting today in this city of the State Christian Endeavor executive committee.

It was decided to hold the next state convention at Pittsburgh during the month of July, 1902.

May Not Build the Sewer.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—It is possible that lack of funds may prevent the building of the big sewerage system planned for this city. Bonds amounting to $40,000 have already been sold and the money used. Additional bonds amounting to $35,000 have been advertised, but cannot be sold under the advertised conditions. In consequence of this the general fund has been impoverished by sewer expenses and the council has decided to borrow $10,000 for incidental expenses. The sewer contract has been awarded to J. B. Shaets & Co. of Pittsburgh.

Coal Land Sold.

GREENSBURG, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—C. S. Pore of South Huntingdon township, has sold a tract of 1,200 acres of coal land in Pocahontas county, W. Va., for $350,000. Mr. Pore purchased the land recently for $250,000. He also sold a farm in South Huntingdon township, containing 122 acres for $8,500. He will engage in the fast horse business, having just purchased a three-year-old filley for $35,000. The animal is said to possess great speed and will be put in training at Youngwood.

Marine Corps Enlistments.

GREENSBURG, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Six additional recruits were received at the recruiting station of the United states Marine Corps here today. They are Elmer Rosensteel Shotts of Hempfield township, George L. Welsh of Millstone, N. Y.; James Detrich and P. S. Swaney of Latrobe; A. K. Shearer and M. Lantz of Jeannette, George Hargrave and Frank Smedley of Latrobe, who entered last week, have been sent to the navy yards at San Francisco.

Dynamite Used by Strikers.

SCRANTON, PA., Nov. 5.—A northbound car of the Scranton Railway Company, going from this city to Carbondale today was dynamited at the upper end of Mayfield and hurled crosswise of the tracks. Every window and the front platform were shattered. The motorman, a non-union man, was hurled into the street and bruised. The conductor escaped unhurt. Two Italian trackmen in the car were thrown from their seats and bruised.

Ran Away and Were Married.

GREENSBURG, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—George Martin, a Pennsylvania railroad fireman, and Miss Pearl Hoakes, of Foxtown, eloped to Cumberland yesterday and were married. The parents of the girl objected to the marriage because of their daughter being only 16 years old. Although the couple returned, Martin, the girls' parents declare, will not be recognized as their son-in-law.

Killed by Coal Gas.

SCRANTON, PA., Nov. 5.—James Murtha, his wife, and their son, Charles, were found in their home in Tracyville, near Honesdale, yesterday, overcome from the effects of inhaling coal gas, which had escaped from the stove. Mrs. Murtha died last night and her husband this morning. The son will recover.

SHIELDED GIRL FRIENDS.

Swore Falsely to Cover the Mischief Done by Two Fair Companions.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 5.—William Conkle and George Richardson, two young men of this city, pleaded guilty last night to disorderly conduct and paid fines in order to shield girl friends from the strong arm of the law. They were arrested on complaint of William R. Reynolds, who charged that they had stuffed up his chimney on Halloween and so smoked the family out.

After the young men pleaded guilty to the offense and paid their fines and departed, Judge Cobbison learned that they had sworn falsely to cover the prank indulged in by their girl friends, who had in reality done the mischief.

NEW ELECTRIC LINE.

Greene County Capitalists Are Preparing to Build a Road from Waynesburg to Dilworth.

WASHINGTON, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The erection of a Greene county electric line to run between Waynesburg and Dilworth, better known as Rices Landing on the Monongahela river, has been projected at Waynesburg by prominent Greene county business men who are determined to make the venture a success.

The rich find of one of the best coal veins along the Monongahela river at Rices Landing has caused an unprecedented boom at that place, and the name of the town has been changed to Dilworth in honor of the Dilworth Coal Company, which will operate the mines there. The new town is filling up rapidly with miners and others and it is believed in a short time it will be one of the best towns in the upper Monongahela valley.

The new line will pass through a rich agricultural section thickly inhabited and rich in coal deposits. A survey of the proposed road has been begun and it is said that the road will be completed within a year. Waynesburg people are jubilant over the proposed erection of the road, as it will give them an outlet to the Monongahela valley.

The heat discharged it and the bullet entered Mrs. Shafer's eye. The whole eyeball had to be removed. The sight of the other eye is threatened.

Stomachs That Won't Work,

That Retain the Food and Refuse to Digest It, Make the Head Heavy and the Nerves Weak, Need Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is a cure for dyspepsia. Sufferers who have tried noxious nostrums will probably be skeptical but skepticism vanishes when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are tried. Whether the trouble is dyspepsia of long standing, or merely a simple case of indigestion, relief is prompt and pronounced. The less the trouble the fewer tablets need be taken.

Heaviness after eating, sour stomach, as indicated by belching, fatigue with slight exertion or with no exertion at all, disturbed sleep, nervousness, constipation, depression, "blues," these things can commonly be set down as symptoms of dyspepsia. And dyspepsia is merely indigestion in an aggravated form.

By promoting perfect digestion, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets produce strong nerves, restful, refreshing sleep, pure blood and good sound healthy flesh. They make the skin clear, the eyes bright, the mind cheerful.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a medicine and more than a medicine. They digest the food and make it easy of assimilation, and they relieve the inflamed, diseased condition of the membraneous linings and the glands of the stomach and bowels. They help the digestive organs over the hard places, and put them into a healthy, active condition. They effect a quick and permanent cure. You don't have to continue taking them forever, still it is well to have a box handy and take one at the first return of the trouble.

Perfectly well people are made sick by eating too much, or unwholesome food, but not if they take a tablet after eating. Treatment with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does not necessitate dieting or any change of habits. They digest the proper food and act upon the other kind in such a way as to make it pass off quickly and harmlessly. You may eat and drink what you like, when you like, and as much as you like if you take a tablet afterwards.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents for full size package.

Brown Eleven Was Easy Picking for Homestead Stars

BROWN BEATEN BY THE STARS

Gammon's Great Run of 110 1-2 Yards Was Leading Feature of the Game,

HOMESTEAD TEAM GOT TROPHY CUP

Presentation Took Place Just Before the Game — The 'Varsity Team Was Light and the Stars Did Not Exert Themselves.

It wasn't much of a trick for the Homestead Stars to defeat the Brown 'varsity eleven by a score of 34 to 0. They accomplished the result without hardly turning a hair, and had they been so inclined would have run the score up to a larger figure than Harvard's eleven did on Saturday last, when it was 48 to 0; but it was entirely too much of a family affair to do anything of that kind. There are four ex-Brown men on the Stars, and they had pity in their heart for their old school.

It is not often that a gridiron warrior gets a chance to make a run that goes on record as longer than the gridiron itself; in fact, it is doubtful if there is any record of such a run, but Johnny Gammons of the Stars turned the trick yesterday, when he chased himself a distance of 110½ yards and carried the ball over the enemy's line for a touchdown. There were some of the spectators who were a bit particular, and insisted that it was 111 yards, but this brought a strong difference of opinion and a compromise of 110½ yards was agreed on, and as Gammons is satisfied with those figures, then no one else should have a kick coming.

Just by Way of an Opener.

The play happened shortly after the opening of the game, and it marked the Stars' first score of the afternoon. The 'varsity team had kicked off to Crolius, who returned the ball 20 yards before being downed. Then the Stars fumbled and Brown got the ball. They tried line bucking, but it was not successful; then they tried a trick play on the double pass order, but it also proved a failure, and finally, as a last resort, the signals went out for an attempt at a field goal. At this time Brown was within 15 yards of Homestead's goal line, and a field goal looked easy.

The 'varsity players lined up to protect Schwinn, who was to try for the goal, and the ball was passed back to him, but the Stars broke through and blocked the kick. The ball passed over the heads of the players and rolled to Gammons, just in front of the goal posts. The Stars' big half back gathered in the oval and started for the right side of the field, but finding the way blocked he grabbed the goal post, swung himself around and started down the left side of the field. Schwinn, who made the kick, tried to get him, but Davy Fultz put him out of harm's way. Then Big Haskell, the left end, was in the road, but Artie Poe took good care of him and gave Gammons a free field. The crowd sent up a mighty cheer as Gammons, accompanied by Richardson, run the full length of the field for the first touchdown. It was a great play, and one which is seldom seen in a game.

The afternoon was an ideal one for football, from a player's point of view, because the air was raw enough to make hard work agreeable, but it could hardly be called pleasant weather for the spectators. The crowd did not number 1,200, and the small attendance was accounted for by the poor showing the Brown eleven has been making against the big college elevens. That Harvard score on Saturday was the last straw, and local football lovers looked on the game as a walkaway for the Stars, and did not care to spend the time while Homestead roll up a big score with practically little opposition, and that is just what the game turned out to be.

Some Stars Had Kindly Feeling.

It is a fact that, owing to the friendly feeling of the ex-Brown players, did not exert themselves, and about the only Star who worked with might and main was Fred Crolius, whose line plunging was one of the features of the game. Just to show he could do it, Davy Fultz, in the second half, took the ball around Brown's left end for a run of 65 yards and a touchdown. Hunt, another ex-Brown man, also made some long runs around ends. The regular team, with the exception of Mosse, was worked in the first half, but in the second Capt. Fultz loaded up with substitutes and gave the regulars a rest.

The visiting eleven was seriously handicapped in the matter of weight, as the Stars presented a much heavier line up. Still, at that, the visitors made up in pluck what they lacked in weight. Their star player was little Schwinn, the right half back, and Haskell, the left end who made nearly all their gains. It seems to be a college trick to try and steal the ball whenever there is a mix up, and the Brown players worked the trick every time they got a chance, but Ed Young, the referee, was watching them, and always called the ball on the first half, when short and the ball on Brown's 10-yard line, Schwinn appropriated the leather and chased down the field, with Richardson and Poe in hot pursuit. They did not catch Schwinn until he had crossed the goal line, and the Homestead rooters were in dispair, but Referee Young called the ball back to where it belonged, and Schwinn's run went for naught.

Previous to the opening of the contest both teams lined up in the center of the field, and the beautiful trophy cup presented by the Gazette for last season's championship was presented to the Stars. The Homestead band was present and sent out some lively airs, while the spectators viewed both the team and the cup. The Brown team, during the afternoon, tried two or three trick plays, but only succeeded in working one of them, and that was in the second half, after the Homestead subs were put in, and before they had a chance to warm up to their work. Twice they got the ball within speaking distance of Homestead's goal, once in the first half, when they had it on the 15-yard line, as a result of a fumble, and once in the second half, when it was given to them on the strength of an alleged forward pass, and they pushed it to the 8-yard line. On both occasions field goals were attempted, and both attempts were neatly blocked.

Game Got a Lively Start.

The game started with the Stars defending the east goal and Brown having the kick off. Metcalf kicked to Crolius on the 10-yard line, and he returned the ball 20 yards before being downed. On the first signal play the Stars fumbled and Brown got the ball. The 'varsity, on first try at the line, gained five yards, and then a trick play was tried, which proved a failure. The next try was for a field goal, which was cleverly blocked, when Gammons got the ball and made his run of nine yards into a touchdown. Fultz kicked the goal, and the score was 6 to 0, in favor of the Stars.

On the next kick off Winstein got the ball, but was downed in his tracks. Crolius went through Brown's line for 10 yards, then the Stars fumbled, and it was 'varsity's ball. The visitors tried line bucking, but could not budge the Stars, and lost the ball on downs. On the first line up Fultz punted to Schwinn on Brown's 15-yard line, and Poe carried Schwinn and the ball back to the 10-yard line. Schwinn then punted to Hunt, and Fultz was pushed over for the second touchdown, but Fultz missed the goal, the score was Homestead 11, Brown 0.

Richardson returned Metcalf's kick off 25 yards, and on the Stars' first down, to their opponent's goal, and line plunges and end runs, in which the Pierce brothers, Winstein, Crolius, Fultz and Gammons played an important part, Gammons carried the ball over, Fultz again missed goal, and the score was Homestead 16, Brown 0.

Metcalf to Gammons was the next kick off, and the latter gained 15 yards. At this point Brown braced up, and the Stars were given a run for their money. They pushed the ball down the field, however, and had it on the Brown's 10-yard line, when Haskell stole the ball and chased clean down the field, with Richardson, Poe and Fultz after him. Referee Young called the ball back, and in a jiffy the Stars pushed Winstein over for another touchdown, and Fultz kicked goal, making the score Homestead 22, Brown 0. That long run was too much for Richardson, who dropped out, Woodby taking his place. When the half ended the ball was in the middle of the field in the Stars' possession.

Practiced to Become Perfect.

During the intermission the 'varsity eleven practiced to the music of the band. When the teams lined up for the second half Keene replaced Cobb at right guard for Brown, and the Stars made many changes. Steen went in at left end, Randolph took Bemis Pierce's place, McCutcheon subbed for Hawley Pierce, Shirring went to center, and shortly after the half started Artie Miller took Poe's place. The practice given the college team during the intermission seemed to have a telling effect, and the eleven put up a much improved game.

Gammons kicked to Metcalf, who made 15 yards. Then followed an exchange of punts, and finally Gammons got the ball on a punt and dodged around for a 15-yard gain. Fultz then punted to Schwinn, who dodged the Stars, and would have got away but for Woodley, who pushed him over the line. The Stars tried for downs, and Schwinn punted to Fultz. The Stars then began their march to the goal, and Crollus carried the ball over. Fultz kicked goal, making the score, Stars 28, Brown 0.

Gammons returned Metcalf's kick off 20 yards, and there was another punting match. Brown finally got the ball, and on a double pass Schwinn circled the Stars' left end for 20 yards. The 'varsity worked the ball down the field, but it eventually went to the Stars, who soon lost it on a forward pass. Brown then reached the 8-yard line, but could not no further. A field goal was tried, which Arthur Poe blocked, and Joe Steen fell on the ball. The Stars again worked the ball down the field, and Fultz's 65-yard run around Brown's left end gave the Stars their last touchdown. Fultz kicked the goal, and the score was Homestead 34, Brown 0.

When the game ended the ball was on Brown's 40-yard line, in possession of the Stars. The score and line up:

GENEVA'S CLEVER VICTORS.

Defeated Pittsburgh College Team for the Second Time—Was a Hard-Fought Contest.

BEAVER FALLS, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The Pittsburgh college team put up a very good game against Geneva college on the latter's grounds this afternoon, and while they never expected to win, they felt like congratulating themselves for their good defensive work. It is certain that Geneva has not only the best team that has ever represented the old Covenanter town, but also one of the best college teams in this part of the country, and any team that holds her down to one touchdown in each half is doing very well.

Straight, hard football and desperate line bucking was the only kind of play indulged in, and the home team made very few runs of more than a few yards. They made their gains almost yard by yard each time. Thompson made the first touchdown toward the end of the first half, and East in the second half, after a series of massed tackle plays, which it was difficult for the collegians to stop. Critchlow and Burkhardt, their respective sides put up a star game at end. The game ended with the ball in possession of the Pittsburgh college, in Geneva territory. Score and line-up:

WON BY COLUMBIA.

Defeated Georgetown's Eleven in a Contest That Was Warm and Exciting.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Worthily opposed at first, but later easily outclassing their antagonists, Columbia's football eleven defeated Georgetown by a score of 18 to 0 on the Polo Grounds today. In the first half Columbia's men apparently did not take much interest and were content with a single touchdown. After George Foster Sahfor sharply criticized them in the intermission, the players put on more speed and gained two touchdowns.

Georgetown played fast football at the start, and, in fact, showed better ability at many points than Pennsylvania did on Saturday. The visitors used several trick plays, consisting of delayed pass and fake plunges, which, at first, baffled Columbia, puzzled when they were used. As soon as the visitors resorted to straight football, however, they met an impassable barrier.

Columbia's defense was strong and Georgetown scarcely gained 60 yards throughout the game, the longest advance being Hart's 1-yard run around Van Hoevenberg. The score and line up:

TIGERS OUT OF IT.

Junior Basketball Team That Made a Good Record.

There have been many inquiries as to why the Tigers are not in the Junior Basketball league this year. The reason is principally because their players were signed by the larger teams. The Tigers had never any financial backers, the players having to pay all their own expenses for suits, hall to practice in, balls, etc., so it is easily understood that when they got offers from teams guaranteeing their expenses some of the players jumped at the offer.

That the old team was composed of stars needs no better proof than was shown by the way the players were snapped up. Nickel and Selbel, forwards, going to Duquesne; Sauers, center, going to Bellefield; Hartzog, guard, to Manchester, and Beitzhoover, guard, going to Carnegie Steel Company team. Two of their players are with college teams now, Jenkinson with Grove City and Weaver with Wooster. Orr and Hay, two other players, have not as yet signified who they will play with.

During the two years they were in the Junior league they played 70 games, of which they lost only seven, three of these being lost by one point. They defeated such teams as South Side M. A. C., winner of last year's pennant; Butler, Sewickley, East Liverpool, Homestead and several others of lesser note. The Tigers retire with a record they need not be ashamed of. They never had any trouble with other teams, and were generally well liked by the fair-minded class of spectators.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The last race at Aqueduct developed into a farce today. Six horses faced the starter with Dr. Riddle favorite at 3 to 5 and Astor second choice at 11 to 5. ROBERT WADDELL BEATEN.

The Talent Lost Big Money on Derby Winner.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Robert Waddell, this year's American Derby winner, was defeated by W. J. Deboe and Telanon in the 7 furlong race, which was the feature of the card at Lakeside today. The little gelding's defeat in such company was a sad blow to the talent, who had backed Waddell heavily, even at the short price of 3 to 5. It was the Derby winner's first appearance in nearly two months, and in spite of the fact that the weather was raw and cold a good crowd was at the track to see him race. Summaries:

NEW CASTLE'S VICTORY.

Beat Their Old Time Rivals in Fine Style.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—The Lawrence Athletic club of this city defeated the Youngstown Giants here this afternoon in one of the most exciting contests ever witnessed on the home grounds by a score of 11 to 0. Twice Youngstown lost the ball on the one-yard line and were unable to score, although the ball was in their territory the greater portion of the first half.

On account of the intense rivalry between this city and Youngstown in all sports there were several hundred spectators at the game. The visitors were accompanied by a special train load of rooters, who added their cries to those of the local fans, making a perfect pandemonium at times. The game was rough, but was totally devoid of any unpleasant encounters between the players. The play was fierce, for more than the result of the game seemed to spur the Lawrence on. The teams were about equal in weight, the odds being slightly in favor of the home team. On account of the condition of the grounds, which were somewhat heavy from recent rain, the halves were of but 20 minutes duration each. The score and line up:

Lawrence A. C.—11.		Youngstown—0.
C. Edmonds	L. E.	Cooper
Rodgers	L. T.	Ozersky
Aley	L. G.	Reed
Logan	Center	Bliss
Hart	R. G.	Frey
C. Smith	R. E.	Blackstone
Hardee	R. G.	O'Connell
Smith	Q. B.	Bulmer
Blevins	L. H.	Smith (capt.)

WILL STICK TO THE AMERICAN

WALLACE AND HEIDRICK PASS UP THE LEAGUE'S OFFER.

Instead of Meeting Patsy Donovan, Players Stopped Over at Youngstown and Vowed Fidelity to Jimmy McAleer—Called at the Hotel, but Did Not Want to See Their Old Manager—Donovan Goes Home.

It seems to be all up with the St. Louis National league club so far as Bobby Wallace and Emmett Heidrick are concerned. It looks very much as though they are bound up with the new American league team, and that no inducements can be offered to make them stick to their old club. Patsy Donovan says he has not yet given up hope, still he departed for his home at Lawrence, Mass., last night without having seen the players.

On Monday, when Donovan, Wallace and Heidrick held a conference, the St. Louis manager made the two stars an offer that was very tempting indeed. There is no secret about his offer to Wallace, which was a guaranteed salary of $5,000 a year for two years to play with and captain the St. Louis team. The offer made to Heidrick was kept quiet. The players took the offer under consideration and promised to meet Donovan yesterday afternoon and give him their answer. The place of meeting selected was the football game at Exposition park, and Manager Donovan was on hand all right, but neither of the players put in an appearance.

It seems that instead of going to the football game Wallace and Heidrick went to Youngstown, O., and talked the matter over with Manager McAleer of the new St. Louis team. The two players returned from Youngstown last evening and made a call at the Monongahela house, but not finding Donovan in the office they at once departed. At the time they called Patsy was up stairs in his room packing his traps preparatory to starting for home, but they did not attempt to look him up. Donovan was greatly disappointed at not having seen his players, and was sorry that they did not take the trouble to find out if he was in. He waited about the hotel until almost train time, but the players did not return. The following special from Youngstown tells of their visit to that town:

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—There is no danger of "Bobby" Wallace and Emmett Heidrick breaking away from James McAleer, the manager of the new St. Louis team. Wallace and Heidrick were the guests of McAleer last night, and tonight returned to Pittsburgh. Their mission to this city was to assure Mr. McAleer that all reports to the effect that they were likely to disregard their contracts with him and return to the National fold were without the slightest foundation in truth. "We have signed contracts to play with the St. Louis American league club next season," Mr. Wallace stated, "and we will stick to McAleer to the end, be it bitter or sweet."

"Mr. Donovan might just as well have saved the expense of his trip to and stay in Pittsburgh for all he has accomplished," said McAleer. "Wallace and Heidrick gave me their word that they will stick to me to the finish, and I consider their word just as good as a million-dollar gold bond." He made the same declaration with reference to Burkett, Powell and Padden.

CRESCENTS FINE WORK.

Beaten by the Tube Works Team, but Showed Great Skill.

The All-Star team of the National tube works of McKeesport defeated the Crescent A. C. by a score of 17 to 0. The tube works team was surprised at the pluck shown by the Crescents, who easily averaged 20 pounds less in weight, and the Crescent boys won the admiration and plaudits of the large crowd of spectators by the way in which they tackled and downed their much heavier opponents.

In the first half, McKeesport secured two touchdowns, but had to fight for every inch of ground they gained. In the second half the Crescent team put up a still better defense, and held them down to one touchdown. The Crescent team, although suffered defeat, consider it in the light of a victory, as the odds were all against them. The score and line-up:

Crescents, 0.		Nationals, 17.

MULLEN WAS THE STAR.

Franklin's Team Too Much for Westminster.

FRANKLIN, PA., Nov. 5.—The Westminster college team went down before the Franklin eleven here to-day by a score of 35 to 0. The visitors could do nothing with the strong line of the locals, and the interference of the home team was superb. Mullen, right end for Franklin, covered himself with glory, and his playing was the feature of the game. He kicked five goals, two of them extremely difficult. He also made a 70-yard run that elicited great applause from the large crowd present. Westminster was heralded as a hard problem for Franklin, but the home players kept their record of not being scored against unbroken. Line-up:

Franklin—35.		Westminster—0.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—In one of the best played games ever witnessed in this city, the East Liverpool Y. M. C. A. team today defeated the Bethany college football eleven by a score of 28 to 0. The collegians were no match for the locals at any period.

GREETING OF THE QUAKERS.

They Send to Roosevelt a Message on McKinley's Death.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—At the quarterly meeting of the Society of Friends today, the following address to President Roosevelt was adopted:

At this, our first meeting since the tragic death of our late president, William McKinley, we take occasion to express our deep sorrow for that sad event and our appreciation of his virtues as shown in his public and private life; also our heartfelt sympathy with the wife thus suddenly deprived of his loving care. To his successor, now called to assume the duties of this very responsible office, we offer our encouragement and loyalty in every good word and work demanded by his official position, and pray that he may be endowed with that wisdom that cometh from above, which is first pure, then peaceable.

QUAKER STARS SHOW UP STRONG

Beat the Lafayette Eleven 23 to 0 and Surprised the Experts of the Game.

OSCAR LANG WAS THE SHINING STAR

They Played All Sorts of Pranks With the College Team's Line and Ends—Bull and Bachman Had a Pretty Contest at Center.

(Special to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Nov. 5.—The football wiseacres who delight in predicting the scores on the eve of important gridiron contests were given a jolt today that nearly put them out of commission.

The crack team from Lafayette college, which had played Princeton almost to a standstill and defeated all the other elevens on their schedule by handsome margins, met the Philadelphia professional team, captained by "Blondy" Wallace, the old Pennsylvania tackle, at the National league ball park, and the wearers of the maroon and white were expected to shove the "has beens" all over the gridiron. But the sharps were given a tremendous surprise, for the ex-collegians in two halves of 27½ minutes each ran through Lafayette for the amazing score of 23 points, and never was their own goal line threatened. As a matter of fact, the Easton team seldom had the opportunity to run the ball, so steady and consistent was the ground gaining of the professionals.

Pennsy's Old Stars In the Line.

On the Philadelphia team were former stars who had helped carry the red and blue to victory in many games at Franklin field. Bull, the greatest of all Pennsylvania centers, snapped the ball for Wallace's team; Kennedy was at quarter; McCloskey, another old center of the Quaker eleven, at tackle; Stehle and Merriam at ends and Scillen and Smith, guards. Washburn, the old Brown half-back, played behind the line. These men, considering the fact that they have been out of college football for so long and only have a little time for practice, put up a remarkable game.

The star of the Philadelphia team, however, was Oscar Lang, coach of the Susquehanna university eleven, and a well-known player. His work in today's game bordered on the phenomenal. Three of Philadelphia's four touchdowns were made by him, and he skirted the Lafayette ends, dodged between end and tackle and crashed right through the center in a manner that set the 3,000 spectators wild with enthusiasm. Frequently Lang ran six and eight yards with four and five Lafayette men hanging on his back or clinging to his legs, and it took almost the entire Easton team to bring him to the ground when he had reached top speed. His longest gains were made between end and tackle on the right side of the Lafayette line, and several of them were 12 to 30 yards and brilliant in the extreme.

Stars Had Fine Interference.

The interference of the Philadelphia team formed so quickly and held together so well that the Lafayette tacklers could never break it up until the runner had made a good gain. Roller, Kennedy, Washburn and Smith were all powerful factors in the interference, and Wallace opened up holes in the Lafayette line big enough to let a dray cart through. The team work of the professionals was magnificent. They played as one man on the attack and on defense their tackling was sensational.

The battle between Bull and Bachman at center was a very interesting one to watch. Bachman is considered the very best center in the college ranks, and Bull had a like reputation six years ago. For a little while Bull held his own with his younger and better trained antagonist, but before the first half was over Bachman was giving him a lot of trouble. The teams lined up as follows:

Philadelphia—23.		Lafayette—0.
Stehle	L. E.	E. Haldeman
McCloskey	L. T.	W. Haldeman
Roller	L. G.	Prout
Bull	Center	Bachman
Smith	R. G.	Ernest (Faulkner)
Wallace	R. T.	Lamson
Merriam	R. E.	Hopper (Lowry)
Kennedy	Q. B.	Sutton
Washburn (Deeme)	L. H.	Platt (Raub)
Bader	R. H.	Pitchard (Iseman)
Lang	F. B.	Clare (Emmel)

Touchdowns—Roller, Lang 3. Goals from touchdowns—Roller 3. Referee—Charles J. McCarty, Germantown Academy. Umpire—E. I. Swift, Pennsylvania. Timekeepers—Dr. J. K. Shell, Pennsylvania; George Johnston, Lafayette. Time of halves—27½ minutes each.

At 9 o'clock last night the stage of water at Davis Island dam was 1.8 feet and stationary.

The marine river, rain and rise prophets have quit guessing and are just "sawing wood" and waiting.

Unique is the name of a new boat built at Charleston as an experiment. So far she has proved a success.

The City of Camden is still hard aground and badly "bumped" at Falling Run. Nothing but a rise will release her.

The tow of the steamer Henry M. Stanley, which narrowly escaped destruction by fire early Monday morning, were commenced at once.

All of the lines leaving Memphis are making a uniform rate of $15 for deck trips to New Orleans, which includes stateroom and meals.

The Peoples Coal Company will scrape out the "Ohio at Saw Mill run, and use it in the future as a harboring place for its loaded coal craft.

The Marine Engineers association has elected Albert Garred president of the local branch of the organization. The following trustees were also elected: Charles Pfaffe, Silas Drum and George Bell.

The members of Harbor No 25, Masters and Pilots, will attend a meeting tonight at Curtis Home, Center avenue, the A. O. U. W. having invited the pilots to be present. They will be addressed on the temperance question.

When the steamer John K. Speed arrived at Cairo Sunday, the following Pittsburgh and New Orleans people were aboard the boat, on a low water trip of observation down the Mississippi river to New Orleans: Robert M. Boles, Luke N. Moore, W. R. Hapstonstall and Henry Mendenhall.

James Lutit, who was well known among the rivermen, died at his home in California, Pa., Monday. For more than 30 years Mr. Lutit was superintendent for W. H. Brown's sons. When the Brown-Lutit combination was formed Mr. Lutit became identified with the Pittsburgh Coal Company.

Capt. W. P. Craighill, who was appointed to the engineer corps of the Ohio river, with headquarters at Wheeling, has taken charge of the office. His main duties for the present will be to look after the dam being constructed at Mc Mahon's Bend. Capt. Craighill is a son of Brig. Gen. Craighill of West Virginia.

Gen. Gillespie, chief of engineers, says that no error was made in his office in making up the estimates for river and harbor works for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1902, and incorporated in his annual report. According to the original figures these estimates aggregated about $12,000,000, whereas, in fact, the estimates were $20,000,000. The difference of $8,000,000 is exclusive of the total of $12,000,000 for works under continuing contracts.

EATING BOILER PLATE.

Condition of Monongahela River Water Makes Trouble.

The prolonged drought has caused the water in the Monongahela river to take on a peculiar hue. It is said to be extremely poisonous.

The water coming out of the Allegheny river into the Monongahela is damaging to boating craft and the railroad engineers also are complaining about the havoc which it is causing.

Engineers report that the acid in the water is very damaging to the boilers and that after almost every trip it is necessary to scrape away the acid eats the rivets in the boilers, causing them to leak.

HER TALE DISCREDITED.

Mrs. Chartrand Bought Revolver With Which She Shot Her Husband.

HOBOKEN, N. J., Nov. 5.—The police discovered yesterday, they say, that Mrs. Venedora Chartrand, who killed her husband, John Chartrand, last Thursday morning, bought the revolver with which she did the shooting at Noltes' gun store, the preceding day.

This discovery, the police declared, disproves Mrs. Chartrand's story that her husband gave her the revolver when he was about to start on a hunting trip, and that she accidentally shot him while she had her arms around his neck kissing him good by. Mrs. Chartrand is in the Hudson county jail on a charge of murder.

TWO BUILDINGS BRING $150,000

Eight-Story Warehouse and Factory Building for Penn Avenue.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS IN BELLEVUE

Residence Sales in Nineteenth Ward — Two Houses Sold in Sharpsburg—Few Realty Transfers Made Yesterday.

Samuel W. Black & Co. sold for the Alexander Bradley estate and George A. Berry two warehouses at the northeast corner of Wood street and Second avenue for $150,000. The warehouses are each four stories high with iron fronts, and occupy the lots from 200 to 206 Wood street. The lots front 56 feet in Wood street and 98 feet in Second avenue. The buildings are now occupied by Wilson, Bailey & Co. and the Frick & Lindsay Co. The property was bought for investment. Since the announcement that 40 warehouses would be built on Point property there has been a greatly increased interest manifested in property near the lower end of Wood and Liberty street. Several projects are now under way that promise to greatly change the appearance of that part of the business district.

William H. Whitfield has sold two brick houses lately built in the Nineteenth ward at a price that shows that the building boom which has been "on" in that district the past summer has been one calculated to make it an excellent home center. One of the houses sold for $7,000. It is situated in the south side of Avondale street, near Negley avenue. The lot is 30x100 feet. The house is of red brick and has 10 rooms and a reception hall. The other house, a buff brick of 11 rooms, was sold to Mrs. Mary Semple for $9,000. It stands on a lot 40x106 feet, on the corner of Avondale street and Wayne alley. Mrs. Semple will occupy the house for a residence as soon as it is completed. Several other houses costing $5,000 or more each are going up in the near vicinity.

It was learned yesterday that the property on the south side of Penn avenue running through Exchange alley, that was sold by the Union Realty Company Monday for John G. Mitchell to James H. English will be used for warehouse and factory purposes. The lot is now occupied by an old three-story brick residence. This will be torn down and its place Mr. English will erect an eight story brick and iron structure to cost not less than $30,000. In the basement there will be a complete power plant. The upper stories will be used for warehouses and for light factory purposes.

The attention of home buyers is being turned to Bellevue by the large number of first class residences that are in course of construction. Building has been active in this suburb all summer. One of the best residences near completion is that for Mrs. Mary Conley in Lincoln place, near Harrison street. The house cost $10,000. In Rogers' place Miss Mary Rogers is building two houses to cost from $4,500 to $6,000 each. Several other houses are going up in that street that will cost at least $8,000 apiece. Miss Rogers is also building four veneered brick houses in Sheridan street. The paving of this street has just been completed and property fronting on it has gone up from $30 to $60 a foot. William Jenkinson, president of the Bellevue National bank, who has already built over 100 houses in Bellevue, is building three $6,000 houses, of 10 rooms each, in Kendall place. They will be the finest houses in the Circle, it is said. On Monday a three-minute street car service was started for Bellevue residents that will add greatly to the convenience and value of property there. By the former schedule cars ran from five to eight minutes apart. The new schedule not only shortens the period of waiting but adds greatly to the comfort of passengers.

The Union Realty Company have sold for A. J. Pagan the property situated at the southwest corner of Forbes street and Murray avenue. Twenty-second ward, fronting 75 feet in Forbes street with a depth of 200 feet. The consideration was $9,375. The purchaser is C. F. Ahlers.

William L. Scott & Co., Allegheny, have sold for Robert Carson, Jr., to Martin C. Swift, lot No. 342 in Neville Island City, 25x100 feet, with a frame house of 7 rooms and improvements. The consideration was $2,500.

Seidel Bros. sold two pieces of Sharpsburg property yesterday for $4,700. One was owned by Robert Pickering and was purchased by Mrs. Alta Eschman for $2,600. The lot is 22x102 feet and is in the west side of Clifton avenue and is improved with a two story frame house. The buyer will use it as a residence. The property was transferred from the Hetzel heirs to Mary Evans for $2,100. The lot, 25x100 feet, is on Main street and has a two story frame house thereon.

R. W. Hervey sold for J. S. Klinefelter to Charles Thomas a lot 108x65 feet in Reynolds avenue, Twenty-second ward, for $2,500.

Haas & Lauinger sold for William H. Nantker to Thomas S. Edstrom a lot, 50x100 feet, at the southeast corner of Grandview avenue and Sweetbriar street. Thirty-fifth ward, for $1,800. The lot is improved with a two story frame house.

The same brokers sold for F. C. Marsolf to Belle Shaw a lot, 24x100 feet, at 44 Grove street, McKees Rocks, for $2,800. The lot is improved with a 6 room cottage.

W. A. Herron & Sons sold for C. G. Curran to Nicholas Fiore a lot, 21x100 feet, in Congress street, with a brick house thereon, for $4,200. Also for F. Semple to Samuel M. Smith two lots, 25x70 feet, in Lee street, Eleventh ward, Allegheny, for $400.

Mrs. Ida Minturn sold to Thomas Wakeman two vacant lots in Tioga street, Brushton, for $3,000. They will be improved.

James E. Glass sold the following lots at Amherst Terrace: Lot No. 710, for $150, to J. P. Moyer; lot No. 532, for $90, to H. S. Doll; lot No. 561, for $90, to S. Smith; lot No. 538, for $200, to J. S. Smith.

Few of the deals that are pending in Real Estate Row were consumated yesterday. Buyers could not be diverted from election news and the discussion of political topics to go and look at lots or sign agreements of sale. At the city hall "nothing was doing" and money brokers closed up early to break the election "spell".

Davies & Co., East End, have placed mortgages for three years at 5 per cent on property in the Second ward, Wilkinsburg.

Negley Bros. have closed the sale of two of their lots fronting on the south side of Roseetta street, Nineteenth ward, for $800 each. The lots are 35x105 feet deep. David E. Simpson and John Speer are the purchasers.

Haas & Lauinger sold for William H. Nantker to Thomas E. Edstrom a lot, 50x100 feet, corner Grandview avenue and Sweetbriar street, Duquesne Heights, for $1,800 cash; sold for F. C. Martsolf to Belle Shaw, lot, 24x100 feet, with frame cottage of six rooms, situated at No. 44 Grove street, West park, McKees Rocks, for $2,800.

BIG CONSPIRACY FOILED.

Attempted Assassination of Soldiers in the Philippines Frustrated by a Plotter's Wife.

MANILA, Nov. 5.—A plot to massacre the American garrison at Moncada, province of Tarlac, Island of Luzon, has been revealed by the wife of one of the conspirators.

Several of the town officials are implicated in the murderous scheme. The woman who revealed the plot hid a detective beneath a house in which the leaders of the conspiracy were meeting. Arrests followed and many incriminating papers were seized.

The plan was to set fire to a house close to the barracks after dark, and when the soldiers came out to assist in extinguishing the flames, 150 conspirators armed with bolos, were to rush on the guard, capture their arms and proceed to massacre the garrison.

Commissioner Wright today took the oath of office as vice governor. He will be acting governor during the convalescence of Gov. Taft, who probably will be unable to resume his duties for some weeks to come.

IN THE MONEY MARTS.

Quotations of Commercial Paper at Various Centers.

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—Exchange on London, 20 marks 40½ pfgs. for checks. Discount rates, short bills, 2½ per cent; three months' bills, 3 per cent.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Gold premiums are quoted against Argentine, 132.00; Madrid, 42.25. The gold premium at Rome has advanced to 2.30.

PARIS, Nov. 5.—4 P. M.—Three per cent rentes, 100 francs 60 centimes for the account. Spanish 4s, 70.

MADRID, Nov. 5.—Spanish is closed today at 77.95. Gold was quoted at 42.75.

Foreign Bourses.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Money was fairly plentiful today and discounts had a hardening tendency. Business on the stock exchange today was lethargic and prices were weak. The speech of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, at Bristol yesterday, foreshadowing further taxation on account of the expenditures of the South African war, made an unfavorable impression. The sharp fall in consols was partly attributed to his remarks. Consols were the center of keen excitement throughout the day, but following the trend indicated for some time the fall was considered inevitable. It is accentuated now by the unexpected bull account revealed by the carry-over. Home rails have fallen in sympathy. Great Western was offered in connection with the South Wales coal difficulty. Americans were the steadiest section. The closing was irregular and there was a scarcity of business in view of the New York holiday. Prices closed quiet. Union Pacifics were exceptionally good. Kaffirs were weak.

PARIS, Nov. 5.—The opening on the bourse today was quiet and prices had a tendency to the import duty on wheat into Mexico of 30c a bushel. Sales to Mexico were reported, and just before the close of the session came reports of a decline in British consols, probably the result of the war scare. December and May were both bulled by professionals and sold at a difference of just 3c. December closed strong 1@1¼c advance at 72¾. Local receipts were 210 cars, three of contract grade; Minneapolis and Duluth reported 919 cars, making a total for the three points of 1,131, against 1,100 last week. Primary shipments were heavy at 1,257,000 bushels, compared with 1,250,000 bushels last week. Seaboard clearances were only 132,00 bushels.

Corn was active during most of the session, with a strong undertone. Commission houses were buyers, and the selling was mainly by longs taking profits. December opened ¼@¾c higher, and advanced fairly on strong cash markets. One or two prominent longs let go their lines, and this encouraged short selling again. On sales to points which heretofore have been sellers in this market there was no reaction and a scurrying among the shorts. On the whole it seemed to be as much corn wanted as there had been a week or so ago, when prices were considerably lower. Crop reports continue unsatisfactory, and there is constant talk of feeding new corn to stock. December advanced to 59½@59¾c at one time and closed firm, ¾c higher, at 59½c. Receipts were 148 cars.

Oats was nervous and active under the influence of corn. The cash situation improved, receipts were small, and commission houses were buyers. A prominent bull operator did much to advance the market by his heavy purchases. December, which opened unchanged, advanced with but slight reactions, and closed ⅜c up, at 37⅝c. Receipts were 262 cars.

Provisions ruled heavy early in the day, influenced by lower prices for hogs. Prices were lower all around, and there was some depression as the result of selling by packers. Later there was a demand by shorts, based partly on the grain situation, and January pork closed 2½@5c up, at $13.82½; January lard, 80@7½c up, at $8.07½@7½, and January ribs 2½@5c higher, at $7.67½.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 115 cars; corn, 470 cars; oats, 150 cars; hogs, 33,000 head.

EXCHANGES AND BANKS CLOSED.

In New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston and Pittsburgh yesterday the stock exchanges and financial institutions were closed because of the elections held in the states in which those cities are located. In Chicago the grain and provision markets were open as usual and there was some important trading in a few of the New York stocks. In Pittsburgh Fourth avenue was almost deserted and there was no attempt to transact business of any kind. This morning all the exchanges and financial institutions in the country will resume at the usual hour.

WHEAT BRINGS HIGHER PRICE

Combination of Bullish News Causes an Advance of Over a Cent.

STRENGTH IN CORN WAS INFLUENTIAL

Shorts Compelled to Cover and Turn to Bullish Side When News of Shortages in Russia and Argentine Was Received.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Bullish foreign news of many sorts today revived the wheat pit after a lethargy of several months, and also helped other grain markets. December wheat closed 1@1¼c higher, December corn, ¾c up, and December oats ¼c advanced. Provisions closed 2½@5c to 5@7½c up.

Everything in the wheat situation today pointed to better prices and more active trade for some time to come. Slightly improved cables from Liverpool, Paris and Antwerp, based supposedly upon the recent rise here, were the initial influence for the advance. There was continued independent strength in the corn situation, and this gave an added impetus to wheat. December opened only a shade higher on these factors, but rose steadily throughout the session. Many shorts who have tried to bear the market were forced to buy in at a loss and turned bulls when news arrived of shortages in the Russian and Argentine crops, and of the removal of

PITTSBURGH PRICES FOR FARM PRODUCTS

Prices were steady yesterday for all descriptions, no advances being made in the local market. Reports from various sections of the country were generally of a bullish tone, with markets strong everywhere. There was a better export demand for wheat and other products were firmer in sympathy. Groceries.

The flour market was toned up a little yesterday by reported additional strength in wheat, but no quotable change occurred. Corn products were also influenced by improvement in the corn situation, and higher prices prevailed in primary markets, but no change in figures was made locally. The receipts of new crop molasses and cane juice at New Orleans this week are the heaviest so far this season. There is a ready demand for all offerings, however, and prices are firm, with an upward tendency. Coffee is unchanged locally, and primary markets are without feature, but easy. Teas continue firm, with a strong undertone reported in the London market. No change in the sugar situation; jobbers report a fair, steady demand, and quotations are the same as last reported.

Canned Goods.

A leading Baltimore tomato firm says of the market that since Sept. 1 it has been prime of tomatoes advanced during the past week on a lighter volume of business, and the long looks for weather from the present high level is apparently as far off as ever. That there will be a further advance seems reasonable sure, but the predictions of some of the enthusiastic are hardly high prices may prove not to be warranted.

Dried Fruits.

Reports from primal markets concerning currants point to the effect that a firm and possibly higher range of prices will rule for the new balance of the fall, as prospective supplies are very light. Consumption so far this season throughout the country seems to be phenomenal. The recent buying movement in the Greek market is explained by the fact that Germany has recently appeared as a buyer of Smyrna raisin supplies. In raisins there is more inquiry noted for Malaga bunches and clusters, with prices showing some firmness.

Evaporated apricots, in bags, 10½@11c; 25-lb boxes, 11½@12c; choice, in bulk, 9¼c; 1-lb cartons, 10@11c; peaches, 8@12c; raisins, 1-lb pkgs, 9@9½c; raisins, Muscatels, 2 and 4 crown, 5@5½c boxes, 7¼@7½c per lb; seeded, 1-lb packages, 7@7½c; California Valencias, 6½c; raspberries, 20@25c; currants, cleaned, 25 and 50-lb packages, 6@6½c; California prunes, 4½@7½c.

Fruits and Produce.

All cold weather fruits and vegetables have been considerably stimulated by the drop in temperature which came on Monday, and better inquiry, with increasing sales, can be readily be noticed. Dealers report a number of cars of potatoes sold yesterday to retailers for winter supplies and the market is much firmer. Apples are receiving more attention than was accorded them last week, fancy being in good demand at full prices. Sweet potatoes are firmer, although unchanged in price, but are moving actively. Cabbage is holding steady, and red is now offering in barrels at $2 00 to $2 25. New vegetables in the market are Brussells sprouts and mushrooms, the former selling at 18@20c a quart and the latter at 40@50c a pound. Grapes are not in such good request as formerly, and prices are weaker; buyers do not show much interest in them, and shipments are so long delayed in transit that fruit shipped several days ago, when the weather was warmer, is not arriving in satisfactory condition.

Tropical Fruits and Nuts.

There is no change in quotations this morning, but a more active market for fruits is in evidence. Oranges are ready sellers, while Almeria grapes are in steady request. More life is noticed in the dg situation, and prices are very firm. In nuts there is a show of weakness that has caused prices to rule much easier for all imported stock, with the possible exception of Brazil nuts. They are steady at former quotations. Domestic nuts are not receiving much attention from buyers, consumptive demand being quiet.

Lemons—Box, $1 00.

Butter, Eggs and Cheese.

The market was firm and fairly active, the call for fine, fresh table grades being close up to supply, although low class goods showed some quietness. Cheese is steady, but market is devoid of interesting features, with selling seven and close adherence to quotations shown. New York market is still dull, and the general situation no stronger. Fresh eggs of high grade are in moderate receipt only, and the markets is for the most with claimed made of prices obtained for specially select stock 8c above top quotations.

Eggs—Fresh, candled, doz, 21@22c; storage, 18@18½c.

Poultry.

No attempt has yet been made to increase prices for chickens, although there is a much stronger feeling in the market, receipts continuing sufficient to take care of demand without inconvenience. Trade has been comparatively quiet during the last two days, as it always is at the beginning of the week, but if present cool weather continues there will likely be a much more active demand on Friday and Saturday. Turkeys and ducks are steady, and not coming forward in any great quantities.

Chickens—Live hens, per lb, 8@9c; springers, 8@9c; roosters, 5@8c; turkeys, old, 9@10c; do spring, 10@11c; old turkeys, dressed, 14@15c; spring turkeys, dressed, 15@16c; hens, dressed, 13@14c; fresh spring broilers, dressed, 13@14c; geese, live, 75c@1 00 per pair; ducks, 10@11c; do dressed, 15@16c.

The Horse Market.

The election holiday had its effect upon the auction sale at the Pittsburgh horse exchange yesterday, reducing the number of buyers, and causing bidding on stock to be rather spiritless and slow. About 70 head of horses were disposed of, mostly common stock, running down to poor, with the highest price obtained for any one horse $150, running all the way from that down to $15. Stock was offered from West Virginia and Ohio, as well as nearby points.

Retail sales yesterday were not numerous. James Kerr reports the sale of a pair of English shire draught horses, 6-year-olds, weighing 1,500 pounds, for $500. The market now is slow, with not much demand for stock offering, and common not sought after. Prices for good animals are well maintained.

HANNA CEASES, PARKER BEGINS

hat Marks the Progress Made in the Schley Court on Day of Election.

IG GUNS OF EACH SIDE WILL FIRE LATER

unior Counsel for the Admiral Makes Some Happy Hits About the Events at Cienfuegos and Santiago--Question of Discretion.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—The ute of the Schley court of inquiry was ctively devoted today to hearing argu- ents. Mr. Hanna finished his speech in behalf of the department, which had been gun yesterday, and Capt. James Park- r began, but did not conclude his presen- tion of the case for Admiral Schley.

Mr. Hanna today considered the retro- rade movement, the bombardment of the olon and the charge made against Ad- iral Schley of disobedience of order. Capt. Parker had only reached the coal- g question when the court adjourned. It is expected that Capt. Parker will con- lude his speech tomorrow, when Mr. ayner will begin.

Mr. Hanna briefly reverted to the cruise f the flying squadron from Cienfuegos to antiago to show that neither the Vixen r the Merrimac had been the cause of he delay on that voyage. But one ex- lanation of the retrograde movement to ey West had been given in Admiral chley's dispatch, Mr. Hanna said, name- y, the inadequacy of coal supply.

One Order Supersedes Another.

Mr. Hanna then took up specification ve of the precept, relating to the circum- ances attending and the reasons for he disobedience by Commodore Schley of he orders of the department contained n its dispatch dated May 25, 1898, and he propriety of his conduct in the prem- ses. In this connection attention was di- ected to the fact that the court was, by rder of August 1, 1901, instructed that it s "absolutely free to report, if such shall e found to be the case, that Commodore chley did not willfully disobey orders, ut that he was justified in disobeying hem."

Mr. Hanna contended that while Com- odore Schley was acting under orders ontained in dispatch No. 8 when the re- rograde movement began, May 26, that rder was superseded by the dispatches elivered on the Brooklyn May 27 by apt. Cotton, in command of the Har- ard, and in one of which it was said hat "All the department's information ndicates the Spanish division is still at antiago de Cuba," and to which the or- er was added, "The department looks to ou to ascertain fact, and that the ene- my, if therein, does not leave without a decisive action." Mr. Hanna took issue with Admiral Schley that this was a sug- gestion and not a mandatory order.

Mr. Hanna quoted Admiral Schley's dis- patch of May 27, in which he expressed regret over not being able to obey orders, saying that as it was written after the Cotton dispatch had been received, it was an explicit confession that the Cotton telegram was an order. The speaker controverted the statement made in his dispatch to the department that "It is not possible to cruise to lee- ward of Cape Cruz in summer, owing to southwest winds," quoting several wit- nesses to show that the wind was not from the southwest.

Taking up the coal supply of the fleet, as required by specification 6 of the precept, Mr. Hanna said: "From testi- mony of the commanding and other offi- cers of the Brooklyn, the Iowa, the Mas- sachusetts, the Marblehead, and the ex- ecutive and other officers of the Texas, and from the steam logs of those ves- sels, it has been established that the flying squadron was on May 27, 1898, fairly well equipped with coal.

Specification 7 was next considered. This requires an inquiry as to whether every proper effort was made to capture the Colon, as that vessel lay in the har- bor at Santiago, and referring to it Mr. Hanna said:

Failed to Hit the Colon.

"With respect to this specification it seems sufficient to say that when the flying squadron arrived off Santiago on May 29, the Colon was discovered in plain sight lying about 1,900 to 1,200 yards inside of the Morro moored stem and stern, apparently with awnings up and that she so remained during the 29th, 30th and 31st of May, and until the morning of June 1.

In this connection Mr. Hanna referred to the reconnoissance of May 31, during which the Colon was bombarded, and said that "during this action not one of our ships had the Colon under fire for a total period of more than five minutes, and the Colon was not struck.

"Certain cautionary orders, some of them confidential in their character, is- sued by the department to Rear Admiral Sampson, have been cited as forbidding the exposure of vessels to the fire of batteries and as justifying Commodore Schley's conduct of the so-called recon- noissance of May 31. Assuming that the substance of these orders was communi- cated to Commodore Schley by Admiral Sampson at Key West on the 18th of May, 1898, it is clear that they have no application to the conditions existing at Santiago on the 31st of May."

Mr. Hanna said that beyond the Brooklyn's turn the battle of Santiago was not involved in the inquiry. He said that, according to the weight of the testimony no disposition was manifested by the Spanish ships to ram the Brook- lyn. With reference to the testimony concerning the possibility of collision with the Texas, Mr. Hanna called atten- tion to the fact that the two vessels, in closing in, moved on converging lines and that the progress of the Texas was ma- terially interfered with.

Mr. Hanna also discussed the reported colloquy between Commodore Schley and Lieut. Hodgson, which forms the 10th count in the precept, in which Schley was reported to have said during the turn "d—— the Texas." This remark, Mr. Hanna said, showed a lack of inter- est in another ship of the fleet. He ex- pressed the opinion that there was much to sustain Mr. Hodgson's recollection of this incident.

Capt. James Parker, junior counsel for Admiral Schley, then began his address in support of Admiral Schley. He com- pared this case with the charges made after the battle of Lake Erie. In that case there might have been some foun- dation, but in this there was no founda- tion whatever. He said the court had in its wisdom prevented comparisons with other officers engaged.

Reverting to the claim that Commodore Schley had not made proper efforts to locate the enemy at Cienfuegos, Capt. Parker said the case of landing a boat on the coast was an exceedingly danger- ous one. "There is no evidence," he said, "to show that Capt. McCalla made any attempt to send his men on shore, ex- cept during his cable cutting expedition, when the results were disastrous. He as- sumed, and rightfully assumed, that the people there were enemies, and he acted accordingly.

As for the Cienfuegos blockade, he held it was sufficient that no vessel had gone in or come out without permission. More- over, the admiral had taken all the steps possible to take to ascertain whether the enemy was there.

Commodore Schley had not known any- thing of the significance of signal lights on shore until Capt. McCalla arrived. As for the McCalla memorandum it contained no reference to the signals. What earth- ly reason Capt. Chadwick had for not communicating the signals to Schley, Capt. Parker said, was beyond his com- prehension.

Sampson had, said Capt. Parker, in- structed Schley to remain at Cienfuegos, notwithstanding the department's advice to proceed to Santiago, and in No. 9 dis- cretion had unlimited power given to Schley.

Ship Small Talk Decides Nothing.

As for himself, he cared nothing for the gossip of the ward rooms or the talk of the young officers. "Their talk pales into insignificance," he said, "beside the achievements of Admiral Schley, whose name will continue to shine brighter and brighter every day."

Capt. Parker claimed that in the pas- sage from Cienfuegos to Santiago, the speed of the slowest vessel of the squad- ron must be that of the speed of the squadron. With the information given him, Commodore Schley had acted wisely in turning back to Key West.

Quoting from the dispatch, Capt. Park- er read: "The department's information indicates that the Spanish division is still at Santiago." "Is there anything positive about that?" he asked. "If the depart- ment had chosen to say that the Spanish squadron is at Santiago, that would have been another thing, but it did not say that. There was still some doubt apparent in the mind of the department on that subject."

Again quoting from the dispatch, Capt. Parker read: "The department looks to you to ascertain facts."

"Didn't the commodore ascertain facts?" he asked. "And that the enemy therein does not leave without decisive action," he continued reading. "Well, was there not decisive action?" he asked.

A Very Decisive Action.

"The poor old Spanish admiral saw his flags flying gaily at his mastheads on that Sunday morning, and before 1 o'clock of that day he saw his ships on the beach, burning, blowing up and all destroyed. He came on board the American ship with- out shoes for his feet or hat for his head, and a pair of drawers as his sole outfit. Decisive action? Was there anything that was more decisive than that?"

"There is doubt," he went on, "from one end to the other. There is nothing positive about it. Then follow injunc- tions about coal, but they count no ice whatever. No doubt the commodore could have gone somewhere for coal, but I do not believe it was ever contem- plated that he should have gone off 125 miles for it. So there is nothing posi- tive or mandatory in that Harvard dis- patch.

"If a subordinate informs us that he is unable to obey orders, we do not charge him with disobedience. We may censure him for bad judgment," he continued, "but for nothing more serious. Failure under such circumstances is not allways disobedience."

AGED MOTHER GUIDE TO ALTAR

A Young Millionaire Chooses Her Instead of Best Man at His Wedding.

SOCIAL INNOVATION BY HENRY K. WILLARD

Gen. Corbin Takes Out His License for His Nuptials Today—Many and Costly the Gifts That Will Be Showered Upon the Couple.

(Special Telegram to The Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—The marriage of Henry Kellogg Willard will be unique in so far as the groom will have no best man, but will be attended to the hymeneal altar by his aged mother. The ceremony will take place at noon tomor- row. The bride is Miss Helen Wilson Parker of this city.

Mr. Willard is a millionaire son of Henry Willard, well known as a hotel owner and local financier. He is an only child and very reserved in his intercourse with the world. The innovation of select- ing his mother to escort him to his wed- ding is in keeping with his reputation. He belongs to none of the clubs and has a reputation as a sort of junior Russell Sage.

Although a millionaire in his own right, Mr. Willard probably spends less than a state department dude in the frivolities which go to make life pleasant.

His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Willard, have invited quite a house party to the wedding, among whom are the Rev. Rush Shippen of Brockton, Mass.; Mrs. Richards Bradley of Brattle- boro, Vt.; Mrs. William F. Wesselhoft of Boston, and Miss May Bradley and S. Rowe Bradley of Nyack, N. Y., all of whom are cousins of the groom.

Gen. Corbin to-day secured his marriage license through the agency of his per- sonal secretary. His wedding to Miss Edythe Patten will be solemnized tomor- row by his eminence, Cardinal Gibbons.

The wedding presents are among the most gorgeous seen here on such an occa- sion. The groom's gift to his bride was a magnificent pair of pearl earrings, which will be worn during the ceremony. The bride's sisters gave her a splendid dog collar of diamonds. Among the other costly gifts were a dozen gold plates from John Mackay, who was associated with the late Mr. Patten in mining oper- ations in Nevada. Senator Clarke of Mon- tana gave a large crystal punch bowl, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh gave one in silver lined with gold; Lord and Lady Pauncefote a gilt clock with diamond or- namentation; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mc- Cormack, a turquoise necklace; Secretary Root, a Persian rug; Peter Marie of New York, a gold clock; Mrs. Leland Stan- ford, a gold toilet set; Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, a gold dessert service; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould, a gold clock; the office of the engineer corps, a massive loving cup, and the officers of the West Point mess, a silver pitcher.

It is also announced that Col. George Dyr will be the best man in place of Gen. S. E. M. Young.

TURKEY GIVES IN AGAIN

Grants Exequatur to United States Consul at Harput.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—The state department has been informed by the legation at Constantinople that the Turkish government has issued an exe- quatur to Dr. Thomas Herbert Norton, United States consul at Harput, Turkey, who was appointed to that post in June, 1900. Dr. Norton has been without the authority of the porte to perform his functions as United States consul at Har- put for nearly a year and a half. How- ever, through the energetic efforts of Lloyd Griscom, formerly United States charge d'affaires at Constantinople, he has been discharging informally for some months past his regular functions in lieu of the formal conferrence of his exe- quatur.

Turkey objected to the establishment of an American consulate at Harput on the ground that there was no commerce at that place, but when, a short time ago, Turkey permitted the British gov- ernment to establish a consulate at Har- put, the United States renewed its efforts looking to a similar privilege.

RETURN TO OLD SCALE.

Failing to Compel Other Mills to Ad- vance Wages, Borden Cuts Off Recent Increase.

FALL RIVER, MASS., Nov. 5.—M. C. Borden, owner of the Iron Works Cotton mills here, who, a few weeks ago, caused excitement in labor circles here by an- nouncing an increase of 10 per cent in wages, today gave notice of a return to the original schedule November 18. It was stated that Mr. Borden hoped to compel the other manufacturers in the city to raise wages to meet his action, but a general increase was refused and the operatives accepted the situation.

The following is the notice as posted in all the rooms at the Iron Works mills:

The market price of labor in this com- munity, as fixed by the management of kin- dred mills having been formally accepted by the operatives, the wages of the employes in the mills of the Fall River Iron Works Cor- poration will be reduced 10 per cent to the scale prevailing prior to the recent advances.

The reduction will take effect Monday, No- vember 18. While the management of this corporation believed that under existing condi- tions wages should be advanced, it, nevertheless, did not pay any more than the rate ac- cepted in other mills.
